THE ALAMANCE GLEANER.

VOL. XXXIII.

GRAHAM, N. C., THURSDAY, JANUARY 30, 1908.

NO. 50

Lung

TTO Date to

It adds a hundred percent to ones carning capacity.

it can be kept in healthful action by, and only by me.

"Sure."

fice over Bank of Ala mance Up Stairs. Office burs 8 to 10 A. M. PHONE 80-b (and 197-a).

WELL S. LONG. JR. will you? Seems kind of dirty to go off that way, but I'm bound for God's country and the old time folks, and DENTIST . ... - - North Carolina budge out of it. 'Nother thing is I'm FFICE IN SJMMONS BUILDING have noticed, and I believe if you try the same game twicet you'll get just COB A. LONG. as different results as can be the sec-J. ELMER LONG. ond time. You heard how I hit it in LONG & LONG, the mines, didn't you? No? Well, that's so. You ain't seen many people heys and Counselors at Law out on the flat, have you? Hum! I GRAHAM, N. A. don't know principally where to be gin. Smith's pardner that the boys called S. COOK Shadder, because he was so thin? Nice Attorney-At-Law, feller, always willing to do you a favor or say something comical when GRAHAM, - - - - N. C. you least expected it. Had kind of a Office Patterson Building Second Floor. . . . . style with him too. Yes, sir, that's the man. Well, him and me was out in the Bend one day, holding a mess of C. A. HALL, Oregon half breeds that was to be shipped by train shortly, when old TTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR-AT-LAW, Smithy comes with the mail. 'Letter for you, Shadder,' says Smith and GRAHAM, N. C. passes over a big envelope with wads of sealing wax all over it. Shadder reads his letter and folds it up. Then Office in the Bank of Alamance Bulding, up stairs. he takes a look over the country-the kind of a look a man gives when he's thinking hard. Then says he, 'Red,

IOHN GRAT BYNUM. W. P. BYNUM, JU. BYNUM & BYNUM, Attorneys and Counselors at Law GALEENBBORD, N U. Practice regularly in the courts of Ala

COPYRIGHT, 1902, BY MCCLURE, PHILLIPS & COMPANY

EDDY was on the station plat. know what I said nor what he said form, walking up and down, looking about him anxiousiv, right. Then it got light, and I met a looking about him anxiously. We caught sight of each other lot of good friends I never saw before at the same time. nor since. Then more noise and trouble, and at last I woke up-in a hotel "Hi, there!" said he and jumped for "Gad-dog your little hide!" he bedroom, all right, but not the one I cried as he put my right hand in line was used to. I went to the window, heaved her open and looked out. It for a pension. "I thought I was bookwas a bully morning, and I felt A1. ed to go without saying goodby to There was a nice range of mountains you. You got the note I pinned on out in front of me that must have your shack? come up during the night. 'I'd like to know where I am.' I thinks, 'But "Well, there's time for a chin besomebody will tell me before long, so fore the choo-choo starts. Thought I'd there is no use worrying about thatbe early, not savvying this kind of the main point is, have I been touched? traveling a great deal. Damed if you I dug down into my jeans, and there ain't growed since I saw you! Getting wasn't a thing of any kind to rememfat too! Well, how's everything? I ber me by. 'No,' I says to myself, 'I didn't say nothing to the other boys ain't been touched-I've been grabbed about pulling my freight, as I wanted -they might have left me the price to go sober for once. You explain to of a breakfast! Well, it's a nice look-'em that old Red's head ain't swelled,

"Here's your watch and the rest of your valuables." ing country, anyhow!" So down I walks to the office. A cheerful seem-take off your hat.' 'All right,' says ing, plump kind of a man was sitting behind the desk. 'Hello!' says he, Smith, 'but you tell me why or I'll snake the shirt off you to square glancing up and smiling as I came in. 'How do you open up this morning?' "'Boys,' says Shadder, 'I'm Lord mebody saved me the trouble,' a gentleman of the old school if ever disposed. there lived one) told me that you might put me on to a good thing.' "'Precisely,' says he. 'Now, sir, my name is Jones-Agamemnon G. Jonesthere that day, and old Aggy, he was and my pardner, Mr. H. Smith, is on a business trip, selling shares of our mine, which we have called "The Treasury" from reasons which we can make obvious to any investor. The shares, Mr.'-'Saunders-Red Saunders-Chanta Seechee Red.'

