During the past half century, thousands of ladies have written to tell of the quick curative results they obtained, from the use of this well-known medicine.

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Jane Callahan suffered from womanly trouble for nearly ten years. In a letter from Whiteville, N. C., she says: "I was not able to do my own housework. My stomach was weak, and my blood was wrong. I had backache, and was very weak. I tried several doctors, but they did me no good. I used Cardui for 3 or 4 months, and now I am in the best health I have ever been. I can never praise Cardui enough." It is the best tonic, for women.

Whether seriously sick, or simply weak, try Cardui.

THE FARM FOR POULTRY.

Conditions Needed For Success in This Branch of Industry.

To succeed with poultry one must choose the right kind of surroundings. The land and location are of most importance. There are farms and farms, but only now and then one suitable for poultry keeping. The would be poultryman should be very careful in his selection of a farm, for upon this selection may depend his success or failure in the poultry business. He should choose:

First—A farm with land sloping to the south or southeast, so that in winter the hen houses may receive the full benefit of the sun's rays.

Second—A farm bordered or protected on the north and west by a forest or windbreak, preferably of evergreen trees, so that the cold winds may be thus shut off from the poultry plant.

Third—A farm with productive land in order that it may afford the best fertilizer applied and labor expended.

Fourth—A farm with soil adapted to fruit culture, so that fruit and poultry, mutually allied and remunerative, may be carried on hand in hand. An apple orchard is very useful in the poultry plant, for here, shade, protection and abundance of animal food can be found.

Fifth—A farm containing woodland or slashes where during the heat of the summer the flock may find shelter from the sun as well as a variety of animal food.

Sixth—A farm with a stream of clear, cool water flowing through it where the growing flock can have access to it at all times to quench their thirst and in the lowlands find innumerable forms of animal and plant life so appetizing to the fowl kind.

Seventh—A farm where corn and oats will grow, for among such crops are always to be found crickets and grasshoppers galore, the bone and muscle making food for the growing chicks.

Eighth—A farm that is well drained, with uplands and lowlands, with fertile fields and verdant pastures, rich meadows and thrifty woodlands—in short, a farm that is teeming with plant and animal life.

Such a farm, having as many of these essentials as possible, is the one to select in order that the best results may be obtained.—Farm Journal.

JUDGING WOOL AND MUTTON ANIMALS.

Proper methods of judging mutton and wool types of sheep are described thus by George R. Samson of the animal husbandry department of the Oregon Agricultural college:

The mutton type includes the long wools and the medium wools or "down" breeds. These are both produced primarily for their mutton. Accordingly the points given greatest weight are those which pertain to a splendid mutton carcass. This implies the maximum of meat in that part of the carcass which brings the best price when sold over the block. Hence the back, loin and hind legs are of the greatest importance.

The back and ribs should be well covered with firm flesh, which should extend well down on the sides. When the hand is placed upon the backbone and moved from side to side the prominence on the backbone should not be noticeable.

The loin should be wide and thickly fleshed. To determine this place the hands with the palms toward each other in a vertical position on either side

The Cheviot sheep gets its name from the Cheviot hills, a range of low mountains on the border of England and Scotland. It is the principal breed of mountain sheep and has made a name for itself on this side of the Atlantic, where it has proved to be a valuable breed for farm use as a cross with native stock. The illustration shows a typical ram of this breed.

WORTH SEVERAL MEN.

Easily Made Carrier to Take Sacked Grain From Thrasher to Granary.

This sketch shows a device that will take the place of several men, according to a correspondent of the Farm and Fireside.

The hardest work in our community at thrashing time is the carrying of the sacked grain to the granary. To do this satisfactorily several men are required.

This device costs only $3. It is attached to the hay and holds seven sacks of oats. One man and a boy to lead the horse can operate it successfully.

The points may be outlined as follows: A is a 3 by 2 oak piece thirty-eight inches long. BB are one-half inch baseboard boards, thirty-six inches long. CC are pieces 1 by 3 by 36 inches. DD are pieces 1 by 3 by 36 inches. EE represent wires connecting the carrier with the hay traps. F is a piece 2 by 4 by 12, which opens the sliding door as it strikes the hopper, shown just below the carrier.

When filled this device is fastened to the blocks and follows the track until the sliding door strikes the hopper. It takes about a minute to empty the contents into the hopper, which is connected by a spout to bins below.

In drawing the carrier back caution must be used to do so slowly. The hopper, as arranged for this carrier, is 33 by 25 by 38.

GOOD PHILOSOPHY.

Agriculture is the taproot of the tree of prosperity, says a Chinese proverb, and in this respect at least the heathen Chinese is everlasting right.

Live Stock and Dairy.

If you are a little short of feed for the poor cows and replace them with good ones. Don't keep cows; make them keep you.

Farmers should learn that while alfalfa hay is one of the best feeds for cows, yet green alfalfa is rather dangerous, particularly so if it has been frosted.

