

THE GLEANER

Graham, N. C., Dec. 24, 1914.

Postoffice Hours.

Office open 7:00 a. m. to 7:00 p. m.
Sunday 8:00 to 11:00 a. m. and 4:00 to 6:00 p. m.

J. M. McCracken, Postmaster.

Tomorrow is Christmas Day.

We wish one and all a merry, happy Christmas.

Until Tuesday it had been raining, cloudy, cold and disagreeable for several days. There was more sunshine yesterday and the day before than for a good many days.

Mrs. Elizabeth Waggoner, widow of Simon Waggoner, died at her home near Greensboro in Guilford county, on the 8th inst., aged about 82 years. She was the mother of 12 children, six of whom survive her. She remains were buried at Friends' church.

Graham Graded School closed last Friday. The school will resume on January 4th. The teachers, Miss Annie Greenfield of Kernersville, Miss Donnie Cobb of Morgantown, Miss Estelle Morrison of Concord, Misses Mary E. Elm City, Miss Josephine Thomas of Lenoir and Miss Etta Cutchins of Norwood, left for their respective homes for the holidays Friday evening and Saturday.

Dr. W. R. Goley, who recently moved from here to High Point, came down Tuesday, spent the night here as the guest of Mr. E. S. Parker, Jr., and left yesterday in his automobile, which he had not carried to his new home. His son, Willard, who is in school at Chapel Hill, came up from the University Tuesday, spent the night with Mr. C. W. Williams and accompanied his father home.

Mr. Eugene McCracken, who has been at Mt. Airy for the past few months, has accepted a position with the Gem Cotton Mills at Gibsonville as assistant superintendent. He left for Gibsonville yesterday. Mr. McCracken took the technical course at the A. and M. College, Raleigh, from which he graduated and since his graduation he has been in the textile business. He is a very competent young man.

The members of the County Bar met last Saturday and set a calendar for cases to be tried at the January Term of Superior Court, which begins on Monday, January 18th. The Term is a two weeks term, but cases were set for trial for one week only, so there will be only a one week Term. Jurors have been drawn for two weeks, but those drawn for the second week will not be needed and will not be required to attend, as there will be no court the second week.

In Honor of Those on Honor Roll.

Elsewhere we publish the names of those who won a place on the Honor Roll at the close of the half-session of Graham Graded School, ending last Friday. They not only got on the Honor Roll, but by a further recognition Mr. Robert L. Holmes, proprietor of the Mexican, generously gave each of them a ticket to the moving picture show.

Play at Bethany Church Saturday Night.

The Children's Aid Society of Bethany church will give a play in the Bethany School House on Saturday night, December 26th, at 7:30 o'clock. Admission 10c and 15c.

Protea II Coming.

Manager Robt L. Holmes of the "Mexican" is giving the people of Graham the best pictures that can be had. He now has for Saturday night, Dec. 26th, "Protea II." This is one of the best pictures shown in five reels, and you will enjoy them all. Don't forget this Special for Saturday night.

Sunday School Entertainments.

The Sunday Schools of the various churches have given or will give treats to the scholars as follows: Last night, W. C. Presbyterian, Baptist, Christian M. E. Church, and to-night New Providence.

Among the Sick.

Mrs. Ward has been sick for a few days.
Mr. W. F. R. Clapp, who has been quite sick is improving.
Mrs. J. M. McCracken, who has been at St. Leo's Hospital several weeks on account of an operation, was brought home Sunday. She continues to improve.

Home From School For Christmas.

The following, who have been away at school, are at home for the holidays, viz: Miss Mary Ruth Johnson, and Lucile Johnston, Elm College; Mary Walker, Minnie Long, Lorena Kernodle, Frances Moore, Duke McCracken, at State N. and I. College; Greensboro; Helen Simmons and Rebecca Scott, Peace Institute, Raleigh; and Mess. Steven Simmons, University of Pa., Philadelphia; Joseph Walker, Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va.; Daniel Bell, Roy Home-wood, Hazel Patterson, Coy Williams, Herbert Long, Graham Har- den, University of N. C.; J. D. Kernodle, Jr., Ga. School of Technology, Atlanta, Ga.

