The rights of way for the pole line have been se-cured and the polls have arrived will return Saturday. cured and the polls have arrived ready to be placed to carry the current to Haw River and Mebane -Some one reported to this ribe that he saw it snowing nesday morning. We did not see it and are not worrying about it, because about this time of the year we prefer the sight of more and agreeable things, such as blooming flowers, green garden truck and a not-too-rap-idly-diminishing wood pile.

-The Christian Sun, which has been published in Greensboro for several years, has been moved to Blon College, and was printed last Week by the Southern Christian Week by the Southern Christian Goodman of Hawfields and Mr. Publishing Company, which has erected a hamdsome publishing house and installed a new printing outfit. The paper has been enlarged and very much improved in appearance and is a credit to the publishers and to the church,

Graham Public School Closes May 8th-Hon. T. W. Bickett Delivers

On Thursday, May 8th, the clos-ing exercises of Graham Public School will take place. At night the annual address will be deliv-ered by Hon. T. W. Bickett, At-torney General of the State. The school is fortunate in securing this distinguished gentleman for that occasion. The people of this com-munity are fortunate, also in that they have the privilege and pleas-ure of having one of the State's gregation.
