will not get there this time,-Milles

It was the party's disregard of the

Advertiper,

vothing succeeds

Radam's Microbe Killer

Cantile, Abenmation, Kidner un

on each jug.
for book "History of the Microbe Killen away by
"B. HOLT & CO., Merchants,
Graham, N. C.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

TAS. E. BOYD,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

Greensboro, N. C.

Will be at Graham ou Mouday of each wecl attend to professional business. [Sep 16] J. D. KERNODLE.

ATTORNEY AT LAW Cractices to the State and Federal Course will faithfully and promptly attend to all bu sessutrusted to him

DR. G. W. WHITSETT, Burgeon Dentist,

GREENSBORO, - - -Will also visit Alamance. Calls in

JACOB A. LONG. ATTURNEY AT LAW,

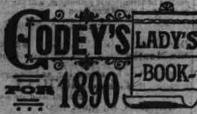

GRAHAM, N. C,

E. C. LAIRD, M. D., HAW RIVER, N. C.

LEVI M. SCOTT, F. H. WHITAKER JR., Greensboro, N. C. Graham, N. C.

SCOTT & WHITAKER, Attorneys at Law,

GRAHAM, ATTACA ADVERTISEMENTS.

YOU CANNOT GET A BETTER

GRAHAM, N.C., THURSDAY, APRIL 24, 1890.

In Staples and Novelties.

Black plaid mulls and Pique at 6c worth 10c. White India linen 36 in. wide at 5c, never sold before for less than 8 to 10c. White for Congress for whom they can plaid mulls at 7 to 9c, worth 10 to 12½. Swiss Hamburg 7½ to 20c, Leader. Without sacrificing their honer. That worth 10 to 25c. Black net 30 to 1.25, worth 50 to 1.75. Satin and all silk Pecot edge ribbon 331/3 per cent less than regular price. Lace Curtains 50 per cent under value. Other things "accordin'."

Beautiful Line of Carpets, Mattings, Rugs, &c. Large Lot of Boys' and Men's Clothing at 25 per cent under value. All the latest Dress Goods-Perfectly Lovely.

will heave.

And the poor and the wretched shall. And bless, whiles it chastening rod;

Is there no place on earth where a knock from the poor.

The turn, in your age of the chastening rod;

And you'll find at the little span.

The chastening rod;

It there was a common the little span.

The chastening rod;

The chast and age of the chast and age of the chast and you'll find at the little span.

door?
Ah! search the wide world wherever you can, There is no open door for the money-

Go, look in the hall, where the chanowy fold.
Sweeps gracefully down with its trimmings of gold,
And mirrors of silver take up and

Go in your churches of the cloudwhich give back to the sun his same look of fire.
Where the arches and columns are

Go, look to the judges, in dark-flowing

law for the case of the moneyless

Go, look in the banks where Mammor is capital for hens, and if well cleaned, is very nearly as good as onto for any

her bread;
Is there no place on the face of the Kneel down by her pullet and kiss the Where charity dwelleth, where virtue dying, Where charity dwelleth, where virtune From the lips of the angel your poverty

chastening rod;
And you'll find at the end of your life's

There's a welcome above for the money less man.

the self Broom Corn. Broom corn grows readily wherever Indian corn grows. At present prices, its production should be profitable. delier's light life production should be profitable.

Drives off with its splendor the dark- the seven States producing the largest amount are, in their order: Illinois, ks, Ohio and Iowa. It is planted in drills on rich land, the richer the bet-When it is first up it is "somped"; that is, the dirt is scraped away from each side of the drill, exterminating the Finding millions are belping the "monweeds. It is then oultivated with the same tools and manner as ordinary grows slowly at first, but when a few luches high it takes a start and grows very rapidly. When "brushed" out is "broken"; that is, the stalks are bent over just below the first joint. If this were not done, the "brush" would be bent down on all sides by the weight of the seed and thus become crooked and worthless. When "broken," the brush bangs ttraight and so ripens. It is sometimes "tabled"; that is, the stalks of adjoining rows are broken in opposite directions and low enough so that the heads lap over and lie one ly rine, but before the brush has turned down, it is "cut," In doing this, the stalks are cut ao inch or so above the first joint, and the head and stalk are slipped out of the sheath. It is then drawn up to burns or sheds which are fitted up with scaffolds from bot-When properly dried, it is by being led upon swiftly re-glinders, having long, allm teeth, which strip of the porting and packing can be done a

Where charity dwelleth, where virtue has birth;
Where bosoms in kindness and mercy will heave. And the poor and the wretched shall ask and receive.