Early breeding tends to develop heavy milkers, and by good care and feeding this can be accomplished without dwarfing the size or weakening the constitution of the cow or her progeny.

Many young feeders make the great mistake of trying to push their cattle too rapidly. Never forget that the best and biggest gains are made the first month on the smallest amount of grain. It is not big gains that pay; it is economical gains.

First La Grippe, Then Bronchitis.

That was the case with Mrs. W. S. Bailey, McCreary, Ky. "My wife was taken down with a severe attack of la grippe, which ran into bronchitis. She coughed as though she had consumption and could not sleep at night. The first bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound gave her so much relief that she continued using it until she was permanently cured." For sale by all Druggists.

At Winston Saturday 10th Jo. Greer shot John Kerns and the latter died Monday following. Both negroes. Greer is in jail. The trouble which led to the shooting grew out of alleged insulting remarks made to Greer's wife by Kerns.

New Cold Affects the Kidneys.

Avoid taking cold if your kidneys are sensitive. Cold congests the kidneys, throws too much work upon them, and weakens their action. Serious kidney trouble and even Bright's disease may result. Strengthen your kidneys, get rid of the pain and soreness, build them up by the timely use of Foley's Kidney Pills. Tonic in action, quick in results. For sale by all Druggists.

After the police had been called upon to quell disorder at the first district Republican convention in Savannah, Ga., the delegates split into two factions and two sets of delegates to the national convention at Chicago were elected. The majority, or "postoffice crowd," did not instruct delegates and only endorsed "the Republican administration." The other faction, besides endorsing the work of the present administration, instructed its delegates to vote for President Taft for the nomination.

Breed From Mature Sows.

Four Berkshire sows kept at the Florida experiment station farm during the past year farrowed twice in that time, producing a total of thirty pigs in July and thirty-one the next spring.

From the thirty pigs farrowed in July, 1910, twenty-six grew to maturity. Of the thirty-one farrowed during February and March, 1911, twenty-seven were saved. During the year the four sows farrowed sixty-one pigs, and saved fifty-three, or 87 per cent of all pigs farrowed.

These four sows were farrowed in May, 1908, and their first litter of pigs during November, 1908. The sows were therefore well grown and developed when first bred. Good breeding stock is often injured by being bred when too young and immature. Young immature sows are likely to farrow pigs lacking in vitality. Such pigs never grow and develop as they should and hence are more expensive to raise.

Tabernacle Bible Conference.

The fourteenth annual Tabernacle Bible Conference will convene at the Baptist Tabernacle, Atlanta, Ga., March 1st, and continue to March 10th. The Conference promises to be the largest in attendance in its history. Christian workers and Bible students from all parts of the country will be in attendance. This Conference is interdenominational in character, over two thousand preachers alone attending last year. A greater attendance is expected this year in view of the fact that the Conference will be held in the new church recently dedicated, costing over $200,000, the seating capacity of which is five thousand. The speakers of the Conference will be Dr. Chas. Inwood, of London, the specially appointed representative of Keswick; Dr. Camden M. Coburn, of Alleghany College, Meadville, Pa.; Dr. J. H. Harris, of Ohio; Prof. and Mrs. Carl Fisher, of Grand Rapids, will act as soloists and directors of the music, while the choir of a hundred voices will be supported by the handsome $20,000 pipe organ, said to be the third largest in any Protestant church in the world. Rev. J. W. Ham, assistant pastor, may be addressed for further information.

Ambitious young men and ladies should learn telegraphy, the pen of Ben Pitman, pioneer of stenography, who acted as official stenographer at the trial of the conspirators, has revealed facts supporting his belief that Mrs. Mary Surratt, the woman hanged with three other conspirators, was innocent of the crime for which she was executed. The statement was written by Pitman just before his death here a year ago, and appears in the March issue of a Cincinnati magazine. A portion of Pitman's statement is:

"That Mrs. Surratt, who was hanged with three male conspirators concerned in a plot to assassinate President Lincoln and other government officials, was entirely innocent of any prior knowledge of or participation in those crimes is, to my mind, beyond question. My conviction is based on the following facts: That as official recorder of the trial, as having heard every word of the testimony; as compiler of the published volume, 'Lincoln Assassination Trial'; more than all, as having previous to the trial written down from the lips of the principal witnesses their stories of what they knew or about which, in their employment of spies, they learned. I have had the best opportunity of forming a true opinion as to the guilt or innocence of Mrs. Surratt."

MRS. SURRATT'S CASE.

Evidence of the Innocence of That Unfortunate Woman.

Cincinnati Dispatch.

Almost 50 years after the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, the pen of Ben Pitman, pioneer of stenography, who acted as official stenographer at the trial of the conspirators, has revealed facts supporting his belief that Mrs. Mary Surratt, the woman hanged with three other conspirators, was innocent of the crime for which she was executed. The statement was written by Pitman just before his death here a year ago, and appears in the March issue of a Cincinnati magazine. A portion of Pitman's statement is:
