

THE ALAMANCE GLEANER.

VOL. XXXIII.

GRAHAM, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1907.

NO. 32

10 BIG FREE ACTS 10

EACH DAY

In Front of the Grand Stand at

Alamance Greater Fair

OCTOBER 1, 2, 3 and 4.

No Fair Association in this section has ever attempted to present such an aggregation of features. From the Kemp Sisters Wild West & American Hippodrome Shows we give Six of these Free Acts. Among them an absolutely accurate reproduction of the Chariot Race as described by Gen. Lew Wallace in his novel Ben Hur.

The Four other Free Features will be presented by the Guthries, the World's most celebrated Acrobats, Contortionists, High Ladder and Trapeze Performers, the only people on this Continent doing a Break-away Ladder Act off a Sixteen-Foot Ladder. They are the ideals of Artistic EXCELLENCE.

The Grand Street Pageant and Business Men's Parade out of Burlington on Tuesday the 1st, and out of Graham on Wednesday the 2nd, will be the most wonderful carnival of street pageantry ever given upon your public streets. Think of seeing upon your public streets: Mustangs, Bronchos, Tribes of Noted Indians, traveling as they do across the plains; Sturdy Pioneers of bygone days; Pony Express Men, Cowboys, Vanqueros, Mexican Burrows, etc., etc.,

A GREAT EDUCATIONAL EXHIBIT

Bring your children and let them learn. They will gather more information by witnessing one of these parades than they will by a lifetime of the study of the books written about the Great West and her people.
