The Graham Choral Union at New Providence Sunday Night.

Those who failed to attend the Missionary Service at New Providence Christian church certainly did miss a musical treat. The occasion was at the time of the Mite Box opening—a contribution to foreign missions. The program had been prepared by Miss Clara Hughes and Miss Aggie Perry, both of whom are very much interested in missions. The two important features of the exercises were the play, "How Some Dollies Went as Missionaries," given by four little girls, and the music, which was given by the Graham Choral Union. The Union sang several selections of music, and Graham, I believe, has never had better music in any of her churches than was rendered by the Union at New Providence Sunday night. The Choral Union is composed of members of most of the churches in Graham, and to my way of thinking there is no more important organization among the people of Graham than this, and we feel sure that this organization will continue to increase in influence and power until all the churches in Graham will see marked improvement in their services.

We were indeed glad to have this Union honor us with its presence and we hope to have the singers with us again. J. F. MORGAN.

Special Service at New Providence Next Sunday.

Next Sunday, Oct. 31st, at 11:15 a. m. there will be a special service to the young people of Graham, at New Providence, by the Pastor, J. F. Morgan, and everybody, both old and young, are cordially invited to be present. Especially urged that every member of the church be present, as this will be the last service before the pastor will leave before he leaves for his new field in Norfolk, Va. The "farewell" sermon will be preached at the Graham church next Sunday morning at 11 a. m., and to the New Providence people next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

The new pastor of the Graham Christian churches, Rev. J. G. Truitt, will preach his first sermon on the Fourth Sunday in November. These churches are to be congratulated on their wise choice of a pastor. Bro. Truitt is a native of Rockingham county, N. C., and has made a splendid record in Elm College having won for himself the name "one of the best orators of Elm" while studying there. And Graham is fortunate in having this splendid young man as one of her pastors and become one of her spiritual leaders.

Resolutions of Respect.
Whereas, it has pleased the Almighty Supreme Chancellor of Heaven and earth, to call from our midst, our dear good brother, Geo. W. Long, who was called to his eternal reward, October 10, 1915, and

Whereas, our Lodge records with deep sorrow the death of one of its most beloved and esteemed members, be it therefore, resolved,
1st. That we bow in humble submission to the commands of our Supreme Chancellor, His love for our dear brother far surpassing that of ours.
2nd. That in the death of Bro. Long Graham Lodge No. 92, Knights of Pythias, has lost a brother whose life exemplified the full meaning of Pythianism in its truest sense.
3rd. That we extend our sincere sympathy to the wife and family of the deceased brother, Geo. W. Long, and to all the relatives and friends of the deceased in their sorrow and bereavement.

Resolutions of Sympathy.
Whereas, God in his wise and loving providence, removed from our class and his home, our esteemed and beloved brother, Dr. Geo. W. Long, be it therefore, resolved,
1st. That the Brotherhood Class of Graham Presbyterian Sunday School hereby express its deep sorrow at its great loss and its sincere sympathy with the bereaved relatives of the deceased in their sore bereavement.
2nd. How sheer the waste, how much good utterly perished when a man dies! The result of what he has done lives, but with him ends the ripeness of thought, the richness of attainment that we call experience. It is this that is irreparable loss. But it is God's way, and the gracious and gentle and charitable soul of our beloved brother has taken flight to the great hereafter, and we humbly bow for His way is best.

Cleaning Up.
This is clean-up-day in Graham in pursuance of a notice issued ten days ago by the Mayor. There are evidences of cleaning up on all sides. Many have been cleaning back lots and hauling off trash and rubbish for a day or so, but there is plenty left to be done today. The idea of "clean-up-day" is a good one, but there is but one day a year appointed for general cleaning. The days ought to come often, in fact, everybody should clean up his premises at least once a week—daily would be better; then there would be no need for a specially appointed day for the purpose. The purpose is to have a clean town, and consequently a sanitary and attractive town.

Furniture for Sale.
I offer for sale, privately, some furniture belonging to the late Dr. Geo. W. Long, as follows: A surgeon's operating chair, cabinet book case, nice office desk, wood-heating stove, etc. Apply to

Fifteen or twenty acres now in corn; corn will soon be removed so that purchaser can sow land in wheat. See D. A. Long, Burlington, N. C. 210ct

THE CIRCUS ZOO.

Wonderful Menagerie Found With Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus.
One of the things in which the Carl-Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus has always excelled is in its menagerie. Carl Hagenbeck, the noted German animal man, was the first person who ever succeeded in breaking and subduing wild animals for a public performance. He started the capitals of Europe half a century ago with his intelligent, yet man-eating-beasts. At each World's Fair that has been held in the United States in the past forty years the Carl Hagenbeck wild animals have always furnished the stellar attractions.

So much interest was aroused at the St. Louis World's Fair in 1904, that when Carl Hagenbeck went to partnership with B. E. Wallace, the circus king, to combine their two shows. At first the idea looked impossible because of their size. Each show had already reached a state that it required the efforts of only the most skilled circus officials to handle. The greatest problem was the one involved in the transportation of the animals. The Hagenbeck animals were divided into three sections. In this way the obstacle of moving the great institution from city to city was solved.

