

THE ALAMANCA GLEANER.

VOL. XXII.

GRAHAM, N. C., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1896.

NO. 44.

BAD BREATH.
Nothing is so unpleasant, nothing so common, as a bad breath, and in nearly every case it comes from the stomach, and can be effectively corrected if you will take Simmons' Liver Regulator. Do not neglect to secure a remedy for this repulsive disorder. It will also improve your appetite, complexion and general health.

CONSTIPATION.
Should not be regarded as a trifling ailment. In fact, nature demands the most regularity of the bowels, and any variation from this demand paves the way to serious danger. It is quite as necessary to remove impure accumulations from the bowels as it is to eat or sleep, and no health can be expected where a constive habit of bowels prevails.

SICK HEADACHE!
This distressing affliction occurs most frequently, the disturbance of the stomach, arising from the imperfectly digested contents, causes a severe pain in the head, accompanied with disagreeable nausea, and this condition is what is popularly known as sick headache, for the relief of which take Simmons' Liver Regulator.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

WEEKLY WASHINGTON LETTER.
From Our Regular Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 27, '96.
There is at least one Republican Senator who thinks that the McKinley administration will have to borrow money very early in its career, notwithstanding the assertions of the party stump speakers and editors during the campaign that it would never, under any circumstances, do such a thing. Senator Chandler not only thinks that the McKinley administration will have to borrow money, but he has prepared a plan for it to do so, and it is supposed that he will put it in the form of a bill, which he will introduce in Congress. His plan is in short to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to borrow as much money as may be needed to make up the difference between the government receipts and expenditures so long as there is a deficit, the loans to be made payable in a short period. Mr. Chandler seems to agree with the statements made on the stump by silver men that the election of McKinley would mean among other things a further increase in the National debt by the Government borrowing more money, but other Republicans will favor exhausting all other methods of trying to pull through before resorting to another loan in any shape. Even if there was a Republican majority in the Senate, they could not accomplish any tariff legislation at this session of Congress, unless some way could be devised of reconciling the wide difference of opinion among them as to what ought to be done. There is some talk of an attempt to add to the government revenues by internal revenue legislation, and the project of adding $1 a barrel to the tax on beer, which come so near being incorporated in the Wilson tariff bill by the Democratic Ways and Means Committee of the last House, has been revived and may be recommended in President Cleveland's annual message. The influence of the brewers killed it when it was proposed before, and now in addition to that it will have to contend with the opposition of the high tariff Republicans who want to leave the whole revenue question just where it is in order to have an excuse for an extra session of Congress. The vacant seat on the bench of the Court of Claims which gossip had assigned to one of the members of President Cleveland's Cabinet went to Assistant Attorney General Howry, whose official duties have made him thoroughly familiar with the business of this court. Judge Howry's legal attainments are high and there is no personal objection to him, but if the idea advocated by a considerable number of silver men, of hanging up all of Mr. Cleveland's nominations in the Senate, be carried out, his nomination will fail with all the rest. Whatever may be one's individual opinions, it is clearly apparent that the action of prominent gold Democrats, in trying to get the administration to remove Democratic officials in a number of States because they supported Bryon, is not calculated to wipe out the existing bitterness between the regular Democrats and the bolters. In the Post Office Department alone attacks are being made by the bolters upon more than fifty Presidential postmasters. It is not likely that any considerable number of these, or any other officials the nomination of whose successors has to be confirmed by the Senate, will be removed, because, whatever may be the result of the proposition to take no action upon any nominations, it is certain that the Senate as at present constituted will not confirm the nomination of any gold Democrat for a position from which a man was removed for no other reason than he allowed his conviction and supported silver. That knowledge will probably prevent action by the administration on the complaints of the gold Democrats. The four Democratic Senators who bolted the nomination of Bryan—Palmer, of Illinois; Vilas, of Wisconsin; Gray, of Delaware, and Caffery, of Louisiana—will not be admitted to the caucus of Democratic Senators, which will be held as soon as Congress meets, for the purpose of deciding upon a line of party policy during the session. In addition to the party caucus there will be a silver caucus, attended by the Populists, the silver Republicans and the Democrats, and it is expected that an agreement will be reached under which the silver ver Senators will act together in all matters concerning finance. While it is not thought that the bolting gold Democratic Senators will caucus with the Republicans, it is believed that they will vote with them upon financial questions. The Republicans of Washington are in a state of mind because a gold Democrat has been slated for chairman of the McKinley inauguration committee, and they have made a vigorous protest against his being given the place, both to Mark Hanna and to McKinley, and the local Republicans are right, too; but inasmuch as the gold Democrat who has been promised the place was a big contributor to Mark Hanna's campaign fund their protest will probably count for nothing. It is customary to have all parties represented on the inauguration committee, but if this gold Democrat gets what he paid for it will be the first time that a chairman of the committee has not been a member of the party which elected the President.

Four Hundred Deserted Wives in the Kansas Town.
Topeka, Kan., Dispatch, 2d.
The officers of a Topeka charitable institution yesterday made the remarkable statement that there are over 400 deserted wives in this city of 35,000 inhabitants, and that every day adds to the list of the deserted or divorced women who appeal for work or solicit funds with which to buy bread for themselves and their children. The charitable society attributes this condition to hard times and the general worthlessness of the men. The divorce mill in Topeka is running on steadily. Every week divorces are granted to men and women, incompatibility of temper being the general charge.
