GRAHAM, N. C., July 4, 1907

Gen. Julian S. Carr.

Gen. J. S. Carr will be here today to address the Confederate Veterans. He is a favorite among the Veterans and they will hear him gladly.

Several days were occupied before U. S. Judge Pritchard at Asheville last week, hearing the motion by the Southern and other railroads to restrain the Corporation Commission from putting into effect the rate bill passed by the last Legislature. Judge Pritchard continued the temporary restraining order theretofore granted deciding against the commission. The final hearing as to the Southern will take place the first Monday in October. There seems to be a strong sentiment against taking matters which affect the citizens of State to Federal courts, and the doing so will not make friends for those who do it.

The Board of Education met Monday. The old Board examined the Treasurer's and Supt.'s books. then adjourned sine die, when the new Board were duly inducted into office. The next business of the Board was the election of a Supt, of Schools. A number of the leading citizens and friends of education from all parts of the county appeared before the Board and spoke in favor of Dr. Long and commended him as the one of all who should be retained in the office he has so ably filled so long. No other name was placed before the Board and he was unanimously elected. After this 'the school committeemen for the various districts were elected, and the Board adjourned to meet on Saturday, July 13th.

One Hundred Dollars for Ladies Road Horses:

Ladies to drive. Not a speed contest. This purse is offered to secure an exhibition of the ladies' road teams in the county, both single and double. In awarding this purse the judges will follow Horse Show Rules. In scoring for points the expertness with which the team is handled will score fifty points. The rig, team and harness will score forty points. And the taste with which the entire outfit is assembled, including the quality, style and beauty of the whip, robes and smaller perquisites that may be shown, will score ten points. This purse will be one hundred dollars in gold. The purse will be divided into four moneys. Fifty per cent. first, twenty-five per cent. sec-ond, fifteen per cent. third and ten per cent. fourth. There must be five nominations and three to start. The entrance fee for this purse will be ten per cent. The est purse and the most liberal conditions ever offered the ladies by any Fair Association in the State.
