Local News.

Mr. N. C. Hughes, who has been engaged in making a survey of the streets for macadamizing, left Sunday for Lumberton.

It has been quite cold for a few days, and on Monday and Tuesday there was more and harder wind than in any two days in March.
Troilwood Mills, near Haw River, were sold Monday. Capt. J. W. Fry of Greensboro was the best bidder at $28,000—a small price for so valuable a property.
The Carolina Drug Co. succeeds the Montgomery Drug Co., which was sold here Monday. They will carry a full line of Proprietary Medicines and Drugs, but will fill no prescriptions.

Married—Mr. W. A. Smith and Miss Flora Fagg, of Reidsville, were united in marriage in that city yesterday morning and arrived here yesterday afternoon. They will spend two or three days here visiting Mrs. Chas. D. Johnston, who is a sister of the groom.
The following Alamance people have been drawn to serve as jurors in the U. S. Circuit and District Courts which begin in Greensboro on the first Monday in June: J. Fletcher O'Ferrer, Union Ridge; C. P. Harden, Graham; Chas. A. Hughes, Elon College; H. O. Jobe, Mebane.

At Graham Methodist Protestant Church, on next Sunday at 11 a. m. communion service will be observed. At 7:45 p. m. there will be a Convention Echo Service. Reports from the different Sunday School Conventions will be made. Those interested in Sunday School work are especially invited.
At the city election in Burlington Tuesday, the following were elected: For Mayor, Joseph H. Freedom; Aldermen—in first ward Dr. T. S. Fancette and W. P. Ireland, in second ward Lynn B. Williamson and A. A. Apple, in third ward H. C. Stout and J. G. Rogers, and in fourth ward Eugene Holt and J. L. Scott.

Yesterday evening Mr. J. Harvey White took Miss Maude Dunning in his automobile for a drive. They met with a slight accident at the Swaponville bridge. Some work is being done on the east approach and there was no passing over the bridge yesterday. At the west end a narrow plank was laid across to keep people from driving on and they ran into this without seeing it. It hit both of them in the face, but fortunately the machine was slowed up and the occupants escaped with slight bruises. Such warnings should be prominent enough for people to see them in time to escape danger.

Dr. Geo. W. Kernodle, of Greensboro, was here Monday on business, so also was his brother Dr. J. L. Kernodle, near Alamahaw. These two gentlemen about 16 years ago bought a property in Grayson Co., Va., on which were located a mineral spring and fine water power on New River. They closed a deal last week in which they dispose of the properties for $120,000. They have lots of friends who will be glad to learn of their good fortune. The former expects to move to Washington, D. C., where his family has been for some time.

Graham Citizens' Ticket Elected.

In our last issue we gave the names of the Republican candidates for Mayor and Commissioners and published the call for a citizens' convention to meet Friday night. The latter convention met and two sets of names—a majority and minority report—were presented by a committee which was appointed a few days before to recommend candidates. Neither report received a second in the convention and a ticket was nominated from the recommendations as follows: J. Adolph Long for Mayor and A. K. Hardee, E. P. McClure, C. W. Bain, R. L. Holmes and Z. T. Hadley for commissioners. On Monday every one on the citizens ticket was elected, the majorities ranging from 15 to 35. The election passed off quietly and the result was a surprise to the Republicans.

A Secret Marriage with a Spice of Romance.

Friends will be surprised to learn of the marriage of Miss Nora Myrtle Phillips to Mr. J. Walter Stedman, both of Greensboro, N. C. On April 20th the couple drove to High Point, N. C., and were married at the home of Mrs. J. M. McAdams, sister of the bride, Rev. J. H. Barnhardt officiating. The only attendants were Mrs. J. M. McAdams, Little Miss Denyce McAdams and Mr. F. C. Conrad, of High Point. After the ceremony, the happy couple returned to Greensboro, and it was not until nearly ten days later that the marriage was announced.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Phillips of this place and formerly lived here, but has been in Greensboro for the past three years. She is a very attractive and popular young lady and her sweet disposition has won for her numerous friends. The groom is a former resident of Sanford, but for several years has lived in Greensboro, where he now holds a responsible position with The Life Ins. Co. of Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Stedman will make Greensboro their home for the present. The many friends of the couple wish them a long happy life.

