

Advice to the Aged. Age brings infirmities, such as sluggish bowels, bladder and liver...

Tutt's Pills have a specific effect on these organs, and stimulate the bowels, causing them to perform their natural functions...

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

J. S. COOK, Attorney-at-Law, GRAHAM, N. C.

DAMERON & LONG, Attorneys-at-Law, N. S. W. DAMERON, J. ADOLPH LONG...

DR. WILL S. LONG, JR., DENTIST, Graham, N. C.

JOHN H. VERNON, Attorney and Counselor-at-Law, PONES-Office 66 1/2 - Residence 337 BURLINGTON, N. C.

The Raleigh Daily Times, RALEIGH, N. C.

The Great Home Newspaper of the State.

ARE YOU UP TO DATE? If you are not the NEWS AND OBSERVER is. Subscribe for it at once and it will keep you abreast of the times.

Full Associated Press dispatches. All the news—foreign, domestic, national, state and local all the time.

Daily News and Observer $7 per year, 35¢ for 6 mos. Weekly North Carolinian $1 per year, 50¢ for 6 mos.

THE North Carolinian and THE ALAMANCE GLEANER will be sent for one year for Two Dollars. Cash in advance. Apply at THE GLEANER office, Graham, N. C.

Sprains require careful treatment. Keep quiet and apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely. It will remove the soreness and quickly restore the parts to a healthy condition.

Suggestions for Care of Milk. Be sure that your milk is cool when delivered, and kept cool. Keep it covered at all times.

English Spavin Liniment removes all hard, soft or calloused lumps and blemishes from horses, blood spavins, curbs, splints, swellings, ringbones, stifles, sprains all swollen throats, coughs, etc.

ROLEY'S URINO-LAXATIVE. This medicine is a... It is a... It is a...

THE THREE GUARDSMEN

BY ALEXANDRE DUMAS

"Thirteen hundred pieces each, my lord." "How many days would it require to make two studs exactly like them?" "I will give you 5000 pieces each for two if I can have them by the day after tomorrow."

"Therefore, my dear Master O'Reilly, you are my prisoner. Name to me such of your workmen as you stand in need of and point out the tools they must bring."

The goldsmith wrote to his wife, charging her to send his most skillful apprentice, an assortment of diamonds, of which he gave the names and the weight and the necessary tools.

Buckingham led the goldsmith to the chamber destined for him and which, at the end of half an hour, was transformed into a workshop.

Buckingham assigned D'Artagnan a chamber adjoining his own. He wished to have the young man at hand, not that he at all mistrusted him, but for the sake of having some one to whom he could constantly talk about the queen.

In one hour after the ordinance was published in London that no vessel bound for France should leave the ports—not even the packet boat with letters—in the eyes of everybody this was a declaration of war between the two kingdoms.

On the day after the morning, by 11 o'clock, the two diamond studs were finished. They were imitated perfectly to look like the others.

Buckingham immediately called D'Artagnan. "Here," said he to him, "are the diamonds that you came to fetch and my witness that I have done all that human power could do."

"Be satisfied, my lord; I will tell all that I have seen. But does your grace mean to give me the studs without the casket?" "The casket would only incumber you. Besides, the casket is the more precious from being all that is left to me."

"I understand," said the duke, smiling, "and I even believe that I know that other person that you came to fetch and my witness that I have done all that human power could do."

"What is the name of that port?" "St. Valery. But listen: When you have arrived there you will go to a man in a blue coat and a white waistcoat, a sign, a mere fisherman's hat. You cannot be mistaken; there is but one."

"You will ask for the host and will repeat to him the word 'Forward' that is the password. He will give you a ready saddle horse and will take you to the road you are to take. You will find in this manner four relays on your route. If you will give at each of these relays your address in Paris the four horses will follow you thither. You already know two of them. They were those who rode on, without a name and without a sign, to the road you are to take."

"What is the name of that port?" "St. Valery. But listen: When you have arrived there you will go to a man in a blue coat and a white waistcoat, a sign, a mere fisherman's hat. You cannot be mistaken; there is but one."

"You will ask for the host and will repeat to him the word 'Forward' that is the password. He will give you a ready saddle horse and will take you to the road you are to take. You will find in this manner four relays on your route. If you will give at each of these relays your address in Paris the four horses will follow you thither. You already know two of them. They were those who rode on, without a name and without a sign, to the road you are to take."

"What is the name of that port?" "St. Valery. But listen: When you have arrived there you will go to a man in a blue coat and a white waistcoat, a sign, a mere fisherman's hat. You cannot be mistaken; there is but one."

