THE REPUBLICANS AT CHICAGO

The Republican national conven tion met in Chiego Tuesday. It assembled to na a candidate for President, but at last accounts had not done so, and it does not yet appear when it will.

The Roosevelt and Taft supporters are at daggers' points. The Taft folks are in the saddle. They elected Elihu Root temporary chairman over McGovern, and that's as far as they longer any doubt that each of have gone. For two days they have scrapped without reaching a permanent organization.

Roosevelt is on the ground, but his presence has not changed things in his favor. He finds that he cannot run things his way. His friends have stuck to him, but they cannot cajole the others.

It may be a dark horse yet. Gov. Hadley of Missouri has been much talked of and has received a big believed that he could make his ovation. Supreme Court Justice Hughes has been importuned but he persistently says no.

No more strenuous convention has has brought about a co-operation ever assembled, and the progressives with the insurgents that would enand stand-patters are wide apart and able him to control the situation. it is thought they will never get It is now believed that the presitogether.
