ANNOUNCEMENT.

According to advertisement heretofore made, THE ALAMANCE GLEANER newspaper and job-printing offices and everything pertaining thereto was sold at public outcry on Sept. 13th, 1893.

The business of publishing and printing will be continued at the old stand, and the undersigned has been duly constituted business manager and editor by the purchaser, Mr. L. L. Kernodle.

We desire to request all indebted to THE ALAMANCE GLEANER on whatever account to make prompt and early settlement.

Senator Turpie's speeches, says the Washington Post, are always so characteristic that they are listened to with deep interest.

What an unconscious but strange blatherer is in law and language toward the side of those who have much silver found in a sticking is called a hoard and its keeper a miser.

The Charlotte Observer will go into its own new and handsome quarters in day or two. It is assuming all the good qualities of a metropolitan daily and deserves the best of accommodations.

It is stated in the dispatches from Washington that Senator Vance will oppose the confirmation of Collector Kapp Elias, of the Western District, at F. M. Simmons, of the Eastern District.

It is thought that the silver repeal bill will pass the Senate the last of this week or the first of next, at the latest by October 1st.

The spectacle is being presented in the national capital now of the House trying to do business without a quorum.

There was frost in Allegheny county week before last.

Charlotte, imitating Baltimore, has put her conductors on her electric street cars.

Rains east of the Blue Ridge Tuesday night of last caused no less than three wash-outs and landslides on the Western N. C. Railroad between Round Knob and Old Fort.

An appeal to the Charlotte Observer from Hickory, Catawba county, on 13th says: The harvest rains within the memory of the oldest inhabitants of this place fell here last Sunday morning, Tuesday morning and last night.

It is unwise, Gen., is afflicted with yellow fever.

The centennial of the laying of the corner stone of the capitol at Washington was celebrated Monday by speech-making, music and music.

Wm. S. Barnhouser, of New York, has been nominated by the President to fill the vacancy on the U. S. Supreme court which was caused by the death of Justice Matthews.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 15, 1893.

It seems difficult for the republicans to understand that the democrats in Congress intend to re-elect the promiscuous made in the Chicago platform. They actually seem to think that it was possible to cajole the democrats into letting the McKinley tariff law, which was denounced from every democratic stump and in the columns of every democratic newspaper in the land during the last campaign, remain on the statute books, for a while anyway.

The number of democrats who can be frightened by republicans is small, and, as Representative McMillin said early in the session, "let those democrats who feel timid about carrying out the Chicago platform go to the rear; there will be enough left in front to do the fighting."

Everything indicates that the debate on the Voohees repeal bill is drawing near and in the Senate and that the long contest of personal endurance by means of a continuous session of the Senate with a quorum always present or within call will soon begin.

On last Saturday morning the dwelling of Mr. Franklin Glouven, of Havelock township, was destroyed by fire together with all its contents.

On last Monday the fast train on the R. & A. railroad ran off the track at Aberdeen, in Moore county, and, although some of the cars were turned partly over, yet strange to say none of the passengers were seriously hurt.

Mr. Oliver McMath, of this county, says he has been stalling brandy over forty years and never bought fruit as cheap as he did during the past season, when he paid only ten cents a bushel for apples and fifteen cents for peaches.

On last Tuesday Mr. Richard Biddle and his son Robert shot and killed two large eagles, about two miles and a half from this place.

On Thursday Mr. Sidney S. Stroud, of Baldwin township, met with a horrible and probably fatal accident. By some mistake he fell from his bicycle and as he struck the ground, his head struck the sharp stump of a bush pierced his left eye to the depth of three inches.

No one can call at the White House without becoming aware of the sensation that it felt from the President down to the humblest employe over the good fortune that has followed Mrs. Cleveland and her baby girl.

Jerry Simpson's refusal to engage in a joint debate with Congressman Marshall ("Cyclone Jim"), of Virginia, when they were both speaking at the same Virginia town the other day, has been the cause of Jerry's getting a lot of chaffing from his colleagues in the House.

The tariff hearings before the House Ways and Means committee have at times been quite interesting this week and several manufacturers' agents who found themselves confounded when they presented the stock protection arguments went away thoroughly convinced that the democrats on the committee are much better posted on the practical workings of the present tariff than the newspapers generally have given them credit for being.

The passenger rates to and from the State Fair for 1893 will be two cents per mile each way.

A CONGESTION OF MONEY.

The New York Herald says here today: "They know what to do with it."

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The national banks of this city are receiving so much money at present from country banks that they are to a quantity as to its disposition.

Several other banks can easily take the surplus. So much gold coin has come into active circulation since the money stringency set in that a greater part of the daily settlements of clearing house balances are in gold.

The trouble and expense as well as the risk of loss by this method has brought up the old question of one of the banks acting as a storage vault for all the gold and silver certificates made in gold certificates issued by the clearing house. This plan has been adopted here and it is probable it will be again. It is expected that the matter will be settled in a day or two.