"You will ask for the host and will repeat to him the word 'Forward' that is the password. He will give you a ready saddle horse and will take you to the road you are to take. You will find in this manner four relays on your route. If you will give at each of these relays your address in Paris the four horses will follow you thither. You already know two of them. They were those who rode on, without a name and without a sign, to the road you are to take."

"What is the name of that port?" "St. Valery. But listen: When you have arrived there you will go to a man in a blue coat and a white waistcoat, a sign, a mere fisherman's hat. You cannot be mistaken; there is but one."

"You will ask for the host and will repeat to him the word 'Forward' that is the password. He will give you a ready saddle horse and will take you to the road you are to take. You will find in this manner four relays on your route. If you will give at each of these relays your address in Paris the four horses will follow you thither. You already know two of them. They were those who rode on, without a name and without a sign, to the road you are to take."

"What is the name of that port?" "St. Valery. But listen: When you have arrived there you will go to a man in a blue coat and a white waistcoat, a sign, a mere fisherman's hat. You cannot be mistaken; there is but one."

"You will ask for the host and will repeat to him the word 'Forward' that is the password. He will give you a ready saddle horse and will take you to the road you are to take. You will find in this manner four relays on your route. If you will give at each of these relays your address in Paris the four horses will follow you thither. You already know two of them. They were those who rode on, without a name and without a sign, to the road you are to take."

"What is the name of that port?" "St. Valery. But listen: When you have arrived there you will go to a man in a blue coat and a white waistcoat, a sign, a mere fisherman's hat. You cannot be mistaken; there is but one."

"You will ask for the host and will repeat to him the word 'Forward' that is the password. He will give you a ready saddle horse and will take you to the road you are to take. You will find in this manner four relays on your route. If you will give at each of these relays your address in Paris the four horses will follow you thither. You already know two of them. They were those who rode on, without a name and without a sign, to the road you are to take."

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE

A MODERN SIDNEY. When you visit the city of Washington you will find the story of the hard ending of Midshipman James Crouse, who died from injuries received in an explosion in the turret of the battleship Oregon, while at target practice on Cape Cod bay.

Crouse was only nineteen. He was on his way to the gun in the turret. His classmate and chum, Midshipman Goldthwaite, secured another gun. The latter died from his injuries inside of two hours.

Crouse, frightfully wounded and badly buried, hearing cries for help, retraced his steps toward the turret. He took hold and helped to ease for the wounded seaman.

While he was gallantly helping in this work attention was called to his own deplorable condition. It was then he uttered the noble words that are carved on his monument.

"Never mind me. I am all right. Look after the other fellows." "If you will go to the newspaper files you will find the story of the hard ending of Midshipman James Crouse, who died from injuries received in an explosion in the turret of the battleship Oregon, while at target practice on Cape Cod bay.

Crouse was only nineteen. He was on his way to the gun in the turret. His classmate and chum, Midshipman Goldthwaite, secured another gun. The latter died from his injuries inside of two hours.

Crouse, frightfully wounded and badly buried, hearing cries for help, retraced his steps toward the turret. He took hold and helped to ease for the wounded seaman.

While he was gallantly helping in this work attention was called to his own deplorable condition. It was then he uttered the noble words that are carved on his monument.

"Never mind me. I am all right. Look after the other fellows." "If you will go to the newspaper files you will find the story of the hard ending of Midshipman James Crouse, who died from injuries received in an explosion in the turret of the battleship Oregon, while at target practice on Cape Cod bay.

Crouse was only nineteen. He was on his way to the gun in the turret. His classmate and chum, Midshipman Goldthwaite, secured another gun. The latter died from his injuries inside of two hours.

Crouse, frightfully wounded and badly buried, hearing cries for help, retraced his steps toward the turret. He took hold and helped to ease for the wounded seaman.

While he was gallantly helping in this work attention was called to his own deplorable condition. It was then he uttered the noble words that are carved on his monument.

"Never mind me. I am all right. Look after the other fellows." "If you will go to the newspaper files you will find the story of the hard ending of Midshipman James Crouse, who died from injuries received in an explosion in the turret of the battleship Oregon, while at target practice on Cape Cod bay.

Crouse was only nineteen. He was on his way to the gun in the turret. His classmate and chum, Midshipman Goldthwaite, secured another gun. The latter died from his injuries inside of two hours.

Crouse, frightfully wounded and badly buried, hearing cries for help, retraced his steps toward the turret. He took hold and helped to ease for the wounded seaman.

While he was gallantly helping in this work attention was called to his own deplorable condition. It was then he uttered the noble words that are carved on his monument.

"Never mind me. I am all right. Look after the other fellows." "If you will go to the newspaper files you will find the story of the hard ending of Midshipman James Crouse, who died from injuries received in an explosion in the turret of the battleship Oregon, while at target practice on Cape Cod bay.

