North Carolina Sloppy With Opportunities; What Can the Press Do in Developing Them?

Recently, I said one day in the News and Observer that North Carolina is sloppy with opportunities. That expression has been brought back to me to set the pleasant task of pointing out some of those opportunities and telling how the newspaper men may help in the development of them.

Thirty-two years ago this summer I caught my first glimpse of North Carolina. At that time I had seen enough of the United States from Texas, Kansas and Minnesota, east to New England, to appreciate what development means and to recognize the opportunity for development where it appeared.

When you get your job started stay with it. Of all the remarks that have been made about me as long as I can remember the one that sticks in my mind is that of a man who said to me "That man never knows when to quit."
