The City that Huerta Rules.

Thus far at least, the wiley old Indian who claims to be the ruler of Mexico, has decidedly the better of his enemies. While they are roasting on the sun baked alkan "What a pity he finished." plains of the North or stewing in pestiferous fever breeding swamps around Vera Cruz, Huerta sits in one of the most delightful spots in the world. Mexico City is more than 7,600 feet above the level of the sea-more than twice as high Asheville. The sun is very hot in the middle of the day but the evenings and mornings are so coo that an overcoat is needful. H. H. Fyle, an English newspape

"It is a city with the most beautiful set-ting imaginable," says he. At a distance of a few miles it is surrounded by mountains, not high to be oppressive, as they are in Innspruck; near enough to give one a perpetually changing kaleidoscope of delight as one watches the effect of sun and night. SUNDAY SCHOOL GREAT PARADES

Lesson VI.—Second Quarter, For May 10, 1914.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES

Memory Verses, 8, 9—Golden Text Luke xvi, 10—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns. Our last lesson was concerning a substance in riotous living (Luke xv. 13)

his master's goods. We are all stewards of Him who giv-eth us life and breath and all things; in whom we live and move and have in whom we live and move and have our being; in whose hand our breath is and whose are all our ways; who giveth richly all things to enjoy. (Acts. xvil, 25, 28; Dnn. v. 23; I Tim. vi. 17). We are either good stewards, using His gifts for others as well as ourselves, or we are selfish, using all things for ourselves only. The rich man of next week's lesson, we will find, was unbelieving and selfish. The rich man of chapter xil, 16-20, was thoroughly selfish and fool-ish. The rich young ruler of chapter xviii. 23. was also more interes xviii. 23, was also more increased with sirches than in a proper use of them, and in that connection our Lord said that riches sometimes hindered a man from entering the kingdom. It is not always so, for Zaccheus was rich and of Arimathea (Luke xix, 2, 9; vi, 10, 11). This present world or age is evil, it lieth in the wicked one, the devil is its god, its friendship is en-mity with God, we are not to be con-formed to it, for we are not of it (Gal. I, 4: I John v, 19: II Cor. Iv, 4: Jas. iv. 4; Rom. xii, 2; John xvii, 14, 16). There 4; Rom. XII, 2; John XVII, 4; 10). Therefore we cannot serve God and Mammon, or riches, but we can make good use of Mammon and use this world without abusing it (verses 9, 13).

As to this unjust steward whom our Lord uses as an illustration, he was found guilty of defrauding his em-

Lord uses as an illustration, he was found guilty of defrauding his em-ployer and was told that he must lose his situation. He at once set about providing for himself when he would be no longer steward by cutting down the indebtedness of all his lord's debtors. indebtedness of all his lord's debtors, thus laying them under obligation to him to befriend him when he would have no employment. He was such a dishonest fellow that he did not care how much he robbed his master if he could only provide for himself. His master commended his shrewdness in thus providing for his future, even though it was at further cost to himself. Our Lord did not speak well of him, for He would not justify a wrong transaction, but He did say that this bad man was wiser in his way than transaction, but He did say that this bad man was wiser in his way than those who made no provision for their future in the world to come.

I have often been asked how our Lord could commend this unjust man and his sin. Our Lord did not commend him; it was his own lord, or mas-ter, who told him, virtually, that he was a clever rascal in providing for hi-future in this fraudulent way. Our Lord said to His disciples that it would be well to use all present opportunities in their reach with reference to the future that many might welcome them in the kingdom. All believers are pit in trust with the gospel and with the talents and pounds, and all are stewards of the manifold grace of God, and some are stewards of the mysteries of God, all have received the spirit of profit withal (I Thess. II, 4; Matt. xxv; Luke xix; I Pet. iv. 10; I Cor. iv. 1; xil. 7, 11). We are debtors to every creature to give the gospel to all, and by going, or helping others to go, and thus win souls, we are gathering unto Him those who will welcome us in His Lord said to His disciples that it would thus win sous, we are gathering unto Him those who will welcome us in His kingdom, even though we may never have seen tuem face, to face on earth. Thus we cause joy in the presence of the angels now and great increase of the angels now and great increase of joy to ourselves in His kingdom.

We cannot remind you too often that there are no degrees in salvation, no one can be more saved than another or more safe at one time than another after Jesus Christ is truly received.

All who are in Christ are equally safe, and safe forever. But all saved ones are expected to serve the living and true God as He may direct, and every one shall receive his own reward according to his own labor (I Cor. iii, 8; Rev. xxii, 12; Luke siv, 14). The Pharises who were coverous or money lovers derided Him and His teachings, desiring the approval of men rather than the approval of God, and they violently opposed the King and the Hev. xxii, 12; Luke xiv, 14. The Pharisees who were covetous or money lovers derided Him and His teachings, desiring the approval of God, and they violently opposed the King and the kingdom until they finally killed Him. saying, "We have no king but Caesar." Those who prefer the friendship of this world are called adulterers (Jas. iv, 4). The true disciple is married to the Lord to bring forth fruit unto God (Riom, vii, 4), but israel was an empty vine bringing forth fruit unto himself, a degenerate plant of a strange vine bearing wild grapes (Hos. x, 1; Jer. ii, 21; Iss. v, 2).

That which men esteem and which God esteems are as far separate as bell and heaven, and yet the great crowd. Easily professing Christians included, prefer the ways of man and the praise of men because the god of this world hath blinded their minds. Let us con sider well if we are faithful to the strust committed to us, desiring in all things the approval of our Lord, whose stewards we are, and remembering that we must give an account to Him of our stewardship.

