TARIFF BILL PASSES HOUSE.

The Underwood tariff bill, pro-claimed by the Democratic party as the answer to its platform pledges to revise the tariff downward, was passed by the House late to-day. The vote was 281 to 139, five Democrats voting again ing for it. Four Progressive supported the bill and 14 oppose supported the bill and 14 oppose it, while one independent Progre sive joined with the majority.

When Speaker Clark announce the vote in low tones that revealed his satisfaction in the arrival of the day he had long-sought, exuberant Democrats hoisted a stuffed Democratic donkey over the heads of their colleagues in the rear of the chamber, a faint ripple of applaus followed and the gavel fell on the first chapter in the history of President Wilson's extra session of Congress. With the bill, after a month's consideration, on its way to the Senate there was a rush of Representatives for their homes. In the House adjustment at In the House adjustment in the the House adjournment will be taken three days at a time, be-ginning next week until June 1st. Tomorrow the tariff fight shifts from the House with its over-whelming Democratic majority, to the Senate, where the party's slim majority of six already has been reduced to four, as far as this bill is concerned. Unless Senators familiar with the progress of such legislation are mistaken there is little or no prospect of a final vote on the bill before August 1st.

The bill's passage through the Senate will be fought at every step by a Republican organizaion, apparently entirely in accord on this subject, and apparently entirely willing to spend unlimited Republicans who have canvassed those Democrats who look at all doubtful, agreed tonight that they had but little hope of the Republicans are conthat they had but little hope of success. The Republicans are convinced that President Wilson will carry the day and the party platform will be followed, and that with the exception of the two Senators from Louisiana they cannot count upon a single vote.
