

First Session 62d Congress Adjourned Tuesday.

SPEAKER CHAMP CLARK GIVES CONCISE REVIEW OF DOINGS - TAFT "BLOCKED THE GAME."

Declares Democratic House Set Good Example for Democrats Everywhere and Redeemed Democratic Promises.

Washington, Aug. 22—Champ Clark, speaker of the house of representatives in a review of the work of the first session of the sixty-second congress, declared that the democratic party set a good example for democrats everywhere, and that the party had redeemed every promise it made in the campaign of 1910 when the democrats wrested control of the house from the republicans.

"At this session the democrats have made a fine record which has surprised our friends and dumbfounded our enemies," said Speaker Clark. "It has put heart and hope into democrats everywhere. The extra session call by the president, but also in the amount and quality of the work done in the house by the combined democrats and insurgents, and the combined democrats and republican insurgents in the senate and especially by the unanimity of action developed by the house democrat."

"It was predicted freely, vociferously, enthusiastically and confidently by the 'stand-pat' press and orators that we would go to pieces. On that account congress was called, so that we might go to pieces at the earliest possible date. But we have sorely disappointed all their expectations. They even set the date when we would go to pieces which was the day of the democratic caucus, on January 19, but unfortunately for them, in that caucus everything was done unanimously. They then said surely we would go to pieces as soon as we reached the tariff question, but again they were doomed to disappointment, and we did not go to pieces, at all. We are more thoroughly united in the houses at the end of the session, if possible, than at the beginning. "We have set a good example to democrats everywhere. Sneered at for years as a party of mere negotiation and as being utterly lacking in ability for constructive statesmanship, we passed through the house more constructive legislation, and better, than has passed through any house in the same length of time in twenty years. We have set the pace in that regard for future houses."

"We redeemed every promise made in order to carry the elections in 1910. We have recognized; we passed the reciprocity bill, the wool tariff bill, the free list bill, the cotton bill with the senate amendments, which included the iron and steel schedule and the chemical; we submitted for ratification a constitutional amendment providing for popular election of senators of the United States; we passed a bill for the publication of campaign expenses before the election; we liberalized the rules, making the committees elective by the house; we passed a large number of other bills of more or less importance. It is a record of which we may well be proud and one which will sweep the country in 1912."

"To show how completely the 'stand-pat' republicans are demoralized, it is only necessary to quote the newspaper statement that there was great rejoicing and congratulation at the white house because we failed by a scratch to get the two-thirds majority to ride the president's veto although we have only sixty-three majority in the house. To this complexion has it come at last, that the president, who rode into power by a huge majority is glad to escape the humiliation of having his vetoes over-riden in a house containing a majority of only 63. Small favors are thankfully received by the administration."

Noting the fact that four cabinet members were on the floor of the house lobbying in favor with all their power, allurement and patronage of the administration to help them influence votes, twenty-two insurgent republicans had the courage and manhood to override the president's vetoes.

Washington, Aug. 22—Champ Clark, speaker of the house of representatives in a review of the work of the first session of the sixty-second congress, declared that the democratic party set a good example for democrats everywhere, and that the party had redeemed every promise it made in the campaign of 1910 when the democrats wrested control of the house from the republicans.

BUILD UP In spring and summer, it's the natural time to store up health and vitality for the year. Scott's Emulsion is Nature's best and quickest help.

What's writ is writ, and whatever the future may have in store, the honor of having perfect unanimity among the democrats and of achieving an extraordinary amount of constructive statesmanship at this extraordinary session can never be taken away from us. Every democrat in the house and every insurgent republican who stood up to the rack is entitled to his full share of credit.

"We honestly and persistently endeavored to relieve the people of some of their burden of taxation, but the president would not have it. To use a sporting phrase, 'he blocked the game,' on these issues we appeal to the country, feeling absolutely certain that as we have stood manfully for the best interests of the people the people will stand by us."

The four cabinet officers to whom the speaker referred as having been on the floor of the house when the tariff revision vetoes were pending in that body were Attorney General Wickersham, Postmaster General Hitchcock, Secretary of War Stimson and Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel.

By flying the 280 miles from St. Louis to Chicago Monday, a week, with only two intermediate stops, and in an actual flying time of five hours and forty-three minutes, Harry N. Atwood, of Boston, believes he has set a pace which will result in his establishing a new record on his flight by aeroplane from St. Louis to New York and Boston. As it is he appears to have broken the American record for a single day flight. The best previous American record was made by Atwood himself when he flew 148 miles from Atlantic City to Baltimore on July 10, 1911.

Loss of Time Means Loss of Pay Kidney trouble and the ills it breeds means lost time and lost pay to many a working man. M. Baient, 1214 Little Penna. St., St.reator, Ill., was so bad from kidney and bladder trouble that he could not work, but he says: "I took Foley Kidney Pills for only a short time and got entirely well and was soon able to go back to work, and am feeling well and healthier than before." Foley Kidney Pills are tonic in action, quick in results—a good friend to the working man or woman who suffers from kidney ills. Sold by all Druggists.

Platform of Judge Walter Clark, Candidate for U. S. Senate.

Fayetteville Observer, Aug. 23, 1911.