Four Arrests for Retailing and 100 Gallons Seized.

Tuesday night Chief W. H. Boswell and Deputy Sheriff A. W. Moser got busy and rounded up a bunch of retailers, namely, Jim Sid-ney for retailing, caught delivering; Robt Moore for retailing, caught selling; Walter and Henry Walker for retailing, information which led to binding them over; and Jim Capps charged with retail- ing, run away. All colored except the last named.

Happy Women

Plenty of Them in Graham, and Good Reason for It.

Wouldn't any woman be happy. After years of backache suffering, Days of misery, nights of unrest, The distress of urinary troubles, When she finds freedom. Many readers will profit by the following:
Mrs. W. Cates, Graham, N. C., says, "I was afflicted with kidney dis- ease in a very painful form for a long time. Often the pains in my back almost prostrated me. I could not make any sudden move without suffering intensely and I also had dizzy spells. The kidney secretions bothered me. Doctors' medicine did not help me to any extent. When I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills I got a supply and the results of their use were fine. My kidneys became normal and I was restored to better health than I had enjoyed for years."
Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Cates had. Foster-McBurn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Join Citizens Bank Christmas Savings Club.

Last Saturday the Citizens Bank of Graham opened a Christmas Sav- ings Club for Christmas 1915. Already a large number have joined. You can join at any time and pay for the weeks which have passed. The Club should reach several hun- dred. It is a fine practical illustra- tion of how small savings of a few pennies each week will amount to hundreds of dollars. For instance, 500 persons putting in a penny each to start with and increasing the de- posit a penny each succeeding week, at the end of 50 weeks—the total saving would amount to $6,375.00. That's a little fortune—a big for- tune to the great majority of people. Get the saving habit by joining the Club, and when another Christmas comes you will have money to buy and pay for what you get.

ALAMANCE FIRST.

Tomato Club Girls of Alamance Lead the Counties of the State in Quantity and Quality of Tinned Goods.

The following report will show something of the work done:

Last January the County Board of Education and the Board of County Commissioners each appropri- ated $100.00 for carrying on the Tomato Club Work in the county. The State gave $200, thus making $400.00 available for the work. Nine Tomato Clubs were organized in the county with the following agents in charge: Miss Flora Pat- ton in charge of the Clubs at Spring and Swepsonville, salary, $150.00; Miss Eunice Homewood in charge of Clubs at Friendship and Oakdale, salary, $50.00; Miss Mabel Moore in charge of Club at Saxapa- law, salary, $50.00; Miss Mary Mc- Vey in charge of Club at Sylvan, salary, $25.00; Mrs. M. J. McFarland in charge of Club at Mebane, sal- ary, $25.00; Miss J. M. White in charge of Club at Hawfield, salary, $25.00; Mrs. J. D. Ross in charge of Club at Maywood, salary $25.00; Miss Edna Reinhardt, Supervisor of all Clubs, salary $75.00.

In the 9 clubs 100 members were enrolled. Ninety per cent of the members enrolled have reported. These reports show cans and jars filled for market and home use to be as follows:
Number of containers filled, 55-165;
Vegetables sold fresh, $226.25.
Money value, $7,039.65.
Cost of cans and labor, $1,778.25.
Profits, $5,261.45.

The Champion Club of the entire State is the Maywood Club, super- vised by Mrs. J. D. Ross. This Club put up 10,000 0No. 3 tin cans, 1-840 glass jars, 100 gallons of vine- gar and sold $25.00 worth of fresh vegetables. These things represent $1,563.00 in cash values.
Twenty-five counties had ex- hibits in glass at the State Fair in Raleigh in October. Alamance won first honor on that exhibit. Twelve jars were taken by the representa- tive of the Washington Department of Agriculture, Washington, and to be photographed for bulletins. Of the 12 jars 7 went from Ala- mance.

