LIGHT PROPOSITION AGAIN.

Last week The Gleaner had omewhat to say about the town of Graham taking action looking 11, tobacco 9, livery 8, journal-to the purchase of the Sellars Mill property, to be sold next Monday, 4, cotton buying 4, jewelry 4, hofor the purpose of having its own may not appeal to some, but one who thinks about it will readily conclude that by water power electricity can be generated more cheaply than in any other way, and religious doctrines find favor else why so many water power developments for this purpose.

Graham should not stand in her own light in this matter and lose her opportunity. This property will never sell cheaper than it will be sold next Monday.

Let the town be wise before

The Republican party machine was so badly demolished last year that the leaders deem it in great need of repair, hence a meeting is called for this week to formulate a new platform and otherwise get in shape for another campaign.

Negro Boy Run Over by Motor Truck.

Monday morning the Swepson ville truck was returning from the station with a load. Two negro boys, sons of Wallace Alston of Albright township, were beating a ride. The driver in his cab did not know they were on the truck. They attempted to get off about the fork of the road two miles south of this place. One about 17 years old, fell under the machine and was run over. One leg was broken and the flesh was almost literally peeled from one arm.
