

Wine of Cardui Cured Her.

215 South Prior Street, ATLANTA, GA., March 21, 1903.

I suffered for four months with extreme nervousness and lassitude. I had a sinking feeling in my stomach which no medicine seemed to relieve, and losing my appetite I became weak and lost my vitality. In three weeks I lost fourteen pounds of flesh and felt that I must find speedy relief to regain my health. Having heard Wine of Cardui praised by several of my friends, I sent for a bottle and was certainly very pleased with the results. Within three days my appetite returned and my stomach troubles had no more. I could digest my food without difficulty and the nervousness gradually diminished. Nature performed her functions without difficulty and I am once more a happy and well woman.

POLEY'S SHIRT AND TIE

Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 20, 1904.

Senator Gorman spent a few hours in Washington to-day and the representatives of the Democratic press flocked to him for predictions which they hoped would gladden the hearts of their editors, but the Senator was extremely conservative in his statements. "I cannot tell you any more about than you know yourself," he said, "There is apparently an apathy throughout the country and men are attending strictly to their business and saying nothing. Yet the registration in those cities where it has been held is larger than ever. What does it all mean? I have never yet been able to find a man who could accurately feel the public pulse under these conditions. I do not know how it is going to turn out but I am confident there are going to be some big surprises. Whether it will be the other side that will be surprised or whether it will be our side I cannot tell. And I don't think anyone else can tell you either. Four years ago about one-third of the Democratic party went over to the other side and some 7,000,000 votes were polled. Where are these Democrats now? Have they gone back and what does the big registration mean? There are exceptions to all rules and this may be an exception, but no one can tell what the result will be."

Surprise is expressed that the President should have had to order Secretary Taft, of the War Department, to the isthmus of Panama to pacify the Panamanians. This order is regarded as certain evidence that Minister John Barrett has not been telling the whole truth to the newspapers when he has declared that there existed no friction between the Republic of Panama and the United States. The truth is that the tariff of this country is going to make trouble with Panamanians and it is doubtful if even "the great pacificator," Secretary Taft, can persuade the people of Panama that it is to their interest to have the Dingley tariff law enforced at each end of and all around the canal zone. However, the promised visit of the Secretary will probably postpone any outward show of dissatisfaction on the part of the isthmians, until after the election and that is the most of the administration with regard to all things now, "keep it dark until after election."

By his latest public speech Judge Parker has made it plain that from now on the great issue of the campaign will be anti-imperialism. Many of the candidate's friends and advisors believe that there are issues which would be more profitably exploited by Mr. Parker as a sincere man and is unwilling to advocate policies in which he has not the utmost faith. He has rendered impossible any active tariff reform campaign by his announcement that the Republicans will inevitably control the Senate throughout the next presidential term so that no changes in the tariff unacceptable to the Republicans could be effected, even if he were elected. He has, by his speech of acceptance, shown a disinclination to any radical anti-trust movement, although he would doubtless do all in his power to control the great aggregations of capital, and now he has shown greater enthusiasm in his denunciation of the un-American policy pursued by the present administration in the Philippines than on any other issue, so that the Philippines it will doubtless have to be.

The most encouraging reports reach Washington regarding Mr. Bryan's work in Indiana. It is asserted that he has saved his party at least 10,000 votes among voters who would have voted for Watson, or Debs, or remained away from the polls had not the eloquent Nebraska come among them and told them that, while Parker was not originally "his kind of a man" he was a vast improvement over Roosevelt. It is also believed that West Virginia will go Democratic and New York is generally regarded as certain, but opinion differs as to the rest of the country and these States added to the solid South do not aggregate enough electoral votes to insure Democratic success by 42 votes. The best way to get those essential 42 votes is the problem that the Democrats think they can successfully solve.

One of the latest evidences of the "big stick" policy is the effort being made to extend the facilities for rifle practice to the ordinary citizens. Volunteers, it is urged, must be relied upon in time of war to supplement very largely the standing army and for that reason every man should know how to shoot and straight. Congress will be besieged with petitions, during the coming session, for appropriations for establishing rifle ranges, loaning army rifles to military schools, establishing shooting galleries and providing instructors, not only for the militia but for rifle clubs which will be organized in all parts of the country if the present plans are carried into effect. Such preparations for war afford little ground for faith in President Roosevelt's peace pretensions but the public may get some fun out of the proposition and a certain amount of that open air exercise of which the President is such an advocate and these are practically the grounds on which he pretends to advocate the plan.

