LOCAL NEWS. **********

-Capt. John R. Stockard of Albright township spent the first of week here as the guest of Mr. and day night for New York on business.

—Mr. W. Giles Mebane of Concord spent Sunday here visiting his sister, Mrs. E. S. Parker, Jr., Mr. Mr. Mebane is editor and manag rof the Concord Chronicle, of which he took charge recently. He is turning out a bright and newsy paper. He has many friends in Alamance who wish hin aboundat sneess.

The little park strips between the sidewalks and the paved streets, if set in grass, would give the streets a very pretty and attractive appearance. Some of the business men have commenced this kind of work in front of their places. If everyone would do so, it would not take long to fix it all, and would cost no one very much.

County Assessor.

County Assessor.

Capt. S. H. Webb of Oaks has been appointed County Tax Assessor. It is a hard place to fill, because it is impossible to please everybody, but he will discharge duties conscientiously regardless of consequences. He filled the place two years ago, and that he has been chosen again, is an endorsement that should be satisfactory.

Graham Chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy will give an entertainment on Friday night, April 23, This entertainment was to have been given on April 9, but was postponed. The ladies will have cream and home-made candy for sale. But the chief entertainment of the occasion will be a "spelling match" and the "Blue Back" will be the instrument to tast the spellers knowledge of orthography. Everybody is invited to come and enjoy the evening.

Town Convention Postponed.

On account of the revival services being held in the court house, the time for holding the town convention to nominate candidates for town officers has been postponed till Monday night, April 12th.

A meeting was held last Friday night and at that time it was determined to hold the convention on Friday night.

Being Turfed.

The Daughters of the Confederacy are having the mound around the Confederate Monument turfed. When the work is completed there will be a freshness about it that will be pleasing to the eyes and good to look upon.

The Friday Afternoon Bridge Club met with Mrs. Paul H. Norcross at 3:30, April 9th. Those present were Mesdames Edwin D. Scott, J. Barefoot, A. K. Hardee, John J. Henderson, Ernest Millner of Haw River, and Miss Blanch Scott. The visitors were Mrs. Victor Graves of New York and Mrs. L. Banks Williamson of Glencoe.

Track Team Going to Chapel Hill. The Track Team of Graham High School leave tomorrow for Chapel Hill to attend the State High School Track meet. They will be accom-panied by Supt. C. W. Rankin. The Graham boys went down last year and made an honorable record for themselves and their school. No less is expected of them this year, and, from reports, it is confidently believed they will do as well, or better, than last year.

The Colored Educational Rally.

The colored people of the county held their second annual educational rally on last Saturday in the court house. There was a good representation present, the court house being full. They had on exhibition credit to the colored teachers of the county. This work consisted large-ly of drawing, writing, cooking and sewing, baskets and chair caning. Two years ago this kind of work was introduced into the colored schools and they are making a good beginning along the line of useful arts and science.

The address of the day was made by one of their own race, Rev. J. S. Walker of the First Presbyterian by one of their own race, Rev. J. S. Walker of the First Presbyterian church, colored, of Greenboro, who is an Alamance boy. His address was considered the product of a master and his advice good and wholesome. He encouraged the colored people to aid themselves, saying that the making of a recole must be supported by the colored people to aid themselves, saying that the making of a recole must be that the making of a people must be done largely by themselves and their own endeavor.

The crowd was orderly and well

Baraca and Philathea Classes Urged to Send Delegates to the Conven-

The Baraca and Philathea Classes of our town and county are invited and urged to send delegates to the Fifth Annual Baraca and Philathea State Convention, to be held in Raleigh, beginning Thursday evening, April 22nd, and closing Sunday evening, April 22nd, and closing Sunday evening, April 25th. Every chartered class is entitled to two voting delegates each, and all others who wish to attend. The railroads will issue round-trip tickets, and several good homes are being reserved at $1.00 each per day, two in a All names, both of those who wanthomes reserved, and those who will stop with friends, should be sent at once to Miss Flossie A. Byrid. Greensboro, N. C.

Already nearly 400 have enrolled and this number will doubtless be more than doubled within the next few days not including the hundreds of visitors who will spend Sunday of the Convention in the Capital City.