Yet each year, since the consolidation of the shows the Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus has grown. All the wild animals of the show are under the direction of the Hagenbecks. Only the choicest specimens are seen, others are disposed of to other circuses and zoos. The Hagenbeck farm, Hamburg, Germany, is the world's biggest animal headquarters. As far as rare and costly specimens are captured by the Hagenbecks, they are sent to their own show, the Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus. But the Hagenbeck animals only form one department of the combined shows. The great Wallace Circus still excels as the "highest performance" given in three rings and on two elevated stages. More than 400 noted artists, who represent almost every country on the globe, have been over with the Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus in Burlington on Saturday, November 6.

Marriages.
Mr. Albert Henderson and Miss Beatrice Andrews, both of Graham were united in marriage at the home of T. P. Bradshaw, Esq., the officiating Magistrate, at 8 o'clock last Saturday afternoon, Oct. 23rd.

Cor. of The Gleaner.
What the State Department of Education is doing to eradicate white illiteracy on a large scale, the University Y. M. C. A. is doing for the eradication of white illiteracy in and around Chapel Hill township. Two or three weeks ago Mr. W. C. Crosby, who has charge of the State illiteracy campaign spoke in Peabody Hall on the plans for Moonlight School Month. After the lecture a few members of the Y. M. C. A. Cabinet met and decided to co-operate with the State Department by opening several schools in the vicinity of Chapel Hill. Last week, Francis Bradshaw, of Hillsboro, who is at the head of the Rural Sunday School work in the Y. M. C. A., made an appeal to the assembled student body for volunteers in the moonlight school campaign. He informed the students that in the narrow limits of Chapel Hill township—the home of the University—there were one hundred and fifty white people who could not read or write. He outlined the campaign to be carried on by the Y. M. C. A. Seven schools he said, were to be established, which were to run three nights out of the week, during the month of Nov.; but he added, if enough students volunteered for the work each student would not have to go out over four or five times during the month and thus would not get behind in his school work. As a result of this appeal 84 students volunteered to devote a part of their time during the month of November to this work. The campaign to be waged has the active support of Faculty, the Chapel Hill Community Club, and the State Department of Education.

Deaths.
Samuel H., the 11th son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Cheek, who lives two miles southeast of Graham, died yesterday morning after nearly a month's painful illness. Little Samuel was born Dec. 10th, 1900, and was 5 years, 10 months and 8 days old at the time of his death. The funeral was held at the home and the interment was in Linwood cemetery this morning at 10 o'clock.

Partridge Hunting Regulated.
A law was passed by the last Legislature, which makes it unlawful in Alamaham county for two years after March 8, 1915, for any person to sell or offer to sell, buy or offer to buy, carry or ship, transport out of the county, and quail. The conviction of any offender subjects him to a fine of not more than $50 or imprisonment of not more than 30 days.
The preacher on the Chautauqua platform gets better audiences than he did in the pulpit, and in addition they pay to hear him, when he may not tell them any more than their local preacher, or any better—and the same audiences would consider it almost a crime to put more than five cents on the plate to hear the same preacher in the church.

Woman Suffrage Parade in New York.
For four hours Saturday Fifth Avenue in New York city, was given over to the ladies who made a parade ever witnessed anywhere. It was the women's appeal to place New York at the election November 2nd among the States that have given women the right to vote. Participated in by women from every State in the Union and from more than 20 foreign countries, by women from every phase of business, professional, educational, artistic and official life, the parade extended from Washington Square to Central Park, and although it began shortly after three o'clock, it was longer after dark when the last marchers had finished.

Biggest Man, a North Carolina Product.
The following from "North Carolina and its Resources," published in 1876, was furnished the Morgan Herald:
"The largest man on record was Miles Darden, a native of North Carolina who was born in 1798 and who died in Tennessee in 1857. He was 7 feet and 6 inches high, and in 1845 weighed 872 pounds. At his death he weighed a little over 1,000 pounds."
"In 1839 his coat was buttoned around three men, each of them weighing over 200 pounds, who walked together in it across the square at Lexington. In 1850, it required 12 1/2 yards of cloth, one yard wide, to make him a coat. Until 1853 he was active and lively and able to bear labor; but from that time was compelled to stay at home or be confined about in a two-room wagon."
"His coffin was 8 feet long, 35 inches deep, 32 inches across the breast, 18 inches across the head, and 14 inches across the feet. It required 24 yards of black velvet to cover the sides and lid of the coffin."
"Miles Darden was twice married, and his children are very large, though it is probable that none of them will ever attain the gigantic weight and size of their father."

EUREKA Spring Water FROM EUREKA SPRING, Graham, N. C.
A valuable mineral spring has been discovered by W. H. Ausley on his place in Graham. It was noticed that it brought health to the users of the water, and upon being analyzed it was found to be a water strong in mineral properties and good for stomach and blood troubles. Physicians who have seen the analysis and what it does, recommend its use.
Analysis and testimonials will be furnished upon request. Why buy expensive mineral waters from a distance, when there is a good water recommended by physicians right at home? For further information and for the water, if you desire it, apply to the undersigned.