The round-up meeting of the To- mato Club Girls was held in the court house in Graham, on Satur- day, December 12. At this meet- ing the county prizes were deliv- ered as follows:
For largest yields, 1st, gold bracelet, won by Miss Bettie Van Tapscott; 2nd, trio of geese, won by Miss Mary McCulloch; 3rd, Club pennant, won by Miss Lola Smith; 4th, Club pennant, won by Miss Julia McCulloch; 5th, box Club sta- tionery, won by Miss Georgia Isley; 6th, box of Club stationery, won by Miss Novella Isley; 7th, box of Club stationery, won by Miss Lalah Williams; 8th, box of Club station- ery, won by Miss Louise Cook.

For the most profitable yield, 1st, gold brooch, won by Mrs. Parks Moore; 2nd, Club pennant, won by Miss Vera McEane; 3rd, box of Club sta- tionery, won by Miss Rosa John- ston.
For the best history and booklet, 1st, gold locket, won by Miss Lissy Isley; 2nd, Club pennant, won by Miss Elizabeth Scott; 3rd, box Club stationery, won by Miss Maude Ross.

For greatest amount of canned products other than tomatoes, 1st, gold neck chain, won by Miss Mar- garet Homewood; 2nd, Club pen- nant, won by Miss Ina Evans; 3rd, box Club stationery, won by Miss Hattie Evans.
For best daily record book, 1st, $1.00, won by Miss Venia Lewis; 2nd, Club pennant, won by Miss Swannie Craton; 3rd, box Club sta- tionery, won by Miss Laura Mar- lette.

Every year Alamance county sends out of her borders $1,200,000 for food products alone. When we can surpass others in QUANTI- TY AND QUALITY, why do we not all join canning clubs? This $1,200,000 belongs to the farmers of Alamance county if they know how to claim it.

BOYS OF GREENSBORO LOAFING ON STREETS.
Judge James E. Boyd Charges Many Crimes to Neglect of Parents.
Greensboro News.
"I will fined them on the streets of Greensboro until the late hour of night," said Judge Boyd yesterday afternoon from his bench in United States Court in making an observa- tion on the case in which a boy who had been neglected from early childhood had got into trouble and was before the court. He was refer- ring to the youth from 9 to 10 years of age, up to 15 or 16, and upon the Greensboro parade as well as parents in general he charged the responsibility for neglect- edness and numerous crimes.
Judge Boyd declared his regret that the custom of former days of binding out certain youths for them to learn a trade to be paid for their services at the arrival at 21 years of age have been done away with. It was disposed of he said because it was regarded as a relic of barbarism, "but as for me, I think it is a mighty good cus- tom. I may be called an old fogy for saying so, but that's what I think about it."
Under the old custom when a young man was bound out the mas- ter made responsible for him, and cared for him while teaching the trade or calling.
The Judge charged many of the crimes of the kind due to neglected youth, and laid the blame on the parents. He called attention specifi- cally to the presence until late hours of the night of youth on the Greensboro streets, saying the pa- rents seem to think the duty of keeping them straight falls upon the police and the courts, which, as a matter of fact, is a great ob- stacle duty.

How the Boys are Waking Them Up.
Progressive Farmer.
Said a farmer to us the other day: "My boy made 126 bushels of corn on his prize acre this year, having sowed it in rye last fall, fol- lowed by six loads of stable ma- nure and 600 pounds of fertilizer. He has waked me up so I'll never be satisfied again with the low average of the night of yield. I know that I don't have to run all over the plantation to make a lit- tle corn." Incidentally, he has al- so learned a lesson about hand la- bor, for he has had to make it made without a hoe being put into the field. The land was simply well prepared and then cultivated five times.

Useful, Though a Blind Invalid.
Wilkesboro Hustler.
Blind, and an invalid for 30 of 48 years, that covered the span of his life Mr. W. S. Gilreath of Mo- ravian Falls township, died at the old homestead of the Gilreath fam- ily, Thursday, 3rd. He had been virtually blind for several years, and possessed a finely de- veloped mind. While a boy at the age of nine years Mr. Gilreath be- came afflicted with rheumatism, and from thence he attended school. At about the age of fifteen years his eyes failed him on account of studying too much it was thought, and he lost his sight entirely. He lived as others and remembered where everything on the farm was placed, and when these articles were desired Will could tell where they were. He invariably recognized any footstep, even of a horse pass- ing, if it was at all habitual.