Ransom at Home.

Raleigh Correspondence.

Talking with State Auditor Dixon, who returned yesterday from Northampton county, where he attended the funeral of the late General Matt. W. Ransom, Dr. Dixon said to this writer:

"There were two things that surprised me: First, the large, very large, number of negroes who attended the funeral of General Ransom, and who displayed their grief on the occasion. Second, I was not prepared to see the home of the dead soldier and statesman so modest an affair. He was wealthy and able to have provided himself with a fine mansion and all the conveniences as well as comforts of life. I looked to see a fine old country mansion, with all the belongings. Instead, there was the modest old home, a basement and one story, of ancient design and lacking the repairs and paint brush that would greatly improve its looks.

"I was reminded of an occasion when General Ransom drove into Jackson during court week not long ago, in an old work-a-day suit of clothes, and driving a third-rate horse to a dilapidated buggy.

"A friend said to him: 'Why, General, why don't you get you a better team and rig? You are well able to drive the best of turnout and finest of horse.'

"'Because it is not necessary, nor desirable,' replied General Ransom. 'What would I look and feel like driving into town here with and beside my old friends and neighbors with a fine rig and team? No sir! I am one of you. I have the right to drive just as poor a horse as any of you.'

And so it was with the great man all the time. He was Democrat in principle and practice as well as in politics.

When in Washington and New York, he could, and did, dress as handsomely and go in as good style as any of his colleagues. He was in Rome and he did as the Romans. But at home—that was different. His neighbors and long-life friends did not sport broad cloth on the farm. No more did he. He did not wish to provide a gulf that fine clothes might have made it difficult to bridge, and caused them to be ill at ease in his presence.

In the Senate, at the big official and social functions at the national capital, there was no knightlier or courtlier guest than the senior Senator from North Carolina.

Case of Lockjaw.

Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exists plentifully in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air, but when carried under the skin, as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and causes cuts, bruises and like injuries to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. It is for sale by the J. C. Simmons Drug Co.

Heretofore persons who enlist in military companies in this State will undergo a medical examination. No persons will be enlisted under 21 years of age and those between 18 and 21 must show written consent of parents.

How the Trusts Strike Every Home in the Country.

The tariff question is a business proposition that concerns every man, woman and child, for it taxes the average home $110 a year, or more than one-tenth of the average family total income. There is an average of one and one-eighth-tenths earners in the average home. These contribute thirty days' labor each, or fifty-four days labor a year to the tariff-tax collectors. If this $110 went as honest taxes to our government to meet necessary expenditures, and no fault would be found, though the tax would be considered extremely high. But only a very small part of this $110 can be classed as legitimate taxes. By far the greater part goes to million and billion dollar tariff trusts and monopolies, which thrive now as never before in this country. These greedy trusts levy a tribute of $94 a year upon the average home, while the government collects a tax of about $15 a year in tariff taxes; the collection last year amounted to $3.49 per capita, or $16.52 per family of 4.7 persons. Do the heads of these 17,000,000 families, knowingly and willingly donate $94 a year to the hundreds of trusts? Do they love these trusts more than they love their wife and children? If not, why should they vote to give this ninety-four dollars to trusts that do not need it rather than keep the ninety-four dollars for their own families who do need it? An extra $94 a year would mean much to the average family in the way of better food, clothing and education. A vote for the democratic party means a vote to dispense with this additional tax.

Report of the Treasurer of the United States.

Washington Dispatch.

Elis H. Roberts, Treasurer of the United States, has submitted to Secretary Shaw the annual report on the transactions of the Treasury during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904. The net ordinary revenues are shown to have been $540,631,749, a decrease of $19,746,925 as compared with 1903, and the net ordinary expenditures $582,402,321 an increase of $76,803,314. In the receipts the principal falling off was $23,205,017 in customs, while in the disbursements the important increase were $14,231,446 in commerce and labor, $60,788,580 in the Treasury, and $20,338,067 for the Navy. Unusual expenditures were $50,000,000 on account of the Panama canal and $4,800,000 loaned to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company, which latter has now been nearly all paid. But for these recorded deficiencies of $96,770,571 would have been changed to a surplus of $12,829,428.

Railroad Casualties the Past Year.

Washington Dispatch.