Sad Death of Little Daughter of Dr. E. C. Murray.

The news that little Jean Murray was dead was a sad message to many homes in Graham. She was not real well last week but was in school the entire week and became quite ill Friday night. She was better Saturday and grew worse Sunday and Sunday night and passed away about 6 o'clock Monday morning. She had every attention in medical skill. The absence of Dr. Murray added to the sorrow and gloom of the occasion. For more than a week he had been away on a visit to his old home on Edisto Island, off the coast of South Carolina, and he was not able to reach home till Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock. Edwin came home from Davidson College and James from Union Theological Seminary in Richmond to attend the funeral of their little sister.

The funeral was conducted yesterday morning from the Presbyterian Church and the remains were laid away in Linwood cemetery under a mound covered with beautiful flowers. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. B. W. Mebane of Hawfields, assisted by Dr. Byron Clark, of Charlotte, and Rev. Donald McIver, of Burlington.

Little Jean was a bright and beautiful child of seven summers and a general favorite. Her grade of little school mates attended the funeral in a body.

The bereaved family have the sincere sympathy of the entire community.

The International Press Bible Question Club.

We again call attention to our Local Club in connection with the C. P. B. Q. C. We are safe in saying that nothing in the line of Bible study has so profoundly impressed the people of Graham as the "Suggestive Questions" which we print to-day for the ninth week. If any of our readers do not read these questions they had better commence, or they will soon begin to feel lonesome.

If you are not already a subscriber to THE ALAMANCE GLEANER, can you spend $1.00 better than by ordering this paper for 66 weeks, or to the end of this contest, for some worthy young person, that he or she may take up the course of reading and compete for the prizes. Only one person can use one paper, as there is only one coupon in each, and that is sufficient only for one person to certify that the reading has been done. Now is the time to put THE ALAMANCE GLEANER into the hands of all who should take up the study of these "Suggestive Questions," so as to be in good trim to start when the contest commences in five weeks from now. If you can induce any person, young or old, take up this new course of study, you will do him or her more good than you can ever estimate. Now is the time to come into line yourself and induce others to do so. Use the attached coupon for your order.

COUPON.

Send The Alamance Gleaner from now till May 30, 1912, the close of the Bible Question Club Contest, for the special price of $3.00 enclosed. Count me a member of Local Club.

Boy Corn Growers Get Certificates.

On Monday Rev. P. H. Fleming, County Supt. of Schools, showed us the Certificates of Merit awarded to the boy corn growers who secured the largest yields in this county last year. They were awarded to the following: Ray Hornaday, Rock Creek, Route 3, 82.07 bushels; Solomon L. Homewood, Burlington, Route 1, 94 bushels; Austin Isley, Burlington, Route 1, 99.5 bushels; Chas. B. Coble, Burlington, Route 1, 93.8 bushels. Each certificate as indicated, gave the number of bushels produced on an acre. The certificates are signed by W. W. Kitchin, Governor, J. Y. Joyner, State Supt. of Schools, W. A. Graham, Commissioner of Agriculture, P. H. Fleming, County Supt. of Schools, and I. O. Schaub, Special Agent U. S. Dept. of Agriculture. The hand-some certificate has the Great Seal of the State impressed on it and is attested by Alex. J. Field, Private Secretary to the Governor, and is a souvenir that should be highly prized by the successful contestants.

Crying for Help.

Lots of it in Graham But Daily Growing Less.
The kidneys cry for help. Not an organ in the whole body so delicately constructed. Not so important to health. The kidneys are the filters of the blood. When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous. There can be no health where there is poisoned blood. Backache is one of the first indications of kidney trouble. It is the kidneys' cry for help. Heed it. Doan's Kidney Pills are what is wanted. Are just what overworked kidneys need. They strengthen and invigorate the kidneys; help them to do their work. J. B. Stubbins, Haw River, N. C., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and the results were so satisfactory that I have no hesitation in recommending the remedy. I know Doan's Kidney Pills to be a reliable medicine for disordered kidneys."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson.

