VERY SIGNIFICANT.

A Poll Shows Many Republicans Will Vote For Wilson and Marshall.

The most significant thing about the National Campaign in its early stages is the fact that hundreds of thousands of Republicans, who never before voted the Democratic ticket, have voluntarily written Governor Wilson and Governor Marshall that they intend this year to vote the Democratic ticket.

Some days ago, when in Indianapolis, Governor Marshall told me that since the Convention he had been deluged with letters of congratulation and voluntary pledges of support, and that more than twenty-five per cent. of his correspondents stated that they were Republicans, but they thought the time had come for a change in the National administration, and that they intended to support the ticket nominated at Baltimore.

The special newspaper articles published, containing a few extracts from letters written to Governor Wilson at Sea Girt, show that the views of the correspondents of the candidates for President duplicate those of the candidate for Vice-President, and that a very large proportion of letters offering support are from Republicans.

The correspondence that comes to Chairman McCombs and the Democratic Headquarters in New York is of the same tenor and it comes from all parts of the country, showing that the Democratic candidates appeal both to the popular imagination and to the popular confidence; and that, while the Democrats are united in the support of the Democratic ticket, as never before in the life of the younger men of the party, and the independent vote is almost solid for Wilson and Marshall, there is a break in the Republican vote, heretofore unknown in the history of that party.

In 1896 there was a bolt in the Republican party of the Silver Republicans, but that bolt did not appreciably affect any State east of the Mississippi River and as the result showed was not large enough to change the result in any State west of the Mississippi, with few exceptions.

This year the Republican party is split and Republicans will divide between Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt, that is, those who intend to vote for Wilson and Marshall; and there are many, who, while preferring not openly to join the Democratic organization, will furnish a vote which, added to the Democratic vote of 1908, will put the Democratic candidate in the White House.

As one of many evidences of the Republican trend to Wilson and Marshall, the following editorial from the New York Press, giving the result of a poll among Republicans, is illuminating:

"Last week the editor of the New York Press sent private letters to Republican voters, selected at random from readers on its small subscription lists and not living in New York City or other large cities. The main part of the letter was:

"For which of the following do you intend to vote: Taft, Wilson, Roosevelt?"

"Are you in favor of the plan proposed by the former President of breaking up the present Republican party and forming a new one? For whom did you vote in 1908?"

"Of the 1,000 first replying virtually all voted for Mr. Taft four years ago. Of the 1,000 replying 443 said they would vote for Mr. Taft this year, 335 for Mr. Roosevelt, 133 for Mr. Wilson and 91 said they would not vote at all or were undecided.

"Most of those declaring they would vote for Mr. Wilson gave as their reason their disgust with Republican factionalism. Some were voting for him as the surest way, in their judgment, to defeat the Colonel and prevent him from breaking up the Republican party. Some of those in the not-voting class said they might vote for Mr. Taft or Mr. Wilson if it became necessary, in their judgment, to do this to prevent the Colonel from breaking up their party. Some of those recording themselves for Mr. Taft lamented his nomination, but would vote for him to prevent the Colonel from breaking up their party.

"We arrange those 1,000 voters in table:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Count. Taft 443, Roosevelt 335, Wilson 132, Not voting 91.

"Further comment on the figures and the percentages which they make seems unnecessary."

Rev. John C. Hocutt Dies Suddenly.

Last week we mentioned the illness of Rev. Mr. Hocutt; but he had improved and was able to leave his room. Last Sunday morning about 10 o'clock he was taken suddenly ill and passed away in a few minutes. Mr. Hocutt came to Alamance about twenty years ago and resided at Burlington as pastor of the Baptist church. Later he came to Graham and was pastor of the Baptist church here for five years. While serving the above churches he also served the churches at Haw River and Swopeville. He went from here to Chapel Hill where he lived twelve years, continuing preaching, and in that time was Supt. of Schools of Orange county for three years. Last Fall the Baptist church here was happy in securing his return, and the entire community was delighted to have him in our midst again. At the time of his death he was also serving the church at Haw River and the congregation in West Burlington for whom plans and arrangements to build a church had just been perfected. For the latter he left an uncompleted bill of materials made out the day preceding his first illness. Hence it will be seen that he literally died in the harness.

Mr. Hocutt was born in Johnston county Nov. 7th, 1849, and was 62 years, 8 mos. and 27 days old at the time of his death. He attended school at Wake Forest, and since he has spent his life doing good and for the uplift of mankind. Both as a man and a pastor he was universal loved and esteemed, and everyone who knew him feels his death a personal loss.

The funeral was conducted from the Baptist church Monday afternoon by Rev. S. L. Morgan, assisted by Revs. Dr. Murray, J. W. Goodman of Hawfields, Satterfield of Burlington, and Edwards of Graham, and the remains were laid to rest in Lincoln Cemetery with Masonic honors. A large concourse of friends attended the services.

He is survived by his widow, Mr. John B. Hocutt of Chapel Hill, Mrs. Robt. L. Holmes, Mrs. M. G. Flanagan and Miss Naomi Hocutt of Graham and Mrs. J. P. Goodman of Augusta, Ga., all of whom were present at the funeral.

Among those present at the funeral from a distance were Mr. J. P. Goodman of Augusta, Ga., Mr. Sam Sutt of Durham, brother of Mr. Hocutt, Mr. and Mrs. Will Lyon of Durham, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Roach of Hillsboro, Mrs. A. L. Baia of Greensboro, Dr. Lewis Webb, Mrs. F. C. Smith, Messrs. S. W. Andrews, J. W. Neville, Clarence Richards, Dallas Pickard, J. W.
