Hon. J. Elmer Long has been appointed by Maj. Chas. M. Stedman as his private secretary. By education and training Mr. Long is equiped for the positien, and more is the compliment in that he was chosen without seeking the position. They will go to Washington when the extra session convenes.

The 61st Congress expired by Constitutional limitation last Satur day at 12 o'clock noon, and at once President Taft issued his proclamation for the convening of the 62nd Congress on April 4th the President has his heart set on some measures which he desires Congress to pass.

Congressman John H. Small of Washington, N. C., made two speeches in Trenton, New Jersey, terday, and in mentioning Gov. Woodrow Wilson for the presidency was enthusiastically applauded.

Mr. Wm. P. Smith Meets with Distressing Accident and Loses a

On last Thursday, Mr. Wm. P. Smith, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smith, of Graham met with a most distressing accident at High Point. He was making an extra run as freight conductor and while coupling the air hose was run over by his own train and had his left leg so badly crushed that it had be amputated above the knee. He was placed on the northbound nger train and carried to Leo's Hospital, Greensboro, where the operation was performed. loss of much blood almost proved fatal. Mr. Smith, or Billy as he is called here at home, took great pleasure in his railroad work, was popular with the railroad le and had been often promoted peop Only recently he had been promoted had had his household effects packed to move from Raleigh to er when the accident happened his wife having gone to Raleigh to and to the packing.
