The Test of Merit

Graham People are given Convincing Proof.

No better test of any article can be made than the test of time and this is particularly true of a kidney medicine. Doan's Kidney Pills have stood this test and stood it well. What better proof of the merits of this remedy could you demand, than the statement of a Graham resident who has been cured and has stayed cured?

Read the following: Mrs. M. R. Drumright, Poplar St., Graham, N. C., says: "Since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of backache and other symptoms of kidney complaint two years ago, my system has been entirely free from the trouble. I willingly continue to endorse this remedy. I had suffered a great deal from kidney trouble when Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention and I immediately got a supply of this remedy from the Alamance Pharmacy. Its use gave the most satisfactory results. Another member of my family has also taken Doan's Kidney Pills with benefit. I only hope that this statement will induce other kidney sufferers to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson.

By REV. T. S. LINSKOTT, D. D.

July 30th, 1911. (Copyright, 1910, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.)

The Finding of the Book of the Law. 2 Chron. xxxiv:14-33. Golden Text—Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee. Ps. cxix:11.

(1) Verses 14-17—What book was it they found; what did it consist of, and who was its author?

(2) What were they doing when they found this book of Moses?

(3) What are we generally doing when we find our richest treasures of spiritual knowledge?

(4) How could so important a book have been lost, or mislaid?

(5) Was this probably the only copy of the book in existence?

(6) Verses 18-19—What effect did the reading of this book of the law have upon the king?

(7) What part of the book would be likely to produce such grief on the part of the king? (See Deut. xxviii et seq.)

(8) What part of this book of the law which pertains to morals, is considered operative and binding to-day?

(9) You will observe that there are many death penalties for breaches of the moral law. Why have these been abolished by Christian people?

(10) Did Jesus abolish any of the laws of Moses and if so which? (See Matt. v:33-44, et seq.)

(11) Why are some laws just and equal under certain circumstances while cruel and unjust under others?

(12) What has been the effect of reading the Bible upon national and individual character?

(13) Verses 29-31—If these people did not have the book of the law how did they know their duty, or how to worship?

(14) Why was it necessary for the king to inquire further of the Lord when he now had the "law" in his hands?

(15) If more light were needed why could not the king or Hilkiah, the priest, inquire or read direct?

(16) How did the saints of God, who lived before Moses, find out the mind of God?

(17) Why are the penalties of moral law as unyielding and certain as are the penalties of physical law?

(18) Verses 22-25—Why is it that there are and always have been those who are sensitive to the voice of God, when the masses of even spiritual people are dull and unconscious of it?

(19) What is the reason for believing that all Christian people may cultivate the inward ear to discern the voice of God?

(20) How many women of the Bible are there which excelled in spiritual power and influence?

(21) When were these punishments inflicted upon Judah? (See 2 Chron. xxxvi:17-20.)

(22) Verses 26-28—When a man repents of his sin does God always forgive him, and remit the penalty, or are there exceptions?

(23) Verses 29-33—The entire nation seems to have repented at this time; did that keep them from being destroyed, and would it have prevented the final overthrow of the nation if they had not backslidden again?

(24) This incident shows how much influence the man has who is thoroughly aroused. What practical lesson may we learn from it? (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.)