"'You have doubtless been attracted

"No-o-not exactly,' says I; 'but I

"'Mr. Saunders, are 50 cents apiece which price is really only put upon them to avoid the offensive attitude of dealing them out as charity. As a matter of fact, this mine of ours contains a store of gold which would upset the commercial world were the bare facts of its extent known. There is neither sense nor amusement in confining such enormous treasure in the hands of two people. Consequently my pardner and I are presenting an interest to the public, putting the nominal figure of 50 cents a share upon it to save the feelings of our beneficia ries.

"'What the devil do I care?' save 'I'm looking for a chance to dig. Could you tell a man where to go? "'Oh,' says he, 'when you come to that, that's different. Strictly speaking, my pardner Hy hasn't gone off on a business trip. As a matter of fact, he left town night before last with two-thirds of the money we'd pulled out of a pocket up on Silver creek in the company of two half breed Injuns, a Chinaman and four more sons of guns not classified, all in such a state of beastly intoxication that their purpose, route and destination are matters of the wildest conjecture. I've been laying around town here hating myself to death, thinking perhaps I could sell some shares in a mine that we'll find yet, if we have good luck. If you want to go wild catting over the hills and far away.

I'm your huckleberry.' "That hits me all right,' says L 'For what I don't know about mining nobody don't know. When do we start? "'This or any other minute,' says he getting up from the table.

"'Wait till I finish up these eggs, says I. 'And there's a matter of one drink coming to me outside. I may as well put that where it won't harm any one else before we start.' "'All right,' says he, waving his hand. 'You'll find me outside, at your pleasure, sir.'

"I swallered the rest of my breakfast whole and hustled out to the bar, where my friend and the hotel man was waiting. 'Now I'll take that drink that's coming, and rather than be small about it I'll buy one for you, he spoke to me like this. 'Red,' says he, 'put your little hand in mine, and we'll go and take a birdseye view of the universe.' Astonishin' idea, wasn't it? And him not weighing over a hungame?' says I. dred pound. Howsomever, he didn't take any birdseye view of the universe. He only become strikingly inwords. "Well, to get back to Boise, you never in all your life saw so many men and brothers as was gathered one of the centers of attraction. "That big voice and black beard was always where the crowd was thickest and the wet goods flowing the freest. 'Gentlemen,' says he, 'let's lift up our voices ing. in melody!' That was one of Ag's delusions-he thought he could sing. So four of 'em got on top of a billiard table and presented 'Rocked In the Cradle of the Deep' to the company, which made me feel glad that I hadn't been brought up that way. After Ag had hip locked the last low note another song bird volunteered.

"This was a little fat Dutchman, with pale blue eyes and a mustache like two streaks of darning cotton. He had come to town to sell a pair of beef steers, but got drawn into the general hilarity, and now he didn't care a cuss whether he, she or it ever sold another steer. He got himself on end and sung 'Leeb Fadderlont moxtrue eckstein' in a style that made you wonder that the human nose could stand the strain.

"'Aw, cheese that!' says a feller near the door. 'Come, get your steers; one of 'em's just chased the barber up a telegraph pole!" "So then we all piled out into the street to see the steers. Sure enough, there was the barber sitting on the crosspiece and the steer pawing dirt underneath. "'He done made me come a fast heat from de cohner,' says the barber. 'I kep' hollerin' "Next!" but he ain't pay no 'tention-he make it "next" fur me, shuah! Yah, yah, yah! You gents orter seen me start at de bottom an' slide all de way up dis yer telegraft pole!"

