She Was a Bird.
Some Facts About A Kentucky Lady Who Was Somewhat of a Bird.

A constant reader handed The Observer the following dispatch from Lebanon, O., under date of November 6, as a contribution, presumably, to the science of ornithology:

"Having four different surnames in her brief time and all those the names of birds is the unique distinction held by Mrs. Elizabeth Martin, of Paris, Ky., who is now visiting her sister, Mrs. Eugene Hartsook, near Lebanon. She began as Elizabeth Bird in Harrison county, Ky., and first ventured from the home nest when she married Bud Martin. When Mr. Martin died she married Edward Crow, a farmer. When the time came to change nests she allied herself with William Robin and lived happily until the matrimonial season of Mrs. Martin again rolled around. Then David Buzzard, a widower, more active personally and socially than his name would indicate, appeared and Mrs. Robin became Mrs. Buzzard. "Into the Buzzard roost Mrs. Martin carried one little Martin, two little Crows and one little Robin. One little Buzzard was already there to welcome the other birds."—Charlotte Observer.

Waitress Paralyzed Drummer.

A good story is going the rounds about a drummer and a pretty waitress. Here is what happened according to the report. The dapper little traveling man glanced at the menu and looked up at the pretty waitress:

"Nice day, little one," he began. "Yes, it is," she answered, "and so was yesterday, and my name is Ella, and I know I'm a little peach, and have pretty blue eyes, and I've been here quite awhile and I like the place, and I don't think I'm too nice a girl to be working in a hotel; if I did I'd quit my job; and my wages are satisfactory; and I don't know if there is a show or dance in town tonight, and if there is I shall not go with you, and I'm from the country, and I'm a respectable girl, and my brother is cook at this hotel, and he weighs 200 pounds, and last week he wiped up this dining room floor with a fresh $50-a-month traveling man who tried to make a date with me. Now what'll you have?"

The dapper little traveling man said he was not hungry, and a cup of coffee and some hot cakes would do.

Advice to Borrowers of Newspapers.

Some timely advice to borrowers of newspapers is given by the Kansas City Journal in the shape of warnings like this:

"A man who was too economical to take this paper sent his little boy to borrow the copy taken by his neighbor. In his haste the boy ran over a $4 stand of bees and in ten minutes looked like a warty summer squash. His cries reached his father, who ran to his assistance and, failing to notice a barbed wire fence, ran into that, breaking it down, cutting a handful of flesh from his anatomy and ruining a $4 pair of pants. The old cow took advantage of the gap in the fence and got into the cornfield and killed herself eating green corn. Hearing the racket, the wife ran, upset a four gallon churn full of rich cream into a basket of kittens, drowning the flock. In the hurry she dropped a $7 set of false teeth. The baby, left alone, crawled through the spilled milk and into the parlor, ruining a brand new $20 carpet. During the excitement the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man, the dog broke up eleven setting hens, and the calves got out and chewed the tails off four fine shirts."

A Scalded Boy's S shrieks, horrified, his grandmother, Mrs. Maria Taylor, of Nebo, Ky., who writes that, when all thought he would die, Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured him. Infalible for Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Corns, Wounds, Bruises, Cures Fever-Sores, Boils, Skin Eruptions, Chillsains, Chapped Hands. Soon routs Piles. 25c at Graham Drug Co.

The barn of E. P. Liles, of Lilesville, Anson county, was burned Sunday night a week, with two horses, a lot of hay and 500 bushels of corn. Loss estimated at $3,000; $600 insurance.

Forced Into Exile.
Wm. Upchurch of Glen, Okla., was an exile from home. Mountain air, he thought, would cure a frightful lung-racking cough that had defied all remedies for two years. After six months he returned, death dogging his steps.

"Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery," he writes, "and after taking six bottles I am as well as ever." It saves thousands yearly from desperate lung diseases. Infalible for Coughs and Colds, it dispels Hoarseness and Sore Throat. Cures Grip, Bronchitis, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough. 50c and $1.00, trial bottle free, guaranteed by Graham Drug Co.
