It is understood that it is the purpose of the Company to extend its line to Chapel Hill and perhaps to Durham. It has been remarked also that the line will possibly be extended to Swepsonville during the coming spring. Graham Betterment Association held a good meeting Monday night. No special business, than that heretofore made public, was transacted. The spirit of the meeting was a determination to do something for the good of Graham. If all shall work together to that end much will be accomplished. Let all pull together. Those who have not personally inspected what the Piedmont Railway & Electric Co. has at its power station do not know how well it is being equipped there. There you will find a large brick car barn, admirably arranged for housing and repairing the cars, with plenty of storage room for tools and other appliances. On the opposite side of the track are boilers (two large ones), an immense engine and generator. In a few feet of this flows a never-failing stream. Taxed to its greatest capacity the plant will generate about 750 horse-power. It will be ready to put in operation in a few weeks. Mr. E. S. Parker, Jr., at Hospital. Last Saturday afternoon Mr. E. S. Parker, Jr., who had been closely and strenuously engaged in the trial of a case in the U. S. District Court at Greensboro, was taken quite ill at his room at his hotel and was carried to St. Leo's Hospital for treatment. The news comes that he is greatly improved and that he was expected home to-day, but up to this hour he has not arrived. Mrs. Parker has been with him most of the time. His hosts of friends wish for him a speedy recovery.

Yesterday morning the sudden death of Mrs. Nannie Bell Moore, wife of Mr. W. A. Moore, was a great shock to everyone. She had not been very well, but no special apprehension was entertained, even by the members of her immediate family. After breakfast she went to her room and in a few minutes fell across her bed in a fainting condition and expired in about ten minutes. Mrs. Moore was about thirty-five years old, and is survived by her husband and six little children, the youngest being only three months old, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Watson, two sisters, Fannie and Mattie Watson, and one brother, Mr. Jas. E. Watson, all of this place. By her gentle disposition, pure life and unfeeling kindness she had won the esteem of all who knew her, and her death comes as a personal loss to all. The funeral was conducted from her home on W. Elm St. this morning at 11 o'clock by her pastor, Dr. E. C. Murray, and the remains were laid to rest in Linwood Cemetery. A large number of relatives and sympathizing friends were present at the funeral and burial. The husband and little ones and all the relatives have the deep sympathy of their friends in this hour of sadness and bereavement. Pythian District Meeting.

The District meeting of the Knights of Pythias of the 7th district of the Knights of Pythias was held with Graham Lodge No. 92 Tuesday night. That part of the programme for the public was held in the opera house and was presided over by Mr. McBride Holt, who was master of ceremonies. The meeting was opened by singing the opening ode of the Lodge, and led in prayer by Rev. Geo. L. Curry. The address of welcome in happy vein was delivered by Dr. E. C. Murray and responded to by Mr. Geo. W. Britain of Reidsville in well chosen words. Then Miss Jas. V. Pomeroy sang a solo for which the audience demonstrated the highest approval. Next came the address of the occasion on "Pythianism" by Grand Chancellor C. C. McLean, of Greensboro. It was excellent. He gave the history of the founding of the order and the great things for which the order stands. He was followed by Mr. C. W. Pender, Supt. of the Pythian Home at Clayton, in a real heart talk about the institution over which he presides. After the exercises at the Opera House, the members of the order adjourned to the Lodge room, and here the curtain drops to the public. But we will take the privilege of saying that the pleasures and enjoyments of the evening did not cease upon leaving the Opera House. The first thing which greeted the visitors and members upon entering the Lodge was a splendid banquet of good things, beautifully and tastefully arranged—the work of the good women of Graham. That it was enjoyed no one could doubt. Among other things which took place a degree was conferred upon a candidate. Among those present for the meeting were delegations from the Lodges at Greensboro, Reidsville, White Oak, Proximity, Liberty and Burlington. The list is too long to name the names of all individually. They did not enjoy being here any more than Graham did in having them. It was voted by all a very successful meeting.

Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson.

