

MODERN ROADMAKING.

Efforts in England to Meet Motor and Trolley Car Traffic. The following illustrates the efforts in England to meet in roadmaking the conditions imposed by motor and trolley car traffic.

ALL READ THIS.

Any one having stone he desires to have tested for road building purposes should write to the office of public roads, Washington, D. C., for instructions as to how to proceed to secure such tests.

Reconciliation That Failed.

James VI. of Scotland—afterward James I. of England—in 1587, being much perturbed by the constant quarrels among his nobles, determined to end all disputes by a summary process of reconciliation.

Eating When Tired.

Every one should know that to eat when tired is to place upon the digestive organs a burden which they are wholly unable to bear.

Wonderful Fireworks.

A manufacturer of pyrotechnics in Nagasaki, Japan, makes a rocket from which, when it explodes in the air, there flies away a large bird which resembles a homing bird in its movements.

A TIP FOR COUNTIES.

The bond plan is the economical, equitable and intelligent method to provide permanent municipal improvements, and the same can be said of good roads construction.

Drunkennes.

First case of drunkennes was recorded in 1431 B. C.

Irrigation.

Irrigation for agricultural purposes was first mentioned in Egypt 2,000 years prior to the advent of the Christian era.

Bonded Warehouse.

Bonded warehouse system was first authorized in England by act of parliament in 1802. It was suggested by Sir Robert Walpole in 1723, but was then defeated owing to its unpopularity.

Just Suited Him.

Two elderly gentlemen, both clad in sober black, were sitting side by side in a Euclid car Saturday morning. Each was reading a morning paper.

Papa's Treaty.

When the Quakers came to Pennsylvania in 1682 the only Indians in the neighborhood were the Delawares, who had just been terribly beaten by the Five Nations and forced into a treaty by which they submitted to be called women and to surrender their tomahawks.

TAFT INTERESTED IN GOOD ROADS.

In a recent letter President Taft expresses his interest in good roads as follows: "I have a very intense interest in the development of good roads the country over, and I am very glad to know that the movement in favor of this improvement has taken such national form as to indicate the widespread feeling of the necessity for giving to the residents of the country as distinguished by their city a facility for inter-communication that will greatly add to the comfort of living in the country and will increase the profits of the producer and farmer by reducing the cost of his initial transportation."

A GOOD EXAMPLE.

Two North Carolina Farmers Are Constantly Dragging Roads. An example worthy of emulation is that of the Grimms Bros., farmers and millers, of Lexington, N. C. These gentlemen own a big farm north of the city, touching the city limits.

Roads in a Small Town.

In the southeast corner of Reno County, Kan., is the town of Turon, which the 1910 census report gives a population of 612. Some eighteen months ago a commercial club was organized in Turon, says the Kansas City Star.

Where the Locality Does Not Count.

Wherever there are people suffering from kidney and bladder ailments, from backache, rheumatism and urinary irregularities, Foley Kidney Pills will help them. Belvidere, Ill. E. A. Kelly, an engineer, says: "Three years ago my kidneys became so bad that I was compelled to give up my engine and quit. There was a severe aching pain over the hips, followed by an inflammation of the bladder, and always a thick sediment. Foley Kidney Pills made me a sound and well man. I cannot say too much in their praise." Sold by all Druggists.

The Man Who Meddled.

"I have made it a fast rule in life," said the pale faced man to the prosperous merchant, "never to meddle with another man's business."

The Sneezing Prayer.

The custom, still quite common in some of the countries of the old world, of saying "God bless you" to the sneezer originated, according to some authorities, among the primitive Romans, who, through the opinion of the danger attending it, after sneezing made a short prayer to the gods, "Sapienter, help me!" The custom is mentioned by Homer, by several of the older Jewish rabbis and others, and is found, it is said, among various savage peoples about the world. Another authority says the custom took its rise at the time of the plague, 558, when the infected fell dead while sneezing.—New York American.

White Men Fall-Bearers for an Old-Time Negro.

A peculiar mark of respect was paid to a Cumberland county colored man last week by the white people of Fayetteville. The colored man was Guilford Christmas, whose life of devotion in the service of his former master, Col. Wharton J. Green, gave him a warm place in the hearts of the family of Colonel Green.

A Mean Trick.

"That's the meanest man I ever ran across," said the book agent. "What has he done?" "Kept me calling day after day and finally said he didn't care anything about reading, but he enjoyed hearing me talk."

Thanksgiving Day a stranger registered at the Inlet Inn at Beaufort as C. Hauber, Washington. Next day his dead body was found face down in the water near the western shore of North river, three miles from Beaufort. When you have a cold get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will soon fix you up all right and will ward off any tendency toward pneumonia. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.

"BEST ON EARTH"

This is the verdict of R. J. Howell, Tracy, O., who bought Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for his wife. "Her case was the worst I have ever seen, and looked like a sure case of consumption. Lightning Kills Few.

In 1906 lightning killed only 169 people in this whole country. One's chances of death by lightning are less than two in a million. The chance of death from liver, kidney or stomach trouble is vastly greater, but not if Electric Bitters be used, as Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Ia., proved. Four doctors gave him up after eight months of suffering from virulent liver trouble and a yellow jaundice. He was then completely cured by Electric Bitters. They're the best stomach, liver, nerve and kidney remedy and blood purifier on earth. Only 50c. at Graham Drug Co.
