GRAHAM, N. C., May 3, 1917.

An immense sum of money will be required to carry on America's part of the war. Congress is hard is better to spend millions now than These, then, are the things we to lose billions later.

Congress has passed the President's select conscription measure for raising an army. No doubt this was the wisest course to pursue, as At first there seemed to be considerable opposition, the volunteer plan being favored by many. But opposition gradually melted away and the measure passed overwhelmingly.

In this issue The Gleaner is publishing an address by President with which not only to equip and Woodrow Wilson to the faamers of the United States. Experience has sea, but also to clothe and support proven that an army can no more wage war without food than it can without free arms and enumitien to help clothe and equip the armies without fire arms and amunition, with which we are co-operating in hence the President has issued this Europe, and to keep the loom and address to the people at large of this to keep the manufactories there in country, urging them to plant and raw material; coal t okeep the fire produce all the food crops possible. We are rapidly putting our navy upon an effective war footing anu are about to create and equip a are about to create and equip a great army, but these are simple done and done immediately to mak parts of the great task to which sure of large harvests. I call upon we have addressed ourselves. There young men and old men alike and s not a single selfish element so tar as J can see, in the cause we are fighting for. We are fighting for what we believe and wish to be the rights of mankind and for the fuworld. To do this great thing wor- I part thily and successfully we must de-vote ourselves to the service with-therefore, in large measure, rest the fate of the war and the fate of the nations. May the nation no count upon them to omit no ste that will increase the production of their land or that will bring about the most effectual co-operation i the sale and distribution of the products? The time is short. I is of the most imperative impor young men and old men alike and upon the able-bodied boys of the land to accept and act upon this duty-to turn in hosts to the farm and make certain that no pains an

no labor is lacking in this grea I particularly appeal to the far-mers of the South to plant abundant foodstuffs as well as cotton. They can show their patrio ism in no better or more convincin ism in no better or more convincing way than by resisting the great temptation of the present price of cotton, and helping, helping upon a great scale to feed the nation and the peoples everywhere who are fighting for their liberties and Himself had directed them, He sat down with the twelve, saying as He took part with them that He would not eat of it any more nor drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God should come. The Government of the United States and the government of the several States stand ready to coperate. They will do everything ossible to assist farmers in securing an adequate supply of seed, an adequate force of laborers when most needed at harvest time, and teach them again that jowiness was true greatness and He was among them, as one who served (Luke xxi, 7-30; Matt. xx, 28). Verse 2 reads in the revised version "during supper" in-stead of "supper being ended" and that the devil had already put it into the heart of Judas (scarlot-to betray Him. In Luke xxii, 1-6, we read that before the feast Judas had been to the chief priests and had agreed with them to berray Him unto them. Yet here he is at the table with the others as it is possible to make it and there shall be no unwarranted manipulation of the nation's food supply by those who handle it on its way he is at the table with the others as if he was a true disciple and none of the others had any suspicion that he was not. See verses 18-30. What a desperate hyporrite the devil can make of a person when he is al-lowed to take control! If we allow his to the consumer. This is our op portunity to demonstrate the afficiency of a great democracy and we shall not fall short of it.

This let me say to the middleme of every sort, whether thay are handling foodstuffs or raw materisuggestions to enter our hearts he will soon enter in himself (verses 2-27). How infinitely patient was our Lord als of manufacture or the prod-ucts of our mills and factories: The to tolerate the presence of such a one and to wash his feet with the others, eyes of the country will be espe-cially upon you. This is your opas He seems to have done, knowing all the time how devil possessed he was! The key to His great bumility, His portunity for signal service, effi cient and disinterested. A RETURN TO THE SIMPLE LIFE

Adopted For High Cost o Living Proves Road to Good Health.

"To return to the simple life i a proposition that will be wel-comed by that is interested in health," says the State Board of Health. Continuing it sermonizes thus, "Too long have we been liv-ing on the 'fat of the land' and feasting out of the 'flesh pots' with indigestion, constipation and other stomach troubles as, the consequence, and if it takes war or the high price of food to break us away from these things and restore us to the things that are right and good for us, then these are not un-mitigated evils." The movement to return to na ture and simple life is the solution offered to the high cost of living problem but health experts and en thusiasts have found it to be the only way of right living or healthand prepared to minister to them is suggestive of perfect humiliation in or-der to perfect humiliation in or-der to perfect service.