By REV. T. S. LINSOTT, D. D. Dec. 24th, 1911. (Copyright, 1910, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.) Malachi Rebuking and Encouraging Judah: Mal. III:1-4:3. Golden Text—Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the Lord of hosts. Mal. III:7. (1.) Verse 1—Who is the "messenger" that was to come? (2.) In what respects does the history of John the Baptist show that he answered to this description by Malachi? (3.) How would you sum up, in a few words, the character and work of John the Baptist? (4.) Verses 2-4—In what respects has Jesus been so manifestly "like a re-burner's fire, and like fuller's soap"? (5.) What effect has Jesus had upon the Jewish people as a whole? (6.) What has Christianity done for the moral and material progress of mankind? (7.) Verses 7-8—In how many ways have men gone away from God? (8.) What to-day are the chief sins of the organized Christian church? (9.) What are the reasons to believe that God still demands "tithes and offerings" from the people? (10.) Verse 9—If a man does not pay to God's cause at least ten per cent of his earnings, does God regard him as a robber? Give your reasons. (11.) What was the nature of the curse that rested on the people for robbing God of his tithes? (12.) Verse 10—What are the reasons for believing it is literally true that if we take care of God's house by paying into it ten per cent of our earnings, God will bless us with material prosperity? (13.) What proportion of Christians in your church would you say are giving to God's cause not less than a tenth of their income? (14.) Make a rough estimate of the actual annual earnings of the members of your local church and say what a tithe of the total sum would be, then subtract the amount they actually give, and say how much they are robbing God annually, if any. (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.) (15.) Verses 11-12—If our whole nation were to voluntarily give to the church not less than ten per cent of its earnings, what effect would that have upon the conversion of the world, and how would it affect our reputation with other nations? (16.) Verses 13-15—What is the culpability of the sin which denies that there is profit in serving God? (17.) What is the profit of serving God? (18.) Verses 16-18—What are some of the many spiritual benefits of experience meetings? (19.) Chap. IV:1-3—What is to be the certain doom of the finally impenitent? (20.) What is the blessedness of the real children of God? Lesson for Sunday, Dec. 31st, 1911. Review. Dec. 24th, 1911. (Copyright, 1910, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.) Christmas Lesson. Jesus Born in Bethlehem. Matt. II:1-12. Golden Text—Unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. Matt. II:11. (1.) Verses 1-2—Did God directly plan that Jesus should be born in a manger at Bethlehem? Why or why not? (2.) How did the wise men from the East know of the place and birth of Jesus? (3.) Who were these wise men? (4.) What reason is there to suppose that God revealed himself in those days to the wise and devout men of other nations, as well as to those of the Jews? (5.) Who was this Herod, and how long had he been King of Judaea? (6.) What does the lowly birth of Jesus signify to the world? (7.) What did it presage that the wise men, scholars, philosophers, astronomers, of a Gentile country, were the first great men to greet the new born Saviour? (8.) God revealed the birth of Jesus by an angel to the shepherds and by a star to the wise men; would this indicate that the shepherds had the keener intuition than the philosophers? (9.) Does God to-day reveal Himself to any, other than by natural methods? Give your reasons. (10.) Verse 8—Why had God not advised the wise men, the prophets and priests of Jerusalem, of the birth of Jesus? (11.) Why were Herod and "all Jerusalem" troubled, when they heard of the birth of Jesus? (12.) If people are troubled when they stand in the presence of the supernatural, or the unusual, is that any indication that their consciences are not right with God? Why? (13.) Verses 4-6—From what book did the priests and scribes quote? (See Mic. v:2 et seq.) (14.) What evidence is there that the prophet Micah had the birth of Jesus in mind, when he penned his prophecy as quoted by these priests and scribes? (15.) How much practical use do even the leaders in religious thought make of scripture prophecies, that are not yet fulfilled? (16.) Verse 8—What reason is there to think that bad men generally hide their fears and jealousies, when they seek to ruin the objects of their envy? (17.) What cures, beside this, can you cite where great wickedness has been concealed under a mask of great piety? (18.) Verses 9-12—Is there any reason to think that Joseph, before his relationship to Christ, ever had converse with angels? (19.) Does close relationship to Christ always give the ability to see and hear God? Give your reasons. (20.) May we always have warning from God of impending danger to us or ours? Why? (21.) How may we know when it is our duty to face danger, or to fly from it? (22.) If this holy family had to face such serious trouble, what does that indicate for the rest of us, and why is it? (23.) Is it absolutely safe for us to follow the leadings of God as Joseph did? (24.) When and how did God recall this holy family from Egypt? Lesson for Sunday, Dec. 31st, 1911. Right Living. To be honest and kind, to earn a little and to spend a little less; to make upon the whole a family happier for his presence; to renounce when that shall be necessary and not to be embittered; to keep a few friends, but these without capitulation; above all, on the same great condition, to keep friends with himself—here is a task for all that a man has of fortitude and delicacy. The Gloomy Englishman. The sap may be widely running, the birds may be making love, and the sun be brilliantly shining in a sky of exquisite blue, but in the heart of the average Englishman there seems a perpetual Good Friday, and in his mind the fixed idea that life is one long, unending Monday morning and the month eternally November.—London Tatler.