"One of the bull whackers went out to rope the steers, and Ag gave directions from the sidewalk. He wasn't very handy with a riata, and that's a fact, but the way Ag lit into him was scandalous. When he'd missed about six casts of his rope, Ag opened up on

"'Put a stamp on it and send it to him by mail,' said Aggy in his sour-castic way. 'Address it, "Bay Steer, middle of Main street, Boise, Ida. If not delivered within ten days, return to owner, who can use it to hang himself." Blast my hide if I couldn't stand here and throw a box car neares to the critter! Well, well, well! How many left hands have you got. Any how? Do it up in a wad and heave i at him for general results. He might get tangled in it." "It rattled the bull whacker, having so much attention drawn to him, and he stepped on the rope and twisted fiving light nn in it and ed, after all, to alter his riding all over in one second. "I grabbed Aggy by the shoulder test order so as to waive the test in and took him in the corner for a pri- the cases of officers engaged in civil vate talk. I thought you knew this duties who would not, in all proba-"'I do,' says he. 'That's the way it bility be called upon to engage in always happens.' And once more in field operations. The President's my life I experienced the peculiar feel-decision was made after a conference ing of being altogether at a loss for with Secretary Taft on the subject, "'Aggy,' says I at last, 'I've got a called forth mainly by the case of good notion to lay two_violent hands Lieut. Col. William L. Marshall. on you and wind you up like an eight day clock, but rather than make hard Corps of Engineers in charge of the feelings between friends I'll refrain. government work in the improve-Besides, you are a funny cuss, that's ment of New York Harbor. Col. sure. One thing, boy, you can mark Marshall is a' man of generous down. We leave here tomorrow morn-weight, who has been so engaged "'All right,' says Ag. 'This sporting with his engineering duties as to life is the very devil. I like outdoors have no time for "banting"' and his, as well as the next man, when I get there.' retirement would be most detrimen-

The Democratic Senators have

suddenly decided to put in a final to acquience in the general provi-understood that Senator Bailey is States noted instead of national bank notes in times of emergency, and Rak Foolishness.

"When attacked by a cough or a cold, or when your throat is sore, it is rank foolishness to take any other medicine than Dr. Kings New Discovery," says C. O. Eldridge, of Discovery seven years and I know

Empire, Ga. "I have used New sions of the Aldrich bill, now befo

the Senate Finance Committee. It

cial bill of their own, after se tal to the accomplishment of the [TO BE CONTINUED.] plans for the improvement for the of New York Harbor.

WASHINGTON, January 25, 1908.

It is generally conceded in Washington that the Democrats have gained a strong support in the Senatorial branch of Congress in the election of John Sharp Williams as changes the rate of interest to be paid by the bank with which the a member of that body. He is well liked and his ability is disputed by notes are deposited. Both are to be issued against deposits of the govnone

The announcement by Governor ernment, state and county, and mun-Hughes that "Barkis is willin'," icipal bonds, although the Aldrich has aroused multitudinous and diverse sensations in the breast of the other variations in the proposed Republican Pegotty, anticipations that are not altogether pleasurable, stills' the rot the day i however interesting the prospect but the aregoing is the private may be for the country at large. The prediction is made in political ures. There is a bare possibility that your bowels, set your circles in Washington that the seat the Democratic Senators will hold a liver ri of war in the Republican party will caucus on the question of support- your inc now be transferred to the New Eng- ing their subs stute, so as to secure A good i nic. land States and that the Ohio con- the solid tote of the minority.

flict will look like a skirmish when it is the best remedy on earth for There are some men in the Dem coughs and colds, croup, and all ocraticiparty who occupy responsi. throat and lung troubles. My chilble positions in the councils of their dren are subject to croup, but New bill also includes first mortgage This tin of the year bonds of railroads. There are some are sig of warning.

Wohn

It may .vyou a spell of fedifference between the two meas ver. It will regulate ., and cure

Eom-

estion. An hones medicine

N. C.

AROLINA

compared with his Waterloo between the Roosevelt policies led by Taft, and the corporations interests headed by Hughes. The developments of the next few months will be watched with the most absorbing interest by the country at large.

ROB'T C. STRUDWICK Attorney-st-Law, GREENSBORO N. C. Practices in the courts of Alamance and Guilford counties.

