Nervous Prostration

Complete Recovery by the Use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Aver's Earsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Aver's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless to-day had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."-H. O. Hinson, Postmaster and Planter, Kinard's, S. C.

WEEKLY WASHINGTON LETTER

From Our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 2, '96. Mr. Bryan's supporters find nothng discouraging in the situation. On the contrary, they have excel-lent reasons for believing that Mr. Bryan's chances for election are better than those of Mr. McKinley. These reasons are not entirely based upon reports made to the managers of Bryan's campaign, although there is no doubt of the trustworthiness of those reports as a rule. Those democrats who are careful not to allow their wishes to become tangled up with their judgment have been making a study of the figures put out by the more conservative supporters of McKinley and have thereby strengthened their belief in shown the law." Bryan's success. The latest of these tables appeared on the editorial page of the Washington Post, which s strongly for gold. It gives Bryan 205 electoral votes, McKinley 140, and puts 102 in the doubtful column. To accept this table as correct is to be sure that Bryan will be elected, as the 102 electoral votes classed as d ubtful, of which Bryan must get 19 to be elected and McKinley must get 84, are made up of the following states: Illinois, Oregon, California, Maryland, Delaware, West Virginia, Minnesota, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa. It is a very conservative claim to any that Bryan will certainly carry more than five out of these states, which If the rest of the table be all right, and there is no doubt about that, as with the exceptions of Indiana and Nebaska, it only includes in the Bryan column states which are conceded to Bryan by the republi-against them. Democratic confidence, which has been fairly good from the beginning of the campaign, has greetly increased since the conference in New York this week, participated in by Messra. Bryan, Sewall, Chairman Jones, Senator Gorman and other deniocratic leaders. At that conference every aspect of the campaign was carefully considered, and the deliberate and unanimous conclusion of those present was that Mr. Bryan was making a great campaign and that unless something not now ex-pected should occur to change the drift of public sentiment in favor of the free coinage of silver he would be elected with a number of electoral Since its enlargement, The North votes to spare.