The following, taken from Judge Clark's letter to Hon. A. Hall Johnston, 17 May, 1911, accepting the invitation of friends to become a candidate for the United States Senate, expresses objects for which he will work if chosen to that body:

- 1. Adequate and unequivocal legislation that will destroy the Trusts.
2. Tariff for Revenue only. Protection levies tribute, in favor of a class, upon all other classes. It is unjust and undemocratic.
3. Election of U. S. Senators and U. S. Judges by the people.
4. Election of Postmasters by the people of each locality.
5. He also favors putting Confederate soldiers on U. S. Pension List, not only in justice to them, but to stop the financial drain from the South, which has already paid to Federal Pensions more than the War Indemnity (1,000 millions dollars) which France paid to Germany.
6. A Parcel Post, especially for the country districts.
7. Public regulation of Railroads and other common carriers, but operation of the Telegraph and Telephones by Post-office, as in all other countries. This will give lower rates to the public, with shorter hours and better pay to employees.
8. He also advocates the destruction of corrupt methods by Strict restriction of which candidates, or others for them, can expend money at elections and in Primaries, and Full publicity of all such expenses, before and after each primary and election.
9. State-wide primaries for U. S. Senators and all State officers.
10. The adoption of the Initiative, the Referendum, and the Recall—the latter for such officers, State, county or town, as may be designated by law.
11. Extension of Public Schools and Good Roads.
12. Enforcement of laws regulating hours of labor, prohibiting child labor and requiring safety appliances.
13. Execution in good faith after election of all pledges made before.

Favors Pensions for Confederate Soldiers In Judge Clark's speech at the State Confederate Re-Union at Charlotte two years ago, he advocated the payment of U. S. pensions to Confederate soldiers. "That would have seemed an impossible proposition twenty years ago; but who that takes account of the unanimous rebuke of Heyburn by his Northern colleagues in the Senate, the other day, would say so now? On the contrary, we have little doubt that, if sent to the Senate, Judge Clark would be able to secure the passage of such a bill." He has a greater national reputation than any other North Carolinian; he has a host of friends among the Progressives of all parts of the Union; the Progressives stand for a cure of the bad things of the past; and a little reflection will convince us what a very bad thing discrimination between the sections in the matter of pensions has been.

The South has paid 1800 millions of dollars as her share of the pensions paid to the soldiers of the North, of which vast sum North Carolina has paid 100 millions. This has kept us poor, for very little comes back to us. It affects the entire South as well as the soldiers; for the business interests are concerned in keeping this immense amount of money at home. Judge Clark, we may be sure, will advocate this just measure, if sent to the Senate, and the evidence multiply that he will be.

The Gleaner is publishing the above at the request of a friend of Judge Clark and as a matter of information, about a prominent citizen who seeks the honor of representing a great State in the foremost deliberative body of the world. Four of the State's foremost citizens are candidates for the position Judge Clark is seeking and the people will like to know what policies they represent.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they can not reach the diseased part of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional medicine. Deafness is caused by a diseased condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is diseased and has a running discharge, it is necessary to remove the discharge, and when it is removed, the hearing can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition. Nothing will be destroyed forever and means out of us are caused by an ailment which is not cured by local applications.

Girl Makes a Swimming Record New York Dispatch, 1911.

Rose Pitonof, the 16-year-old swimmer of Boston, succeeded today in her attempt to swim from East 26th street, Manhattan, to Coney Island. Last year she had to abandon a similar effort because of adverse tides but today, although forced at times to swim so far out of her course that she is estimated to have covered some 21 miles in making the distance of 18 miles, she finished strong, actually sprinting as she neared the goal.

Miss Pitonof was in the water eight hours and seven minutes. She took no stimulants or food of any kind on the long trip. Most of the way she used the breast stroke but for two stretches she resorted to the speedier overhand.

The young woman's feat of today had not before been accomplished. Several swimmers have made the trip from the battery to Coney Island, but none from a point so far up the East river.

In Memoriam.

On the 25th day of July, 1911, there passed away Private James J. Foster, of Company E, 13th North Carolina State Troops, at his home in Wilmington, N. C. He enlisted in the above named Company and Regiment in the spring of 1861, and he served as a private soldier throughout the entire struggle for Southern independence, being captured on the 1st day of April, 1865, near Petersburg, when the lines of Lee were broken in that last fierce struggle for the capture of Richmond.

No braver or better soldier served in that great war. Always at his post of duty, and always in the forefront of every fight his command was engaged in, he exemplified the true man and true soldier in all things. The writer served with him and knows whereof he speaks when he says that such was his record as a soldier. After the war was over, he, with all other true Southern soldiers, accepted the results and went to work to build up the South, and he was a good citizen, and did his duties as such in every way, rendering due obedience to all the laws of the land.

The writer visited him often during his last days, and he expressed his confidence in the religion of Jesus Christ, and his acceptance of the Savior as his hope for salvation, and also that he was, he said, fully prepared to answer the last roll call.

To the family of my deceased friend and comrade I extend my heartfelt sympathy in this, to them, great bereavement.

WILLIAM H. ANDREWS, 1st Lieut. Co. H, 13th C. S. Army, Burlington, N. C., Aug. 19, '11.