Write Quick Big Bargath To better advartise the South's Leading Business College, just a few scholarships are offered in each section at jess than cost. DON'T DELAY. WBITE TODAY GA-ALA, BUSINESS COLLEGE, Macon, Ga.

Grahan • Undewriters Agency. SCOTT & ALBRICHT, Graham, N. C -Office of-SCOTT-MEBANE M'F'G CO.

OVERALLS. GRAHAM, N. C., Apr. 12, 1907. HAS. A. SCOTT, Agent Southern Live Stock Ins. Co., Graham, N. C. DEAR SIR :-

ORAN SIR:--We beg to schnowledge receipt of four favor of the lith, enclosing check No. In for $150, the same being in full payment of our claim under policy No. 97, overling insurance on our Iron Gray Deny Horse, which died on the sight of the Shi Inst. We wish to thank you for the promptness ind will say, in passing, that a company of this character has long been needed in our fatte, and in yiew of the small premfum sked, no one should be without insurance op their live stock. Tame says ingly.

If you are not the NEWS AN' OBERVER is. Subscribe for it at once and it will keep you abreast of the times.

Full Associated Press dispatches. All the news-foreign, domestic, ustional, state and local all the time.

Daily News and Observer $7 per year, 3.50 for 6 mos.

Weekly North Carolinian $1 per year, 50c for 6 mos.

NEWS & OBSERVER PUB. CO.

RALMOR, N. C.

The North Carolinian and ALAMANCE GERANDE will be for one year for Two Dollars, in advance. Apply at Two GER Apply at The GLEANER

'I'm afraid I'll have to give "'Lord Hellford!' hollers Smithy. savs I. you the strong arm for breakfast.' 'You'd better call somebody in to look "He grinned wide, 'Oh, it ain't as at your plumbing. What you been bad as that, I hardly reckon,' says he. drinkin' Shadder? He dove into a safe and brought out a "'Read for yourself,' says Shadder, cigar box. and he handed him the letter.

take off your hat.' I done it. 'Smithy, things.'

Walford.

what he saw.

of this dum foolishness.

to that lad's fix.

"'When a gentleman's in the condi-"Wish't you could have seen old tion you was in last night,' he says, 'I Smithy's face as he read it. He always make it a point to go through thought his pardner had been cut out his clothes and take out anything a of his herd forever.

stranger might find useful, trusting "'It's the God's truth, Red,' says he that there won't be no offense the next slowly, and he had a sideways smile morning. Here's your watch and the on his face as he turned to Shadder. rest of your valuables, including the Well, sir,' says he, 'I suppose congratcash. Count your money and see if ulations are in order? "Shadder's hand stopped short on ft's right.'

"Well, sir! I was one happy man, its way to the cigarette, and he looked and I thanked that feller as I thumbed at Smithy as if he couldn't believe over the bills, but when I got up to a hundred and seventy I begun to feel "To hell with 'em!' says he as say queer: Looked like I'd made good age as a wildcat, and he jabbed the money on the trip. irons in and whirled his cayuse about " 'What's the matter?' says he, see on one toe, heading for the ranch.

ing my face. 'Nothing wrong, I hope!' "Now you go after him, you jealous "Why, the watch and the gun and old sorehead.' says L 'Go on,' I says the other things is all right,' says I, as he started to argue the point, 'or I'll 'but I'm now $50 to the good, even figspread your nose all the way down uring that I didn't spend a cent, which your spinal column!" The only time ain't in the least likely, and here's ten to say 'No' to me is when I'm not dollar bills enough to make a bedmeaning what I say, so away goes spread left over.' Wind River, and they made it up

"'Pshawl' says he. 'Blame it! I've all right in no time. Well, Shadder mixed your plunder up with the min-ing gentleman that came in at the had to pull for England to take squint at the ancestral estates, and all time. You and him was bound of us was right here at this station to to fight at first, and then you both see him off. Lord, it seems as if that turned to to lick me, and what with happened last world! Well, it took keeping you apart and holding you off a. little bit the edge off any and all and taking your valuables away from drunks a ranch as an institution had you all at the same time, and me all ever seen before. There was old Smithy alone here, as it was the night man's crying around, wiping his eyes on his day off, I've made a blunder of it. sleeve and explaining to a lot of east-Just take your change out of the wad ern folks that it wasn't Shadder's and call for a drink on me when you fault-gad hook it all! He was the feel like it, will you?