There are places on earth where is knock from the poor Will bring a kind angel to open the Go, search the world over wherever you can, There is no such a thing as a friendless

The rich are not cruel and cold and but the angels of mercy in mansion Kansas, Missouri, New York, Nebras- And let the "good will" of angels be And crush out the envy that curses ter, and three and one-half feet spart. And the graces of heaven enthrone in We may go the world over wherever corn. It comes up quite feebly and Go in our churches of the cloud-reaching spire, Which gives back to to the sun his

same look of fire,
Where the faithful are praying and laboring, too, And they are the friendly eyless man,"

Sample of the Lord E. Go to the courts where justice is Who are giving their aid to the

Go, look in the banks, where many cup:
They wingle their smiles with the faces they scan,
When the rich man is helping the "moneyless man."

Theo go to you hovel I the angels' are dying, Who in eadness and grief are citen left

this land,
Crying, "there are no friends for the
"moneyless man,"
If such would cease trembling and stirring up etrife,
They too, could do wonders in blessing this life.

Then go to the judgment of all, man-kind,
And the judge of righteousness there you'll find.
As he comes in celestial glory, see
And hear him say, "Ye did it to me;
Come, come, ye blessed, it is in my To bless you for blessing the money-

less man.' "
Then the countless throng deeds are told, Astonished will enter the gates of gold.

To ladies sud-gentlemen who desire to make money rapidly we offer a splendid opportunity, We have a large eight dollars per day selling pictures great demand everywhere. If you are already an agent, no matter what you are selling you should carry our plohow rapidly they sell. Outfit consists of four different styles of pictures, late lamented husband, size 14x16 in- stantisl, and indicate what we ke hose who mean business for $2. This for 1.00 but it will pay you to have the best. This is a great opportunity to make money and you should order at nce or write for particulars.

We pay agents 60 per cent commi den and allow them to collect before eturning our money on regular order

P. S. Pictures of either Jeffen Davis or Henry W. Grady album size 8 cents, but sent to any address for names of 2 agents and silver dime of stage stamps. All questions cheer

DAVIS MEMORIAL CO., 907 MAIN STREET. DALLAS, TEXAS

Auditor's report for the year ending Nov. 80th, 1889, for which we are in-$467,784.50 ; of which land paid $210,-050.80, town lots paid $63,694.20, mericenses $4,119.84. Banks $2,490.

Railroads paid on property $28,010.81 and on franchises $3,482.42. Without taxes received were $629,920,90. This,

Treasurer was $076,887.77 The dis- shade the ground, once every the bursements were $1,012,928.43. The school taxes which are payable to the county treasurers were $679,944,04 : while the county taxes were $945,917.13. The entire taxes paid by the people for State, county and schools were thus lina is about two millions and a half, say at the rate of $1.50 per capita. There were 148,527 white polls and 66,594 colored polis listed for taxations The valuation of land is $105,000,000 three of Mr. Davis and one of Henry of town property, $31,800,000; of personal property, $75,000,000; and of fifty cents each. We have the finest railroad property, $11,713,000, making steel engraving which Mrs. Davis mays a total of $223,673,000. The above fig. is the best likeness she has seen of her ures show an increase, which is subthes price $3.50. Outfits complete con- to be the case, that except in those sections where the crop failures have sen a draw back, the State is In better condition than it was some years soludes the fine steel engraving with back, and county property is more highly valued.

> FALLS CITY, NEB., May 18, 1889 .- 1 want another jug of Midrobe Killer. I have used one jug and must my that my catarrh and dyspepsia, of many years standing, have almost disappeared. My appetite, which was so deli-cate, is just the opposite. My kidneys also bothered me a great deal, but they do not now. I believe Mi Killer to be the greatest medicine in ne world. You may use my testi-

It is reported that not over one-half of the public school teachers in North Carolina take and read a newspaper or news papers. With this statement be-

complete.—Lexington Die

Mr. Walters has several las leyes he has sold more go man in his county, and he never plow into the ground since the trees have been large enough to be their load of fruit, so they are supported at both ends. No limbs are eve chapte paid $29,467.27 and marriage out off to allow teams to pers under nor does the fruit blow off nearly an freely as when the growth is forced by particularizing the entire amount of tree. Plowing, he says, encourages excessive growth for a year or two lowever, does not include the fertil- and necessitates subsequent trimmis izers' tax of $37,500. Other receipts to remove the express; but under his were dividend from the N. C. R. B. system no more growth is made than $165,012. Penitentiary earnings $147,- is necessary for carrying and perfect-454.81. g ing the fruit. He top-dresses the land The total amount received by the under the trees and as far as the limbs lows it to grow up and fall down and cover the manure, thus keeping the soil cool and moist at all times. He cultivates his orchard solely fruit, and obtains fruit in al $2,250,000. If city and town taxes and of the fluest quality. Mr. Walters amount to $250,000 more, the cost of has an excellent soil for apples, but no supporting government in North Caros better than that of some of his weighbors, whose orchards are beginni decay under the ordinary method of

Mr. A. W. Oole, of Coder Grove waship, called to see us Tu corn sonked in strychnine. I ne grow pick up eighteen at own. Corn maked in stry fr. Cole says, is sure douth to