Crouse was only nineteen. He was on his way to the gun in the turret. His classmate and chum, Midshipman Goldthwaite, secured another gun. The latter died from his injuries inside of two hours.

Crouse, frightfully wounded and badly buried, hearing cries for help, retraced his steps toward the turret. He took hold and helped to ease for the wounded seaman.

While he was gallantly helping in this work attention was called to his own deplorable condition. It was then he uttered the noble words that are carved on his monument.

"Never mind me. I am all right. Look after the other fellows." "If you will go to the newspaper files you will find the story of the hard ending of Midshipman James Crouse, who died from injuries received in an explosion in the turret of the battleship Oregon, while at target practice on Cape Cod bay.

Crouse was only nineteen. He was on his way to the gun in the turret. His classmate and chum, Midshipman Goldthwaite, secured another gun. The latter died from his injuries inside of two hours.

Crouse, frightfully wounded and badly buried, hearing cries for help, retraced his steps toward the turret. He took hold and helped to ease for the wounded seaman.

WHY OWN WEBSTER'S NEW INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY

THE MERRIAM WEBSTER

Because it defines over 600,000 words, more than ever before appeared in any dictionary.

Because it is the only dictionary with the new division of words into parts.

Because it is an encyclopedia in a single volume.

Because it is accepted by the courts, schools and libraries.

Because it is the only dictionary that has been revised in its own lifetime.

Because it is the only dictionary that has been revised in its own lifetime.

Because it is the only dictionary that has been revised in its own lifetime.

Because it is the only dictionary that has been revised in its own lifetime.

Because it is the only dictionary that has been revised in its own lifetime.

Because it is the only dictionary that has been revised in its own lifetime.

Because it is the only dictionary that has been revised in its own lifetime.

Because it is the only dictionary that has been revised in its own lifetime.

Because it is the only dictionary that has been revised in its own lifetime.

Because it is the only dictionary that has been revised in its own lifetime.

Because it is the only dictionary that has been revised in its own lifetime.

Because it is the only dictionary that has been revised in its own lifetime.

Because it is the only dictionary that has been revised in its own lifetime.

Because it is the only dictionary that has been revised in its own lifetime.

Because it is the only dictionary that has been revised in its own lifetime.

Because it is the only dictionary that has been revised in its own lifetime.

Because it is the only dictionary that has been revised in its own lifetime.

Because it is the only dictionary that has been revised in its own lifetime.

Because it is the only dictionary that has been revised in its own lifetime.

KITCHEN TEACHES FAREWELL

Remember, my girl, men have two sides.

Katy and Hilda and Lena work in your kitchen and in the kitchen of your neighbors.

If you want to learn something interesting ask the postmaster of your town how much money these housemaids send during the year to their kin across the water.

You will be surprised. The money goes by registered letter to the old country to be used in bringing father or mother or sister or brother to this country, or to pay doctor's or undertaker's bills, or to buy comforts for the old folks.

Is saving this money the girls do not regard their enforced frugality as a sacrifice, but as a duty.

Compare the illal solicitude of these strong minded, deep chested, rose faced lassies with the ungrateful, soft hearted, conduct of some native born girls.

Is there something in the American atmosphere that breeds insurrection under the roof-tree?

Certainly it is that the old time family discipline, respect for parental authority, reverence and ready obedience are lacking in many families today.

Maybe it is a logical reaction. Possibly the stern custom of a former generation was too severe. Possibly any way there is apparent nowadays a deplorable loosening of discipline, a disposition to push the parents into a corner, a disregard of parental authority.

In some places there is the open sneer at parental direction. Is it not so?

Who that reads the newspapers is not shocked at the frequent stories of ingratitude of children or of abandonment or abuse of parents? The easy manner of loosening family ties is appalling.

This is not rapid pessimism. It is God's truth. And it is serious because when the family is stricken society is hurt in its vitals.

Katy and Hilda and Lena—blow their tender hearts—when they come over the ocean to serve a prosperous people do not cease to love and remember the old folks at home.

Katy and Hilda and Lena are content to teach music and English and Genevieve of the front parlor some much needed lessons of filial devotion.

The Leading Reports. While New York leads the cities of the world in its foreign shipping, it is the only United States port in the first rank.

London, which held the first rank for generations, not only lost the lead a short time ago to the American metropolis, but has been crowded into third place by Antwerp, Nant in order come Hamburg, Hongkong, Liverpool, Montevideo, Marseilles, Singapore, Cardiff, Kobe, Genoa and Buenos Aires.

It is a fact worth noting that two South American cities are now among the leaders. The progress of Japan is evidenced by the appearance in the list of Kobe, its chief port, which has now a foreign commerce almost half as large as that of New York, although not a building was erected on the spot where the city now stands until years after Commodore Perry opened Japan to the commerce of the west—Harper's.