best, hootin', tootin' son-of-a-sea-cook "I said I would do that, and, more that ever hit a prairie breeze in spite ovor, that he was an officer and a gentleman and that I'd stay at his hotel "They can't make no "lord" two weeks at least to show my ap-Shadder!" hollers Smithy. "That preciation, no matter where it was, but to satisfy a natural curiosity, I'd not for long. He's a man, Shadder is -ain't cher, yer d-d old gangle like to know what part of the con I was at present inhabiting. "And Shadder never lost his patient

"You're at Bolse, Idn.,' says he at all, though it must have been kind one of the best little towns in the of trying to be made into such a holy best little territory in the United States before the kind of people he of America, including Alaska."

used to be used to. All he'd say was "Well'- says I. 'Well'- for again "Bet your life, old boy!" Well, it was I was at a loss for words., I had enough, too, as Smithy had idea I'd gone so far from home. "I lleve what you say,' says L "W do you do round these parts? ""Mining,' says he. "You're jus T-be nursed him through smallpox one win-What ter up in the Shoshonee country and death Shadder out of the slim grub trict. Poor man's mining. Pincer, and furned good pincer, right on the top of be ground. The mining must when the boy was on the mend Still, some people would have forgo "But did your uncle Red get under the gro the infinence of strong drink? Did he? about is having his

now. Suppose you go in and have a talk with him? Nice man, drunk or Oh, my! Oh, my! I wish I could make It clear to you. The vigilantes put after a horse thief once in Montana, and they landed on him in a butt end although excitable when he' sober. had a too much or not might put you on canyon, and there was all the stock He good thing. I'm not a mining perso with the brands on "em as big as a atent medicine sign, as the ind-hadn't "Thanks,' says I and in I had time to stop for alterations. "Well,' says they, 'what have you the dining room. me was a great big fine looking got to say for yourself?" He looked The at them brands staring him in the face, and he bit off a small bunk of man eating his ham and eggs the way I like to see a man eat the next morn-ing. He had a black beard that was so chewing 'Pt5-chay?' Says be, 'Gentle-men, I'm at a loss for words?' And it fairly jumped out from his strong face. they let him so, as a good joke is much its price in any man's country.

norming, sir! skys be. " imbigued incent clarity at ness, kin't it?" int t I ain't got the day of en words to tell you how seriodsly drunk was on that occasion. I remember "Well, I wouldn't care to bet or "Well, I wouldn't care to bet or "Well, I wouldn't care to bet or that without going a little deeper int I was on that occasion. I remember putting for what I thought was the botel and settling down, thinking there must be a iniu of a scrap in the bar room from the moine. Then somebody gave me a punch in the ribs and says, "Whare's your ticket? and I dan't entre strong." that without going a little de the subject, exps I; but it an that ham and save I "'You won't do no such thing,' says the hotel man. 'It's a horse on me, and I'll supply the liquor. Mr. Jones is in the play as much as anybody.' "So the hotel man set 'em up, and that made one drink. Then Jones said he'd never let a drink suffer from lonesomeness yet when he had the price, and that made two drinks. 1 had to uphold the honor of the ranch and that made three drinks. Hotel man said it was up sticks now, and he meant to pay his just debts like an honest man, and that made four drinks. Then Jones said-well, by this time I see I needn't have hurried breakfast so much. More people came in. I woke up the next morning in same old bedroom. Every breakthe fast Aggy and me got ready to pull for the mines, and every morning I woke up in the bedroom. I should like to draw a vell over the next two weeks, but it would have to be a pretty strong vell to hold it. I tried to keep level with Aggy, but he'd spend three dollars to my one, and the consequence of that was that we went broke within fifteen minutes of each other.