A report issued by the Inter-State Commerce Commission on 13th shows that the number of casualties to persons on railroads in the United States during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, was 55,130, comprising 3,787 killed and 51,343 injured. This shows a large increase. The total number of collisions and derailments was 11,261, involving $9,383,077 of damage to cars, engines and roadways. This is an increase of 648 collisions and derailments. The casualties were an increase of 233 killed and 5,366 injured over the preceding year.

Better than Pills.

The question has been asked—In what are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is—They are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle and so agreeable that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then they not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and aid the digestion. For sale by the J. C. Simmons Drug Co.

Pin Pleasuro.

If you ever took DeWitt's Little Early Bites for biliousness or constipation you know what pin pleasuro is. These famous little pills cleanse the liver and rid the system of all bile without producing unpleasant effects. They do not grip, sicken or weaken, but pleasantly give tonic and strength to the tissues and organs of the stomach, liver and bowels. Sold by the J. C. Simmons Drug Co.

North Carolina Denied Rehearing in Bond Case.

Washington Special. Dth. to the Raleigh Post.

North Carolina will not get a new hearing in the South Dakota bond suit and will have to meet the judgment of the Supreme Court of the United States, or all her interest in 100 shares of the capital stock of the North Carolina Railroad Company will be sold at the east door of the capitol building in this city next January. Such is the result of the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States this afternoon, denying a motion on behalf of the State of North Carolina for a rehearing of the case. There was no written opinion, and Chief Justice Fuller made known the denial of the motion by oral announcement.

A most interesting feature of the case is that John G. Carlisle, the former Speaker of the House and Secretary of the Treasury under Cleveland, represented the State of North Carolina, and it was the distinguished Kentuckian, now resident in New York, who made the motion for the re-opening of the case. The petition of re-hearing was signed by him alone, and the names of the Attorney General and the three attorneys employed by the Governor to present the case to the court at the two previous hearings were not put down as counsel. It was not until to-day that Mr. Carlisle's connection with the case became known, although he filed his petition for re-hearing on the 7th of this month. The document is considered a very strong one and comment to this effect was made around the court to-day. Mr. Carlisle is considered one of the foremost lawyers in the world, and only appears in very large cases.

[The amount which North Carolina will have to pay is $25,000 and interest. What arrangements will be made for the payment are yet to be determined, but it is safe to say that the State will not allow the railroad stock to be sold.]

Do They Pay for Protection?

The New York American on August 20th published an astonishing story concerning the contributions of the trust to the campaign fund of the Republican party. That newspaper asserted, upon what it claimed was unquestionable Republican authority, that the Standard oil company had donated $1,000,000 and J. Pierpont Morgan had given $250,000. It also announced that the members of the Union League Club, of New York had contributed $100,000 to the fund.

In regard to these trust contributions, alleged to have been made, the American quotes its informant as saying:

"Morgan's enmity to Roosevelt ended with the appointment of his banking firm as fiscal agent for the purchase of the $40,000,000 of the Panama Canal. The $750,000 pledged by the Steel and Iron Trust was not difficult to exact after the Chicago convention, with the approval of the President, promised no tinkering with the tariff except by its friends."

Mr. Bryan Writing to be the Aaron of the Party.

Chillicothe, Mo., Dispatch.

Wm. J. Bryan addressed a large outdoor meeting in Elm Park this afternoon. Having been introduced as "the man who would some day be President of the United States," Mr. Bryan said that he used to think he would be President, and that he would be the Moses of the Democratic party. "But I do not think so, now," he said. "Moses, you know, was slow of speech, and the Lord selected Aaron as his speech-maker. I believe that I am the Aaron rather than the Moses of Democracy. I am willing to be the Aaron of the party, if our Moses, who has been so slow of speech, will lead the people out of the wilderness."

JAPAN'S RELATION TO THE PHILIPPINES

By BARON KANEKO, Japan's Foremost Legal Authority

JAPAN is a small country with a large population, and if we can manufacture for sale there and in China the things necessary for oriental life we will become an exceedingly prosperous nation, for OUR LAND HAS REACHED THE LIMIT OF AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTION. The question with us is, Can the Philippine Islands produce a sufficient quantity of those RAW materials to warrant us not only in increasing the capacity of our mills and in building new ones, but in making some reciprocal arrangements with the United States which would give a PREFERENCE to the products of the Philippines over those of Java, Borneo, Sumatra and other tropical oriental countries.