Where Every One Loves Gardens. In Japan every one loves gardens, knows gardens and makes gardens. The children amuse themselves with toy gardens instead of mud pies and model relief maps in the sands of school playgrounds.

In the recent war the soldiers, after long marches, amused themselves by making little home gardens before their tents. In more remote times emperors and shoguns abdicated and joined or established monasteries in Kyoto that they might the better meditate upon the eternal truths and enjoy gardens of their own designing. "Frisco, Frisco" and court ladies all observed the conventions and precluded the rules of landscape art. Of the making of gardens and illustrated garden books there was literally no end in the leisure centuries before the restoration—Eliza Husman Scidmore in Century.

Papa's Resolutions. "I expect to be able in about five years to retire and live on the interest of my investments."

"That's fine. But I didn't know you were making investments. What are they?" "I haven't made any so far, but I have three very beautiful daughters growing up."—Chicago Record-Herald.

New Girl Fell. A precocious child who had been attending one of the public kindergarten fell from a ladder. Her mother caught her up from the ground in terror, exclaiming:

"Oh, darling, how did you fall?" "Vertically," replied the child, with out a second's hesitation—Battie.

Omer Overlooked This Idea. The ancient Medes and Persians had their laws. And history with its statistics overawes. But woman has a law that's all supreme. And her law is in one word—"Be cause."

A Logical Deduction. Father—How old are you, Sarah? Can you tell the lady? Sarah—I am four years old. Father—When will you be five? Do you know? Sarah—I don't know; when I'm through being four, I suppose.—National Monthly.

Expert Testimony. "I don't see why you women always want a house full of closets," remarked Orabshaw to his wife. "I know, dad," replied little Joanne, "speaking up." "So you can always have a new place to hide the jam."—New York Times.

Mildred's Bonnet. My bonnet lies over the ocean. My bonnet lies over the sea. For you see, it's the latest creation And hasn't yet come from Paris.

THE OBSERVER

Every Day in the Year

RECEIVES THE LARGEST TELEGRAPHIC NEWS SERVICE DELIVERED TO ANY PAPER BETWEEN WASHINGTON AND ATLANTA, AND ITS SPECIAL SERVICE IS THE GREATEST EVER HANDED BY A NORTH CAROLINA PAPER.

SEND FOR SAMPLE COPIES. Address: CALDWELL & TOMPKINS, PUBLISHERS.

THE OBSERVER—Is largely made up of original matter and is up-to-date in all departments and contains many special features.

THE SUNDAY OBSERVER—Is largely made up of original matter and is up-to-date in all departments and contains many special features.

THE OBSERVER—Is largely made up of original matter and is up-to-date in all departments and contains many special features.

THE OBSERVER—Is largely made up of original matter and is up-to-date in all departments and contains many special features.

THE OBSERVER—Is largely made up of original matter and is up-to-date in all departments and contains many special features.

THE OBSERVER—Is largely made up of original matter and is up-to-date in all departments and contains many special features.

THE OBSERVER—Is largely made up of original matter and is up-to-date in all departments and contains many special features.

THE OBSERVER—Is largely made up of original matter and is up-to-date in all departments and contains many special features.

THE OBSERVER—Is largely made up of original matter and is up-to-date in all departments and contains many special features.

THE OBSERVER—Is largely made up of original matter and is up-to-date in all departments and contains many special features.

THE OBSERVER—Is largely made up of original matter and is up-to-date in all departments and contains many special features.

THE OBSERVER—Is largely made up of original matter and is up-to-date in all departments and contains many special features.

THE OBSERVER—Is largely made up of original matter and is up-to-date in all departments and contains many special features.

THE OBSERVER—Is largely made up of original matter and is up-to-date in all departments and contains many special features.

THE OBSERVER—Is largely made up of original matter and is up-to-date in all departments and contains many special features.

THE OBSERVER—Is largely made up of original matter and is up-to-date in all departments and contains many special features.

THE OBSERVER—Is largely made up of original matter and is up-to-date in all departments and contains many special features.

THE OBSERVER—Is largely made up of original matter and is up-to-date in all departments and contains many special features.

THE OBSERVER—Is largely made up of original matter and is up-to-date in all departments and contains many special features.

THE OBSERVER—Is largely made up of original matter and is up-to-date in all departments and contains many special features.

THE OBSERVER—Is largely made up of original matter and is up-to-date in all departments and contains many special features.

THE OBSERVER—Is largely made up of original matter and is up-to-date in all departments and contains many special features.

THE OBSERVER—Is largely made up of original matter and is up-to-date in all departments and contains many special features.