wet feet are just as bad for hens as they are for folks. The hen that lays 150 eggs in a year is doing mighty good laying. For the city market there is noth-ing between the broiler and romter. Every week there should be a fresh of clean, fine earth in the dus box. No wonder some men's hens never weigh anything. The lice have just about carried them away. Nobody wants to buy a dirty egg, and the only way to keep the eggs clean is to keep the nests clean. Middlings and commeal wet with skim milk make a fine forcing feed for culk that are to be marked.