The Philippine Islands have only been scratched, so to speak, and out of the 68,000,000 acres of agricultural lands the Philippine commission states that only about 5,000,000 acres have been indifferently farmed, while from my own observations in the islands I should say that NOT MORE THAN ONE-THIRD OF THE LAND OCCUPIED BY FARMS IS NOW BEING CULTIVATED.

The Peculiar Strength Of the United States

By Rear Admiral GEORGE W. MELVILLE

WE have little to fear from Europe in naval warfare, because NO SINGLE POWER could successfully blockade our coast. Our commercial reserve and ability to produce would sustain this nation for an indefinite period in warfare. On the other hand, a portion of the British navy, for instance, would be required to guarantee a food supply to England. The naval protection of the British is too small for its merchant marine. The mercantile marine is disappointing as an auxiliary to a navy, because every nation's ships are manned partly by aliens. England's other chief difficulty would result from an inadequate coal supply.

We are fortified also by a system of quick dispatch. At a critical moment A RAILROAD MAN might render greater service in moving a great army than a commanding general in the field. Fighting in Cuba was no comparison in importance to the problem of the business management of the war with Spain.

OUR NAVY IS NOT AS STRONG AS IT OUGHT TO BE, and we should be progressive. We will expend $400,000,000 for the completion of the isthmian canal and require $300,000,000 for protection—forts, battleships and soldiers.

WE NEED TO BRING THE NAVAL SERVICE IN TOUCH WITH THE PEOPLE. MAKE IT AS EASY FOR THE OFFICER NOT A GRADUATE OF ANNAPOLIS TO OBTAIN A COMMISSION IN THE NAVY AS FOR MEN NOT FROM WEST POINT TO RISE IN THE ARMY.

Technical schools should be made auxiliary to West Point and Annapolis in training men for war.

Women Control the Stage

By WILTON LACKAYE, Actor

WOMEN CONTROL THE STAGE, AND THEATRICAL MANAGERS RECOGNIZE THAT FACT AND CATER TO IT. In other countries the man says, "My dear, I have tickets for such a play on a certain night," and his wife is delighted at the chance to go to the theater, but in this country it is different. The women say to their husbands, "Don't come home tonight without tickets for the theater," and they don't. If a play is a success, then it must be a success with the women. If women make the stage A DUMPING GROUND FOR DIVORCE COURTS AND THE PRIZE FIGHT, then they see the means of driving artists from the stage, for the stage presents only such plays as are acceptable to women. The men are too busy with commercial interests to give their attention, so the standard of plays rests with the women. It should have A HEALTHFUL, NORMAL TONE, for the stage is a mirror reflecting the emotions and passions of the world.

The theater can't be restricted entirely to plays that are suitable for a fourteen-year-old girl. THE PROBLEM PLAY IS A GREAT THING, BUT IT SHOULD NOT BE SEEN BY ALL. IT IS FOR THOSE WHO HAVE PROBLEMS IN THEIR OWN LIVES.

Evils of Modern Society And Their Correction

By JOHN D. LONG, Former Secretary of the Navy

THE real truth is not that the world has outgrown the simple precepts of Jesus, but that IT HAS NEVER REACHED THEM in their height or depth. We have never attained to the perfect practice of that simplest Christian rule—to love those that hate us, to love our neighbor as ourselves, to be pure in spirit.

Brutalities and crimes, drunkenness and misconduct are not confined to the lower classes, but they break out among young men and women who have had the opportunity of benefiting by our boasted education.

To correct these evils is our work. The remedy is not in the effort of labor or capital to promote its material interests; it is not in the efforts men make to better their conditions by theories of social organization. These things will, under natural laws in a free country, work out their only salvation.

THE VITAL NEED IS THE RELIGION OF JESUS; IT IS CHRIST IN THE INDIVIDUAL MAN, REVERENCE FOR THE GREAT FUNDAMENTAL PRECEPTS OF THE MASTER, THEIR INCORPORATION INTO ACTUAL DAILY LIFE AS CONTROLLING SPRINGS OF ACTION.

Good Spirits.

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. The main source is the liver—and all the fine spirits ever made in the Blue Grass State could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred-and-one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. You liver must be in fine condition you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of spirit, vigorous and successful in your pursuit. You can put your liver in finest condition by using Green's August Flower—the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size, 25c.; regular bottles, 75c. At all druggists.