Let Graham and Alamanee county be well represented in this great annual gathering of young men and women of the organized Bible Classes of the State. The program and all attractions of the Convention will be uplifting and inspiring.

Told by a Graham Man.

Here is a story of severe suffering that many people go through day by day without relief. But why endure it? Read Mr. Garrett's words and you will realize that much suffering does not have to be endured. Proof of merit like the following is what you have been lloking for.

W. W. Garrett, propr, restaurant, South Main St., Graham, N. C., says: "About a year ago I had a bad attack of kidney colic I suffered severely. I thought my back was broken and I was laid up for days at a time. I was unable to help myself. My kidneys were weak and caused me a lot of trouble. Doan's Kidney Pills did more for me than anything in the capital city.

Let Graham and Alamanee county be well represented in this great annual gathering of young men and women of the organized Bible Classes of the State. The program and all attractions of the Convention will be uplifting and inspiring.

A STORY OF SUFFERING

The Oneida Band that will furnish music for the County, Commencement, April 24 and the Preaching.

When it was announced a few weeks ago by Rev. J. F. Morgan, Pastor of the Graham Christian church that he would have Rev. Victor Lightbourne to conduct a series of evangelistic services, few, if any, here dreamed what was in store for the town and community, for none here had seen and heard him.

for none here had seen and hearthim.

Mr. Lightbourne is a native of Dover, Del., and the son of a leading minister of the Christian church of that city. Comparatively, he is a young man, and of most pleasing personality. From his conversion, a year and a half ago he has been preaching. Before he was a man of the world. When he took to up the cross, the change in his life was complete—a perfect revolution.

a man of the world. When he took up the cross, the change in his life was complete—a perfect revolution.

His first service was at the Christian church Thursday night, and since he has preached twice a day, in the afternoon and at night. At his first services the congregation was not large, but it has grown on each succeeding day. Monday night it was seen that larger accommodations must be secured for the growing attendance, and the large court room was secured, and now it is packed every night with eager listeners, who come from the nearby towns and the country around. Preachers and members of all the churches come and take part in the services—a revival unhampered by denominational lines. He paints pictures so vividly, and at times with such passionate eloquence that his congrega ion sits in breathless silence. And his discourses are so full of that applicable to one's self that one has no time for fitting it to the life or conduct of another. At each service he gives everyone something to take home to ponder over, that will not soon fade away.

Not only is he generously endowed in the use of language to express his thoughts, but he fascinates and charms his congregation with exquisitely sweet music upon the violin which he wields with the hand of a master. And we would not fail to mention Mrs. Lightbourne, who is here with her husband. She sings beautifully, sweetly, touchingly and soulfully.

Now that Mr. and Mrs. Lightbourne have made their home at Elon-College, it is hoped permanently, the people of this section will look forward to hearing him again.

This series of services is expected to close Sunday night, when Mr.

PARADE.

The parade will start at the Graded School Building and proceed down Main Street around the the Court House and back to the Baptist Church Grove. It is the purpose this year to make the parade larger than ever. The floats, the School floats, the Tomato Club floats, the Corn Club floats, the Music Floats—all sorts of floats the Corn Clubs. Tomato Clubs, Gradutes. Committeemen, Teachers, Children—fittle children, large children, county children, city children, all will be in one grand parade.

The Brass Bnd will lead. The Flots will follow the schools in their regular order. The new Main Street in Graham will be finished by the 2th, and it wil lmake a most excellent place for the parade. All Schools are asked to provide themselves with such banners as they like. Also such flags and other colors and uniforms. What should be an inspiring sight is the parade.

LITERARY ADDRESS.

The Literary Address will be made in the Baptist church grove PARADE.

The exhibition of school products will be shown in the One la Store Ruilding on Main Street. This is Ruilding on Main Street. This is a large and spacious room and will furnish a epiendid place for displaying samples of the year's work. Any school work may be placed on exhibition but we expect especially writing, drawing, composition, primary number work, cooking, sewing, baskets, boxes, maps, pictures, and reports. The exhibition should interest everyone. It istructs with samples of what has been done and what can be done. It is at the exhibition hall that we exchange ideas and learn from the best.
