Chapel Hill Letter.

Cor. of The Gleaner.

Chapel Hill Dec. 2.-The activties of the Community Club of Chapel Hill are branching in sun-dry directions looking to the civc betterment of the village and its surrounding rural communities. Subscriptions are being raised for the equipping and furnishing of a so-called "rest room" for women from the county who come to Chapel Hill for a day's shopping or maybe for a day's pleasure. The room being furnished is to amply accommodate the daily inof women shoppers from the rural communities and as implied by its homely name, is to be a rest room as well as a community home for the several vicinities of the county. Another venture, of recent date, as advanced by the Community Club is the concentrat-ing of interest for the organization of a tomato canning club.
