Last Thursday afternoon Sheriff R. N. Cook and Deputy C. D. Story swooped down on a boozenest about a mile northof Glence, captured two barrels, three cases a two-horse wagon and team. John Dickens and John Bibert were taken with the layout. Dickens gave bond in the num of $500 for his appearance at court and Talbert is in jail in default of bond. The Sheriff got information of the whereabouts of the "moonshiners" and their cargo and moved quickly and at the ight time. If the Sheriff were urnished with reliable information he would do his part in treaking up the illicit sale of whiskey in the county.
