GREENSBORO COUNTY LEADS STATE

Government Figures Population More Than Mecklenburg—Other Counties.

Greensboro Daily News, June 19. Is the population of Guilford County approximately 82,000? The question is pertinent in view of the estimate of the strength of the county made by the United States government from its census reports.

The actual registration figures passed that figure by nearly 10 per cent, which would indicate the possibility that Guilford's population may be around 80,000 or upward.

The government estimate for this county is greater than any other county in North Carolina, Mecklenburg, in which Charlotte, with its 40,000 people is located, was estimated to have the next largest number.

The government figures for some of the larger counties were as follows: Guilford, 76,134; Mecklenburg, 75,617; Wake, 69,508; Forsyth, 56,106; Buncombe, in which Asheville is located, 53,831; Durham, 41,877; New Hanover, 36,691.

Sheep Farming to be Encouraged.

Seemingly a lagging industry in the State of North Carolina, the production of sheep is going to be pushed by the Animal Industry Division of the North Carolina Experiment Station.

Mr. Evans is a native of England, coming from the center of the sheep producing section of that country. He has worked with sheep all his life, coming to this country over ten years ago with a large importation of sheep for Mr. Henry Wardell of New York State.

FOOD CONSERVATION.

Wilmington and Other Cities Have Clubs—School Girls, Boy Scouts and Church Societies Active—Movement Means More Food.

Raleigh, N. C., June 18.—Reports to Mrs. Jane S. McKimmon, head of the Home Demonstration work in the State, and the State Food Conservation Commission indicate that in many sections of the State there has been a spontaneous development of community canning.

The instance at Wilmington probably shows best the possibilities of this movement. In that city canning clubs have been organized among church societies and high school girls for the purpose of saving the surplus of perishable vegetable and fruits from the gardens of the city and truck farms of New Hanover county.

Members of the boy scouts and other boys of working age have been mobilized to assist in the garden work and the harvesting of the vegetables on the farms, which, in many instances, are purchased in the field and hauled to the various canning clubs in the city.

The movement as carried out in Wilmington serves several purposes; thousands of dollars worth of vegetables and fruits which would otherwise be lost to the consumer is being saved; the women of the churches and the high school girls are rendering an invaluable patriotic service and incidentally are earning money for religious and charitable causes; and thousands of fruit jars which would have remained on pantry shelves are being utilized in the saving of food stuffs the volume of which will have some effect in easing up the general food situation.

In some places community canning outfits have been established for the benefit of housewives who desire to can their surplus vegetables but have not the facilities at home for so doing. Both plans serve a very useful purpose, and the movement will no doubt spread rapidly until the housewives of practically every city and town in the State will be able either to put up their own surplus fruits and vegetables at a community canning or have their jars filled at reasonable cost by some canning club.

Cataract Cannot Be Cured with Local Applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Cataract is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions, and in order to cure it you must take an internal remedy.

RED CROSS WORK AT SUMMER SCHOOLS.

First Aid and Health Lectures State College and University.

Red Cross work is to be a feature of the summer schools at both the State College and the State University this summer. At the State College the course in First Aid to the Injured will be given by Dr. R. S. McGehearty of Raleigh, while Mr. C. H. McDonald, city playground director, will give a course of instructions in Life Saving, using the college pool for experimental purposes.

The course in First Aid will consist mainly of practical work in bandaging and the dressing of wounds and fractures; the treatment of shock, hemorrhage, burns, dislocations, sprains, etc., the resuscitation of the fainting or drowned, and various other subjects the knowledge of which will enable one to act with intelligence in an emergency.

That the teachers of the State will have this opportunity of equipping themselves with information, necessary at all times for home and private use, and valuable instruction for school boys and girls, is considered a most wise and timely provision of these summer schools.

In addition to the Red Cross work at the State College this summer, a course of lectures on hygiene and sanitation, also community health, has been arranged with the different heads of the State Board of Health.

According to reports from farmers all over Wayne the tobacco crop in Wayne is looking most promising and will be considerably increased over last season's yield.