"Well, sir, we were a mournful pair to draw to that day. We sat there and cussed and said, 'Now, why didn't we do this, that and fother thing instead of blowing our hard earned dough?' till bimeby we just dripped nelancholy, you might say. How somever, we weren't booked for a dull time just yet. That afternoon there was a great popping of whips like an Injun skirmish and into town comes a bull train half a mile long. Twelv yoke of bulls to the team; lead, swing and trall wagons for each, as big as houses on wheels. You don't see the like of that in this country. Down the street they come, the dust flying. whips cracking and the lads hollering Whon haw, Mary-up there! Wherp!

Whon haw!" "And those fellers had picked dry throats walking in the dust; also they had a month's wages aching in ockets. We hadn't much more'n got the thump of their arrival out of our ears when who comes roaring into town but the Bengal Tiger gang, and they had four months' wages. The owner of the mine got on a bender and paid everybody off by mistake. You can handly imagine how this livened up There ain't nobody less likely to play lame duck than me, but ther was no dodging the hospitality. Th only idea prevailing was to be rid of the money as soon as possible. The effects showed right off. You could hear one man telling the folks for their own good that he was the Oid River, and when he felt like swelling his banks it was time for who couldn't swim to hunt parties the high ground, while the gentleman on the next corner let us know that h was a locomotive carrying 300 pound of steam with the gauge still climbing and the blower on. When he whistled three times, he said, any intelligent would know that there was dan

"Well, sir, I put the Old Missour Biver to bed that night, and he'd fated out to a very small streamlet in ed, while the locomotive went lame before supper and had to be put in bouse by a couple of pus Cold facts comes and puts a crimp in them Once I know a small feller I could ve stuck in my pocket and forgot at, but when the went out and took ceral purcipitons fogather on a day generally.

"'Say,' says Ag, appealing to crowd, 'won't some kind friend who's fond of puzzles go down and help that gentleman do himself?

"That made the whacker mad. was as red in the face as a lobster. 'You come down and show what you can do,' says he. 'You've got gas enough for a balloon ascension, that may be all there is to you.'

"'Oh, I ain't so much,' says Aggy, although I'm as good a man today as ever I was in my life, but I have a little friend here who can rope, down and ride that critter from here to the brick front in five minutes by the watch, and if you've got a twenty-five dollar bill in your pocket or its equivalent in dust you can observe the experiment."

"T'll go you, by gosh!' says the bull whacker, slapping his hat on the ground and digging for his pile.

"'Say, if you're referring to Ag.' I says, 'it's kind of a sudden spring. I ain't what you might call in training, and that steer is full of triple extract of giant powder." "G'wan!" says Ag. 'You can do it-and then we're twenty-five ahead.' "'But suppose we lose?'

"'Well- It won't be such an awful "Now, you look here, Agamen G. Jones,' says I, 'I ain't going to stand for putting up a summer breeze agin that feiler's good dough. That's a skin game, to speak it pleasantly." "Then Aggy argues the case with me, and when Aggy started to argue you might just as well 'moo' and cha yourself into the corral, because he'd get you sure. Why, that man could sit in the cabin and make roses bloom right in the middle of the floor. While he was singing his little song you could see 'em and smell 'em. He could talk a snowbank off a high divide in the middle of February. Never see anybody with such a medicine to and in a big man it was all the stranger. 'Now,' he winds up, 'as for cheat ing that feller, you ought to know me better, Red. Why, I'll give him my note.

"So, anyhow, I done it. Up the street we went, steer bawling and buck jumping, my hair a-flying and me as busy as the little bee you read about keeping that steer underneath me 'stead of on top of me, where he'd ruther be, and after us the town, whoopin', yellin', crackin' six shooters and carryin' on wild. "Then we had $25 and was as g as anybody. But it didn't last The tin horus come out after pay day optoads after a rain. like puzzle the government at Washi to know where they hang out in the meautime. There was one lad had a face on him with about as much exession as a hotel punkin pie. run an arrow game, and he right straight along in a voice that had more bends in it than a billiard cue. "'Here's where you get your three for one any child may do it no chance make your bets while the arrow of fortune swings all gents commodated in amounts from two bits to double eagles and bets paid on the nail,' says be. "'Red,' says Aggy, 'I can double our thit here. Let me have I know this game.' Ye the plie right You'd money. hardly believe it, but I dug up. ble or quint' says he to the dealer. "The ber go, says the dealer. The arrow swung around. "Quin," says the dealer and raked in my dough. It was party in the House of Representa Discovery quickly cures every at tives that believe their party's wel- tack." Known the world over as King of throat and lung remedies. fare will not be best subserved by fare will not be best subserved by the nomination of Mr. Bryan for the Drug Co: 50c. and $1.00. Trial NORTH Presidency, and so when Cl Clark nominated him in the H

