Express Office Broken Into.

Last Sunday night after midnight, supposed to be about two o'clock, the Express office here was broken into by trimming the out and lifting out a pane or two of glass. Several jugs of soft drinks appeared to have been sampled and recorked and set carefully out of the way. Evidently real booze was the object in view, for about four gallons appeared to be missing.

Postmaster Recommended For Gra

on Monday Hon. Chas. M. Sted-man recommended to the President the appointment of Mr. John M. McCracken as postmaster for Graham. While Mr. McCracken had a strong competitor in Mr. Chas. C. Thompson, no hitch is anticipated in the confirmation. Mr. McCracken will succeed the present postmaster, Mr. Heenan Hughes, whose term expires in the early part of next year. Mr. McCracken says it is his ambition to the best postmaster Graham ever had. He has a genius for detail work, such as make up a postmaster's duties, and it is confidently believed he will do his very best to give the patrons of the office the best service at his command. His friends on all sides are congratulating him on his success in winning the prize.

Killed at Piedmont Railway & Electric Co.'s Power Plant.

tric Co.'s Power Plant.

Last Thursday afternoon about 5 o'clock a failing brick, struck Rudy Long, colored, on the back of the head about the base of the brain, knockinghim senseless. He inver regained consciousness and gied about 11 o'clock that night. He and one or two others were at work at the bottom of the elevashaft, shoveling in a stooping position when several brick fell from the elevator above. None of the others received any injury. This was at the Piedmont & Electric Co.'s big electric power plant, on the line between Graham and Burtlington, now nearing completion. Up to this though a large number of men have been at work for several months, there' had been no accident of a serious character. Rudy Long was a hard working, reliable hand.

Popular Young Couple Wed.

The Danville (Va.) Bee of Nov. 29th, 1913, contains the following notice of the marriage of the daughter of Mr. M. L. King of The Gleaner office force:

"On Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. W. Scarce, on Worsham street, occurred the marriage of the strains of a beautiful wedding minister, Rev. A. F. DeGafferelly, of the Christian church. Miss Loss Clutter, sister of the groom, acted as bridesimaid. The bride leaning on the arm of the groom, acted as bridesimaid. The bride leaning on the arm of the groom came last. The room was tastilly decorated with beautiful ferns and other pretty plants. The ceremony was short, and very impressive. The bride was attired in a neat blue traveling suit with hat and gloves corresponding. After numerous congratulations had been showered upon the bride and groom they left on the Richmond train for their suture home at West Point, Va. Both the young people are well known in Danville, and will be greatly missed by *heir wide circle of friends, whose best wishes accompany them."