The eleventh annual convention of the Launderers' Association of the Carolinas and Georgia held at the Seaside Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, a two days' session with 150 delegates in attendance.

The Cleveland county commissioners by a vote of three to one raised the school tax rate three cents on the dollar to pay the public school teachers who have first grade certificates in Cleveland county a minimum of $40 a month, beginning with the next school term.

Recognizing the imperative need of more medical men for the army and navy, the fact that doctors are holding back and not volunteering as they should, the North Carolina State Committee on National Defense, medical section, in session in Greensboro, passed a resolution recommending that the plan of selective draft in order to secure adequate medical service for the army be adopted in Congress.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson XIII.—Second Quarter, For June 24, 1917.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, John xiv, 15-25. Quarterly Review—Golden Text, John xv, 31—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

Lesson I.—Jesus gives sight to the blind. John ix, 1-25. Golden Text, John ix, 3. "I am the light of the world." We should all appropriate (all true believers) the words of Christ in verse 4, "I must work the works of Him that sent Me, for we are sent by Him as He was sent by the Father, and all our works are prepared for us (John xvii, 18; xx, 21; Eph. i, 10).

Lesson II.—Jesus raises Lazarus from the dead. John xi, 17-44. Golden Text, John xi, 25. "Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection and the life." This sickness and death, like the blindness of last lesson, were for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby (verse 4). His delay in coming to the heartbroken sisters, His seeming neglect of them, the death and burial of Lazarus, were sore and severe testings, but resurrection made all right.

Lesson III.—Jesus names the Good Shepherd. John x, 1-18. Golden Text, John x, 11. "I am the good shepherd; the good shepherd layeth down his life for the sheep." He was no hireling, never thought of pleasing Himself or of seeking anything for Himself, either in the way of His own will or His own glory.

Lesson IV.—Jesus anointed at Bethany. John xii, 1-11. Golden Text, Mark xiv, 8. "She hath done what she could." All is well in this home now, for Lazarus has come back, so it will be in the resurrection reunions, and all shall forget our misdeeds and remember them as waters that pass away (Job xli, 16). In Mary we see true, loving, believing, costly worship; in Martha restful service, in Lazarus resurrection life, and we look onward to His table in His kingdom.

Lesson V.—Jesus named as King. John xii, 12-26. Golden Text, John xii, 13. "Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord, even the king of Israel." That most sad day when He wept over the city because of the sufferings that would come upon it on account of their rejection of Him and His kingdom will yet give cause to a glad day, when they shall say: "Lo, this is our God! We have waited for Him, and He will save us."

Lesson VI.—Jesus the servant of all. John xiii, 1-17. Golden Text, Mark x, 44. "Whoever would be first among you shall be servant of all." The events of that Passover night which He so desired carry us back to the great night in Egypt when the nation was born and on to the future fulfillment when they shall be born again.

Lesson VII.—Jesus the True Vine. John xv, 1-16. Golden Text, John xv, 5. "I am the Vine; ye are the branches." Not only is He the True Vine, the True and Righteous Israel, but He is the Righteous Branch always bearing fruit. The wonder is that He can bear fruit through such as we are, but He who ordains means for us works all our works in us (Isa. xlv, 12; Phil. ii, 13; Eph. i, 10). In redemption He does all for us fully and freely, and unless He does all in our daily life nothing counts.

Lesson VIII.—The importance of self-control. John xvi, 1-3. Golden Text, 1 Cor. ix, 25. "Every man that loveth himself hath hated his neighbor which He so desired carry us back to the great night in Egypt when the nation was born and on to the future fulfillment when they shall be born again.

Lesson IX.—The Holy Spirit and His work. John xv, 26; xvi, 14. Golden Text, John xvi, 26. "He shall teach you all things." From first to last the Holy Spirit is the great and only worker and helper who has been called the Father through the Son, guide us into all truth, take of the things of Christ and show them unto us and show us things to come.

