S. Maple St., Graham, N.C., says:

"I am glad to endorse Doan's Kidney Pills because they are a perfect remedy. All that I said in 1907 about them holds good today. I had suffered from pains in the small of my back and there seemed to be soreness across my kidneys. I finally got a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills and they soon made me feel much better. I am sure that this remedy is all that it is claimed to be."

A BEAUTIFUL WEDDING.

Miss Mary Foster Becomes the Bride of Mr. Herbert Jackson.

On Wednesday morning at ten On Wednesday morning at ten Black Bros. School, at "Elmhurst", the home of M. R. Rives & Bro. her grandparents, Capt. and Mrs. James N. Williamson, Graham, N. C., Miss Mary Williamson Foster became the bride of Mr. Herbert Jackson, of Covington, Ky. The home, which is one of the most beautiful of our Southern style, had been truly converted into a flower garden by a noted florist. To the strains of the Lohengrin Wedding March, the couple entered the drawing room, preceded by little Miss Blanche Spencer, who carried the wedding ring in a basket of lillies-of-the valley. Before an improvised altar of Easter lillies and palms, the Rev. Dr. E. C. Murray performed the emony which made them man and wife The bride was handsomely attired in an imported coat costume of black and violet shot faille satin. with flower hat of violets and water lillies. She carried a bouquet of lillies-of-the-valley and orchids. Her R. L. Holmes only ornament was a diamond and pearl necklace, the gift of the groom.

After the ceremony a breakfast was served. The bride and groom left on an extended trip West, and will be at home after June 1st, at 507 Wallace Avenue, Convington,

The bride, who comes from one of A. B. Nichol the State's oldest families, is one of North Carolina's most attractive and charming daughters, and very much admired and beloved by her friends everywhere. The groom is of an old English family, and is a prominent attorney of both Covington, Ky., and Cincinnati, Ohio, and has a host of friends in both places.

The presents were numerous and costly, and the guests that were present all join in wishing the happy couple a bright future.

Mr. Gus. A. Garrison Dead.

The news that Mr. Gus. A. Garrison died early Tuesday morning, about 5 o'clock, brought expressions of sincerest regret from his friends and acquaintances through the county. Comparatively few had heard of his illness, for he had been sick only a few days, having been stricken with pneumonia a week prior to his death. "Dolph" Garrison, as his friends familiarly called him, was one of the county's best citizens in all the relations of life. He was a model citizen. His home was about two miles west of Union Ridge. By industry he provided generously for his household, and his was a hospitable home, always open to his GLEANER Printing Office. friends. Mr. Garrison was born

Dec. 23, 1855, and died April 30, 1912, was in the 57th year of his The funeral and burial took place at Bethlehem, near Altamahaw yesterday at 1 o'clock, where a large concourse of people relatives, friends and acquaintances gathered to pay a last tribute of respect to the deceased. Rev. Dr. W. S. Long of Chapel Hill, who had known Mr. Garrison from his childhood, preached the funeral sermon and spoke tenderly and feelingly of the life of his friend. After the services in the church, the Masonic fraternity, of which the deceased was a devoted member, under the direction of the Burlington Lodge where he held his membership took charge and laid the body to rest with the honors of the beautiful
