Every druggist in Town—your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling off in the sale of clomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and peofectly safe and gives better results said a prominent local druggist. Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle costs 50s, and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back. Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant tasting purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling-fine, no bliousness, sick headache, acid stomash or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and naussated. Don't lose-a day's work. Take Dodson's Liver Tone instead and feel fine full of vigor and ambition. adv.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES. Lesson VI.-Fourth Quarter, For Nov. 7, 1915.

Text of the Lesson, II Kings xii, 4-15. Memory Verse, 9—Golden, Text, II Cor. ix, 7—Commentary Prepared by

Among the many things I do no, yet know there is this-why we should and some others. Both in our lesse that the mother of Joash was Zibiah Beersheba is "the well of the oath' when he went to Moriah with Isaac to offer him up, and to that home he brought him back as alive from the dead (Gen. xxii, 1-19). So Lam reminded that all blessing depends upon the death and resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ. It was a good thing for Joash that he had such a friend as Je-holada the priest, who must have been a remarkable man in many ways, living to be 130 years of age, so he must have been 100 or nearly so when he caused Joash to be proclaimed king, just about 100 years after the death

Joash did right in the sight of the Lord as long as he had Jeholada (or counselor, but the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in high places (verses 2, 3; II Chron. xxiv, 2, 3). We cannot think of Israel (whether the ten tribes or the two or the twelve) being right with God apart from a right relation to the pheroactic or themse, for the place of lation to the tabernacie or temple, fo lation to the tabernacie or temple, for those buildings stood for God in their midst (Ex. xxv, 8; I Kings vi, 12, 13). So we read that Joash was minded to repair the house of the Lord, which Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up (II Chron. xxiv, 4, 7). The great fact about the Lord Jesus, the true tabernacle and temple, was that He was God manifest in the flesh, Go was in Christ. The church, the body of Christ now being builded, is wholly for God. Each individual believer is a temple and should be wholly for God.
The repairs which Joash desired to make, like all work today, needed funds, and he thought of the tabernacle of Moses and of the willing offerings (II Chron, xxiv, 6), but he did not seem to remember that these will ing offerings were brought in, not sen for. He sent the priests and Levitee out to gather the necessary money, but the plan did not work, for after twen the plan and not work, or after twen-ty-three years the funds had not been gathered and the repairs not made (verses 48; II Chron. xxiv, 5-7). Then Jeholada the priest, the king agreeing put a chest, with a hole in the lid of it, beside the altar as one cometh into it, beside the altar as one cometh into the house of the Lord, and a proclama-tion was made through Judah and Jerusalem to bring in to the Lord the offering that Moses, the servant of God, had commanded Israel in the wil-derness. Then the princes and the people rejoiced and brought in day by day, and thus money was gathered in abundance (verses 7-10; II Chron. very 8-11.

xxiv, 8-11). Notice that the class to receive the offerings was placed beside the altar of burnt offering, the brazen altar, on which the lambs were offered morning which the lambs were offered morning and evening, typical of Golgotha and the one great sacrifice offered once for all. The one constraining motive in all offerings to the Lord must be the love of Christ, the Son of God, who loved the church and gave Himself for it; who loved me and give Himself for me; no duty about it, but just love constraining. Then notice that there was no further effort to raise the money—no personal appeals, no soliciting was no further effort to raise the mon-ey—no personal appeals, no soliciting from individuals, but all was brought in joyfully and willingly. Note care-fully Ex. xxxv. 21, 29; I Chron. xxix, 9, 17, and lay it to heart. On this prin-9, 17, and lay it to heart. On this principle I have received for home and foreign missions in the last twenty-five and a half years (up to July 1, 1914) over $750,000 and in the same way have seen for thirty-four years all current expenses of a congregation easily

The Lord God of Israel still liveth and is ready to hold strongly with hearts that are whole toward Him as it is written in II Chron. xyl, 9, margin. The money was given to the overseers of the work, and they laid to out to the The money was given to the overseers of the work, and they laid it out to the carpenters and builders that wrought upon the house of the Lord, but no reckoning was kept with the men to whom the money was given, for they dealt faithfully (verses 11-15; II Chron. xxiv, 12-14). This method of handling money could not be safely carried on in our day unless we could find some workmen as faithfully honest. There are such, but they are like whole hearted Christians-few and far between—or in very small bunches here and there. We would all do well to keep in mind the day when every one of us shall give account of himself to God (Rom. xiv, 12) and live new accordingly. The conduct, or, rather, the misconduct, of Jonsh after the death of Jeholada in listening to the princes of Judah and in leaving the house of the Lord God and worshiping idols and in refusing to listen to the prophets who were sent unto him is a sad and almost unbellevable record, or would be if we did not know how desperately wicked the human heart is. But what shall we say when we see Josah commanding to stone to death the son of Jeholada because he was reproved by him? (II Chron. xxiv, 20-22.) The Lord did look upon it (Matt. xxiii, 35).