Lesson X.—Jesus betrayed and denied. John xvii, 1-19. Golden Text, Isa. liii, 3. "He was despised and rejected of men. When we consider that one numbered with the twelve, though he never was really one of them, sold Him to His enemies, and another who was truly a disciple denied Him with oaths and curses, and all forsook Him and fled, we can only wonder at His faith in God under such adverse circumstances.

Lesson XI.—Jesus crucified. John xix, 16-30. Golden Text, 1 Cor. xv, 3. "Christ died for our sins." As we consider the most awful event of all the past history of the world, we should continually ponder and prayerfully meditate upon such words as our Golden Text, along with Gal. iii, 13; 1 Pet. ii, 24; Heb. i, 3; 1x, 12; 1x, 12; Isa. liii, 5, 6, and then see Him before His enemies as an example for us.

Lesson XII.—The Risen Lord. John xxi, 1-18. Golden Text, 1 Cor. xv, 20. "Now hath Christ been raised from the dead, the first fruits of them that are asleep." We should see ourselves as believers, crucified with Him, buried with Him, and coming with Him in glory to set up His kingdom and reign with Him over the earth, and reign with Him over the earth.

Lesson XIII.—Jesus crucified and denied. John xvii, 1-19. Golden Text, Isa. liii, 3. "He was despised and rejected of men. When we consider that one numbered with the twelve, though he never was really one of them, sold Him to His enemies, and another who was truly a disciple denied Him with oaths and curses, and all forsook Him and fled, we can only wonder at His faith in God under such adverse circumstances.

Lesson XIV.—Jesus crucified and denied. John xvii, 1-19. Golden Text, Isa. liii, 3. "He was despised and rejected of men. When we consider that one numbered with the twelve, though he never was really one of them, sold Him to His enemies, and another who was truly a disciple denied Him with oaths and curses, and all forsook Him and fled, we can only wonder at His faith in God under such adverse circumstances.

Lesson XV.—Jesus crucified and denied. John xvii, 1-19. Golden Text, Isa. liii, 3. "He was despised and rejected of men. When we consider that one numbered with the twelve, though he never was really one of them, sold Him to His enemies, and another who was truly a disciple denied Him with oaths and curses, and all forsook Him and fled, we can only wonder at His faith in God under such adverse circumstances.

Lesson XVI.—Jesus crucified and denied. John xvii, 1-19. Golden Text, Isa. liii, 3. "He was despised and rejected of men. When we consider that one numbered with the twelve, though he never was really one of them, sold Him to His enemies, and another who was truly a disciple denied Him with oaths and curses, and all forsook Him and fled, we can only wonder at His faith in God under such adverse circumstances.

Lesson XVII.—Jesus crucified and denied. John xvii, 1-19. Golden Text, Isa. liii, 3. "He was despised and rejected of men. When we consider that one numbered with the twelve, though he never was really one of them, sold Him to His enemies, and another who was truly a disciple denied Him with oaths and curses, and all forsook Him and fled, we can only wonder at His faith in God under such adverse circumstances.

Lesson XVIII.—Jesus crucified and denied. John xvii, 1-19. Golden Text, Isa. liii, 3. "He was despised and rejected of men. When we consider that one numbered with the twelve, though he never was really one of them, sold Him to His enemies, and another who was truly a disciple denied Him with oaths and curses, and all forsook Him and fled, we can only wonder at His faith in God under such adverse circumstances.

Lesson XIX.—Jesus crucified and denied. John xvii, 1-19. Golden Text, Isa. liii, 3. "He was despised and rejected of men. When we consider that one numbered with the twelve, though he never was really one of them, sold Him to His enemies, and another who was truly a disciple denied Him with oaths and curses, and all forsook Him and fled, we can only wonder at His faith in God under such adverse circumstances.

Lesson XX.—Jesus crucified and denied. John xvii, 1-19. Golden Text, Isa. liii, 3. "He was despised and rejected of men. When we consider that one numbered with the twelve, though he never was really one of them, sold Him to His enemies, and another who was truly a disciple denied Him with oaths and curses, and all forsook Him and fled, we can only wonder at His faith in God under such adverse circumstances.
