of City's Refuse Carted Away While Town Is Asleep-Specially Trained Men Look After Asphalt. Regular Force of Nearly a Thousand

With almost every city and town in the United States preparing for its spring cleaning, attention has been attracted to the methods of cleaning house adopted by the important cities of Europe.

In no European town perhaps are the methods more interesting than in the thriving German city of Hamburg, where carefully trained children help to keep the city beautiful. Writing from that place, United States Consul Robert P. Skinner says that the mayor of one of the large cities of Ohio who visited Hamburg was much impressed with the important part performed by the children in keeping the city clean. He departed from the city, Mr. Skinner says, convinced that the cleaning of streets and sidewalks in Germany is a much lighter task than in cities of the same size in the United States because of the orderly habits of the people themselves.

"Suction street sweeping devices," continues Mr. Skinner, "are practically unknown in Germany. Hamburg itself owns horse drawn sweepers only. although for about nine months two electric motor sweepers have been in use. These, however, do not yet belong to the city and are being employed experimentally. They have not given satisfaction and have been under repair more than three months. These motor driven sweepers fall to work well in this city because the pave-ments, as a rule, are not very smooth, and the mechanism of the sweepers is deranged by the shaking it receives. Recently the front wheels of these sweepers have been provided with rub-ber tires, and they have worked more satisfactorily.

Cleans 1,290 Streets.

"The Hamburg street cleaning de-partment cleans and when necessary pairs, maintains relief stations, removes dust, garbage and waste matter generally from streets, houses, wharves, ships and markets and operates also a garbage burning plant. At present the department cleans 1,200 streets, with their adjacent sidewalks, having a length of 291.4 miles. The roadways cleaned cover fully 5,656,970 square yards and the sidewalks about 4,177,990 square yards. The work is carried on under the supervision of twelve superintending establishments Thirty main thoroughfares are cleaned six times weekly at night by means of rotary brooms and all other streets, with few exceptions, twice weekly. In the center of the city the streets are also cleaned six times weekly during the day and in other parts of the city four times weekly during the day.

"Asphalt street surfaces require more attention than others, as they be-come slippery and are looked after by specially trained men. They are swept and drenched with water and in icy weather are sprinkled with pebbles. Of late complaints have been made by the owners of motorcars that these pebbles damage the tires of their vehicles, so that now this material is strewn only when strictly necessary. The peb-bles used are mud free and from onefifth to two-fifths inch in diameter. In 1910 865.85 cubic yards of these peb-bles were utilized. The Hamburg street cleaning department owns 50 cleantreaming department owns and creaming machines, 54 snowplows, 101 water wagons, 100 garbage carts for waste from private houses, 60 garbage carts for waste from ships, quays, etc., 850 snow wheelbarrows and 321 garbage wheelbarrows at midnight and "Nitcht work begins at midnight and

These posts are in charge of an inspector for day work and a subinspector for night work. The jurisdiction of each post is divided into ten subdivisions, so that in the event of emergency work can be taken up simultaneously at a moment's notice at 120 different points. Another squad follows the sweepers to heap up the dirt swept to the roadside, and finally carts and garbage wagons/follow. The night work never lasts more than eight hours. Householders are required to burn up all garbage possible and to store the rest in sheet fron cans with covers, which are deposited at the edge of the sidewalk twice a week, not before 9 p. m. Lesson IX.—Second Quarter, For May 31, 1914.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Luke xvii, 11-19.
Memory Verses, 17-19—Gelden Text, Luke xvii, 18—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

Before we consider the grateful Samaritan it will be helpful to look at the Whitsuntide lesson on the reveal-ing spirit in I Cor. II, 1-10. Whether it be the Old Testament or the New, the great truth stands that "the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God," but what a comfort it is that the believer has received the Spirit of God that he may know the things that are freely given of God. To the natural man who has not been To the natural man who has not been born again these things of God are all foolishness, for only the spiritual man can discern the things of the Spirit (I Cor. II, 11-14). The whole Bible has been written by the Spirit of God and is forever settled in heaven (II Tim. fit, 16; Ps. cvix, 89), so that it may truly be said to be the Spirit's Bible copyrighted in heaven. He therein tells us of the living and true God, His love for the lost, His great salvation. His coming kingdom and glory. He also tells us of the devil as the great enemy of God and man, the father of enemy of God and man, the father of lies, the murderer, the god of this world, who will to the last make war with the Lord and the saints, but who will finally be sent to the lake of fire

As to the inability of the wisdom of this world to grasp things spiritual. consider the revelations of God given to the kings of Egypt and Babylon. the utter helplessness of all the wise men of those lands to grapple with them, and the ease with which Joseph and Daniel, men of God filled with the Spirit of God, solved every difficulty. The Spirit is ever ready to convince of sin and lead the sinner to Jesus Christ, the Saviour. Then by His word He gives assurance of salvation, then makes the body of the believer Illis temple, revealing Christ to him and through him and working in him all orders to through him and working in him and the good pleasure of the Lord unless hindered by pride, unbelief or self in some form of working.

No one was ever so filled with and controlled by the Holy Spirit as the Lord Jesus Christ, and in Him the Spirit wrought perfectly and unbludered (Acts x 38). It was so in some ed (Acts x, 38). 'It was so in som ed (Acts x, 38). It was so in some measure with prophets and apostles (Il Pet i, 21; Acts i, 8; ii, 4; iv, 31; v, 32; vi, 3; vii, 55; xiii, 2), and there is nothing we should so earnestly and constantly desire as to be filled with constantly desire as to be filled with constantly desire as to be mised with mistorical references. An and controlled by the Holy Spirit, remembering that nothing can ever be accomplished for God by the might or power or wisdom of man, but only by cloth, $2.00; gilt top, $2.50. By the Spirit of God (Zech. iv. 6).

Turning to the regular lesson, we see our Lord on His way to Jerusalem. whither His face was steadfastly set whither His face was steedfastly set, for the time was drawing near for Him to be received up, or, in other words, to be slain and be raised the third day (Luke ix, 22, 51). Although He and His messengers were sent primarily to the lost sheep of the house of Israel and not to gentiles or Samaritans (Matt. x, 5, 6; xv, 24), for the kingdom was for Israel, and He was series Messain, vet He was series. was Israel's Messiah, yet He was ever ready to bless all, and the time was drawing near when He would be re drawing near when He, would be rejected and crucified by the Jews, then the kingdom would be postponed and the gospel given to all the world to gather from thence in this age of "the mystery" his body, the church, to share with Him His kingdom and glory. As these ten lepers stood afar off and cried, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us," His heart of compassion went out to them, and He sent them to the priests, which implied that their request was granted and the their request was granted and the work was done (Luke v. 14: Matt. viii, 4). They evidently so understood it and started on their way, and as they went they were cleansed. One of the ten was so full of joy and gratitude that he at once turned back to thank his healer, and giorifying God with a loud voice fell on his face at Jesus feet and gave Him thanks. He was a Samaritan, which seems to imply that the rest were Jews. How pathetic seems our Lord's question, "Were seems our Lord's question, "Were there not ten cleansed, but where are the nine?" None to give glory to God save this stranger. Is it so still that He finds graftinde only in one out of ten? How is it with you? Leprosy was one of the embler

Israel's national condition before God. as when Moses' hand was made leprous and then healed (Ex. iv. 6, 7) Go would teach Moses and Pharaoh that, though Israel was in the sight of Egypt as unclean as a nation of lepers. He could easily cleanse and deliver them. The serpent sign was to teach Moses not to fear to approach the king of Egypt, and the water of the Nile turned to blood that God would hum-ble the pride of Egypt.