AT THE REUNION

Maids and Sponsors To Open Series On Morning Of the First Day

lone of Veterans and Military Organizations Second Day, While the Veterans Parade Last Day.

Jacksonville. Fla.-With the near approach of May 6, interest in the 24th annual reunion of the United Sons of Confederate Veterans, centers around the three-parades, one each nitely decided that the first parade will be that of the maids and sponsors, of May 6.

This parade will be confined to au tomobiles and carriages and all sponsors and maids of honor will be admitted to it. The Jacksonville Reunion Association has decided that, onsors will be the finest spectacle of the kind ever seen in the southern states. The route will be several miles long and passes through the principal residence and business sections of the Joseph of Arimsthea (Luke xix, 2, 9; Matt. xxvii, 57), as also were Abraham. Isnac and Jacob, David and others.

Money is not necessarily evil, but it is written, "The love of money is the root of all evil," and it is better to follow after righteousiness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness (1 Tim. vi, 10, 11). ### PAVED HIGHWAYS REUNION TRAVELS

Jacksonville Has Many High Class Roads to Points of Interest

Trips to Be Taken Over Them in Au confederates May 6, 7, 8.

Jacksonville, Fla., April.—It is saf Jacksonville, Fia., April—It is saic to say that hundreds, and possibly thousands, of visitors to Jacksonville during the week of the great Reunion of Confederate Veterans and Sons of Veterans, will make the trip from their homes in automobiles. Numerous inquiries have been received from ous inquiries have been received from all parts of the country concerning road conditions, and especially in regard to the practicability of reaching other points in Florida by automobile trips from Jacksonville.

For the information of auto owners, desirque of bringing their cars to Jacksonville at the time of the Reunion, attention is called to the fact that the city license books show that that the city license books show that there are over 2,000 licensed automo-biles in the city of Jacksonville alone, and during the past winter season more than 2,500 motor-driven vehicles more than z,oou motor-driven venices have passed through Jacksonville en route to various places on the Florida peninsula. Unless there were fairly good roads, leading from Jacksonville to other sections of the State, there would not have been one-tenth as many cars in Florida this season, and the home people of Jacksonville would not have invested so heavily in motor Duval county, of which Jacksonville is the county seat, was among the first of the Florida counties to issue road improvement bonds and to begin the paving of its highways with vitrified paving of its highways with visitifed paving brick and concrete. With a population of only 75,000 in 1909, this county insued road improvement bonds that year to the amount of $1,000,000, and it was provided that not more than $250,000 was to be expended in road construction each year for four years. The bonds were sold at a handsome premium and the money has all been expended on the roads of the county with a result that this has all been expended on the roads of the county, with a result that this county now has some of the very best in the South, and these foads are a joy to the joyrider and to all persons who use them. But this is not all; for the Board of County Commissioners is at the pres-ent time working up interest in a proposition to issue from $2,000,000 to $5,000,000 additional road improve-ment bonds and construct a system of paved roads and highways throughout the county of Duval that will be a model for all sections of the country. Jacksonville is only seventeen miles in a direct line from the Atlantic Ocean, where there is one of the finest beaches in the world, affording a speed-twenty miles in length. Here is the ideal automobile course and it is vis-ited by thousands of cars every year. From the city to the seashore the From the city to the seashore the county has constructed a magnificent boulevard, paved with vitrified brick and with concrete for the entire distance. Hundreds of cars traverse this Atlantic Boulevard, as it is known, daily, and during the Reunion many thousands of visitors will make the trip by auto to the beach. Once on the seashore they will find much to interest them. Surf bathing will be at its best during the Reunion week and many visitors from interior points, who have never before had the oppor-tunity to plunge into the big breakers of Old Ocean, will find the experience a novel and delightful one. From Jacksonville to St. Augustine the distance by auto is 38 miles and the trip is easily made in two hours. In fact, the record for the trip is one hour and nihe minutes, but that is al-hour and nine minutes, but that is almost too fast for a trip to the oldest city in the United States.

The road from South Jacksonville, on the opposite side of the majestic St. Johns river from the Reunion city, is paved with shell for nine miles and the going is good. Then comes six miles of brick paving over which the core saitly align align. The part form cars fairly skim along. The next fou miles, to the Duval county line, have not yet been paved, but a temporary surface of shavings has been provid-ed. From the county line to St. Au-gustine, a distance of 18 miles, the road is not yet paved but shell has been placed in the wheel ruts and good time can be made by the average car. Still another attractive trip, on the south side of the St. Johns river, is that to Mandarin, a pretty little village on the banks of the river, about fitteen miles from the city. This road is well paved with shell for the entire distance and passes through some very pretty orange groves, which in themselves are an attraction to all. At Mandarin there are a number of attractive homes, surrounded by pret. outh side of the St. Johns river, is at mandarin there are a number of attractive homes, surrounded by pret-ty gardens, groves and farms. This village is the site of the former home of the late Mrs. Harriett Beecher Stowe, the author of "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

The city of Jacksonville has sixty miles of paved streets and contracts are now outstanding for several additional miles, work on which will start immediately after the reunion, as it is the desire of the city authorities not to have the streets torn up while the visitors are here.

Sight-seeing automobiles are numerous in Jacksonville every winter and this year several of the large care will remain over until after the reunion.

BLACK-DRAUGHT Liver Medicine

The reputation of this oil, reliable medicine, for constipation, indigestion and liver trouble, is firmly established. It does not imitate other medicines. It is better than others, or it would not be the favorite liver powder, with a larger sale that all others combined.