this week the demonstration ed through the art of oratory. which the eloquest Missourian familiar, did not strike a respo chord in the breast of every D crat on the floor. These men be that, twice defeated as the cand on the Democratic party. Mr Bi candidacy would, under exi conditions, be just as fatal to su in 1908 as it was in 1896 and and they believe that the should seek out some man wh bring strength and confidence national ticket. Democrats wh unhesitatingly urged the withd of Bryan as the only road w would lead to party success, with their colleagues in the de stration, though they depr anything which would appe commit the minority member the House as a whole to the pe al cause of Mr. Bryan. That th publicans joined in the cheers mention of Bryan's name was ficant. These cheers were forth by the belief of the Re cans in the weakness of Mr. Bryan at once. $1. Sold by the J. as a candidate against the man chosen by the Chicago convention next June, whomsoever that man may be.

Major General Bell, Chief of Staff in his annual report just issued, declared himself of the opinion that ney's La in Coug.

the law which abolished the can- makes it fermit from entern teen from the army should be repealed for the general good of both the solddiers in the army and the Wardepartment officials. He says, that under the new law there is more lungs. It pleasant to take. alcoholism and more disease than there was prior to its enactment. Among many other interessing par-rgraphs in this report is the follow-Twould ing which is regarded as most pertinent; "Unless other great nations the churches.

are wrong and wasting time and money, they are giving us an object lesson which Americans will have to learn some day by costly and neys are deranged. Folsy's Kidhumiliating experience. Time and ney Cure will cure kidney and blad-training are both necessary to contraining are both necessary to convert an untrained volunteer into a so they will perform their functions soldier, whether for infantry, cavalry, artillery, engineers or signal corps. The last great war clearly ney cure is taken in demonstrated that the side which promptly gains decisiva acts advantages."

Prest. Roosevelt has been oblig

hamp House	bottle free.	Fr ERS
creat- with is so	It has been finally decided that the Jamestown exposition will not reopen next summer	climate, s: ad conditione, Demo believe didute Bryan's	Bad Stomach Trouble Cured. Having been sick for the past two years, with a bad stomach trou- ble. a friend gave me a dose of	r ide by T. a and for Ter facels -an and in eas wide awak a Kent cky or Kamch uch a paper is
cisting uccess		The Programme Farmer
1900, party ho can to the ho hav	have used twelve bottles in all. To- day I am well of a bad storach trouble.—Mrs John Lowe, Cooper, Maine. These tablets are for sale by Graham Drug Co.	RALEIGH. N. C. Edited by 'LA SCE H. Por, with Dr. W in sett, "ector B, A. & M. C D otor B. V. Kilgor Autoutlural Experiment (70 000
drawal which joined lemon-	The Lenoir News learns that the charity school established so years ago by Mess E. C. Pruden, five or six miles southeast of Lenoir	iber (international international internatio recated ear to	and known as the Mitchell Home School was burned last Tuesday person- the Re-	sight.	Furner st we v 1 send that paper of fits Guinsra, both one ves or $1.50, regular at the s signi- called epubli-	DIURETIC may be worth to you more than $100 if you have a child who soils bedding from incontinence of water during sleep. Cures old and	Addreesa TH GLEANEE, Graham, N. C.

next week.

properly. No danger of Bright's disease or diabetes if Foley's Kid

OF THE REPORT OF THE OWNER OWNER OF THE OWNER OWNER

Pam Drug Co.

FOR C

AND ALL THIT

UALAN

OB MON

OAF

Bright