Cor. of The Gleaner. Neil L. Hall of Robeson county is spending the holidays here with friends. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Rankin and little daughter, Douglass, of Charlotte are here with relatives for the holiday season. Andie Johnson, the 15-year-old son of D. W. Johnson, fell from a horse Christmas day and suffered several serious wounds about his head and face. Our oldest citizen, Levi Barnhardt, had a severe attack last Saturday that was feared for a time to be paralysis, but he has revived and is able to be out again. C. S. Watson of Pamlico county is spending a few days visiting in the community. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Joyner of Nash county are here for a week with Prof. and Mrs. J. H. Joyner, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Thompson. The Christmas tree at the M. E. Church was a most agreeable occasion. The tree was unusually beautiful and was laden with presents for the large crowd present; the music was inspiring, and the exercises by the children of a very high order. Five-minute talks were made by Supt. Robt. G. Fitzgerald of the Hillsboro schools; Rev. A. G. Gibbs, pastor of the church; Rev. J. W. Taylor, of the Baptist church, and Dr. W. T. Whitsett. Much credit for the occasion is due to Mrs. Alice Dick, and Misses Katie Dick and Aurelia Barnhardt and all who helped to arrange the celebration. Capt. and Mrs. R. C. Dick returned from Greensboro where they spent Christmas day with Mr. and Mrs.