By REV. T. S. LINSKOTT, D. D.

May 14th, 1911.
(Copyright, 1910, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.)
Isaiah's Vision and Call to Service. (Home Missionary Lesson.) Isa. vi. Golden text—I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, here am I, send me. Isa. vi:8.
(1.) Verses 1-4—Why did God give this vision to Isaiah?
(2.) Do you think that any such vision needs repeating? Why?
(3.) When we have any special Divine illumination what is the advantage of connecting it with some event, or putting down the date, as Isaiah seems to have done?
(4.) Did Isaiah or anybody else ever see with the outward eye, the actual eternal God, and will He ever be so seen?
(5.) Is there any reason to think that Seraphim, or angels, are to be seen everywhere in the universe, if we had the media through which to see them?
(6.) Verse 5—How was it that the sight of the Lord made Isaiah conscious of his sinfulness?
(7.) What if any reason is there to conclude that the use of coarse slang, or profanity, proves the user to be an impure man?
(8.) Which is the more effectual way to reveal to sinners their guilt, to correct them with words, or to live pure lives before them? Why?
(9.) What effect does the teaching of the spotless purity of Jesus have, upon sinful men?
(10.) Verses 6-7—What is God's attitude to sinners who are conscious of, and loathe themselves because of their sin?
(11.) What is the "live coal" with which the Seraphim touched the lips of Isaiah, emblematic of?
(12.) What actually transpires in a man's spiritual nature, when he comes to God for the pardon of his sins?
(13.) What reason is there to think that angels, or spirits, have anything to do with the salvation, or the spiritual comfort of men and women to-day?
(14.) Verse 8—What class of men and women does God need, and call to be missionaries?
(15.) What are the indications that God is calling to-day, with a loud voice, for missionaries? (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the class.)
(16.) Is it possible for any person to be in harmony with God who is not willing to be a missionary, or to support a missionary, if the Lord should so demand?
(17.) What reasons are there to conclude that it is the duty of pastors in these days, to look out for suitable young men, and call them to missionary work?
(18.) Verses 9-10—The prophet was being sent to a people familiar with God's message, and hardened in sin: what is generally the doom of such people?
(19.) What is the use of continuing to preach to a gospel-hardened people?
(20.) When sinners hear the call of God to repentance, and heed it not, what change takes place in them for better or worse?
(21.) Verses 11-13—It is very trying to preach without results, but is there anything in this story to indicate that in time, a faithful servant of God will surely cause some to hear and turn to the Lord?
Lesson for Sunday, May 21st, 1911. Song of the Vineyard. (A Temperance Lesson.) Isa. v:1-12.

In a desperate attempt to massacre the entire family while they slept, an unidentified negro late Friday night entered the home of John Marshall, an aged citizen of Bristol, Tenn., and going from bed to bed slashed the sleeping occupants so that one or more may die while the condition of all is critical. The negro literally wrecked the house, tearing down stoves and breaking up furniture. The noise of his fearful assault awakened the neighborhood but he got away. He is supposed to have given a large sum of money which Mr. Marshall drew from the bank that day.

She received 614 of the 1,086 votes cast and 148 more than her opponent, Mrs. William C. Story, of New York, who received 446 votes. The tellers spent almost 24 hours in counting the votes. Mrs. Edwin C. Gregory was re-elected vice president general for North Carolina.

R. Munnally and J. T. Morgan, who went from Salisbury to New York last week to employ female barbers, fell in with a chance acquaintance who volunteered to show them the town. Deaths.

Mr. Jas. C. Wiley died last Saturday, April 29th, at his home west of Graham depot after an illness of about six months, aged 74 years. His remains were interred at New Providence Sunday afternoon.
