Anti-Trust Law of 1891 Upheld by Supreme Court.

Raleigh, May 15. -In an opin ion written by Chief Justice Clark, the Supreme Court finds no erro in the action of the Burke county Superior court in the case of J. M. Smith against the Morganton Ice Company.

The suit was brought by Smith against the ice company under the nti-trust law of 1891.

Smith was a local ice dealer at Morganton, and had been securing his supply from the Newton Ice Company about 30 miles away. The Morganton Company attempt ed to monopolize the ice business President, but Taft has yet a good in that town and had induced the fighting chance. Neither should State School for the Deaf and Dumb, which also manufactures ice, to stop supplying the town

Let everything company and threatened that if it be done harmoniously and looking did not stop supplying Smith with ice that they would invade the Newton company's territory. In this way Smith was cut off from his base of supplies from these damages, and was given a verdict for $400 in the lower court. An appeal was taken from this deciswith the result above stated. In writing the opinion Chief Justice Clark says: "It is significant that with numerous glaring instances of violations of the law many of them known to be far vaster in intent and effect, and law, which punishes such offend-
