Flying craft to the number of 100,000 is proposed by the United States for use in the war against Germany. They ought to be able to do the job.

The cantonment for North Carolina that was expected to be established at Fayetteville up to a few days ago seems certain now of going to Charlotte. The Charlotte people have a way of getting things when they go after them.

The Fourth of July has taken on a new world meaning. In England and France the day was celebrated last week with as much patriotic fervor as in the United States where it marks the birthday of the greatest and most enduring democracy the world has ever seen.

If Russia shall keep up the pace shown for the past week and the other allies shall hold their own as they have done, we do not believe that there will be any Kaiserism left at the end of another 12 months, notwithstanding some high authorities have predicted that the war may last yet five years.

Not so many submarines ships in the past week, but all too many. The waste is appalling. The allied powers by combination should sweep the sea. The task would be hazardous and costly, but, successfully done, would end the most dreaded and most destructive engine the Germans have in operation, and in the end would save hundreds of lives and ships and millions of wealth.

The country has heeded the call for war preparation in the production of food. A government estimate just out makes it known that a billion more bushels of foodstuff will be produced in this country than in any previous year. That is in itself incomprehensible, but it means that an excess of 10 bushels to every man, woman and child in America will be produced over and above the greatest food crop ever before produced. The farmers are doing as big things as any other class along any other line.

A report of food riots in Germany comes via Copenhagen. Troops were called to restore order, which they succeeded in doing without firing, it is said.

East St. Louis manufacturers had the contract to furnish North Carolina automobile tags and the riots in that city are the excuse for the delay in furnishing the tags.

A brochure on the subject of the United States, their strength, role in history, and intervention in the war has been distributed to all schools in France with the object of making the American republic better known to the youth of France.

It is announced that President Wilson does not expect to take a vacation this summer but will remain at the White House, even if Congress adjourns. The President will take short trips down the Potomac river for rest periods.

In Chicago a negro attacked a white man and his wife with a knife because the man stumbled over the negro's feet in the aisle of a street car. He renewed the attack when the couple left the car and a policeman shot him to death.

Mrs. Hattie Nixon of Waco, Texas, 29 years old, student of an airplane school at Marlin, Texas, was killed while making a practice flight. Mrs. Nixon's plane failed to get sufficient elevation and struck telephone wires, causing it to fall. She was crushed beneath the engine.

STUDENT AND TEACHERS' UNION

Held at Cross Roads, Patterson Township, July 4th.
Reported by Prof. J. B. Robertson
On July 4 there was held at Cross Roads school house, Patterson township, a reunion of all former students and teachers. Mr. R. Alice Coble, as chairman of a local committee, planned the day to have a general reunion of the students and teachers and friends at Cross Roads on Independence day.

Many responded to the invitation. People loved to go back to where they spent their school days and to be again where they were in days gone by and feel again that old fraternal fellowship of friendships formed in youth.

Dr. J. D. Gregg of Liberty, a former student, and Prof. J. B. Robertson of Graham, a former teacher, were the speakers of the day.

Roll calls back to the days of sixty was an interesting feature. A few answered that were more than three score and ten. Squire Sylvester Spoon, who is more than 90, though hale and hearty, was present and gave some most interesting information and incidents of the good old days of the long ago. Many others told of the days "when I was here."

J. M. Shoffner prepared a paper giving a running history of the school since its beginning about 1936 to the present time that was much enjoyed.

Some of the former teachers of this school and of the county, to mention those of more ancient days, are David Thompson, Elizabeth Foster, Dr. W. R. Goley, T. M. Robertson, Sam Spoon, Milton Wrightsall, W. L. Spoon, S. A. Alexander, W. H. Cloninger, J. B. Robertson, June Hornaday and others of more recent date.

A good old country picnic dinner was served on the campus that was a fine tribute to all the cooks in the community. Music was furnished by a local string band and it was good music, too.

People were there from Graham, Burlington, Greensboro, Liberty, Ashboro, Siler City, and other points.

The day at Cross Roads was a splendid occasion, thoroughly enjoyed, and resolutions were passed to make such a reunion an annual gathering.

Motor Cars and Revenue.
In 1916 there were 1,067,332 more motor cars registered in the United States than in 1915. This was an increase of 43 per cent. The gross total of registered cars, including commercial cars, was 3,612,996; the number of motor cycles registered was 250,820. The several States collected in registration and license fees, including those of chauffeurs and operators, a total gross revenue of $25,865,369.75. Of this amount 92 per cent., or $23,910,811, was applied directly to construction, improvement, or maintenance of the public roads in 43 States, according to figures compiled by the office of public roads of the United States Department of Agriculture.

In 1917 the increase will probably be as great as last year.

Nine companies of Illinois National Guardsmen were ordered to Bloomington, Ill., on the 6th to restore order following a night of rioting caused by the strike of employes of the Bloomington and Normal Railway and Light Company. The strike had been conducted in an orderly manner until "Mother" Jones, labor advocate, delivered a speech to a crowd of strikers and sympathizers which provoked an outbreak.

A dispatch from New Orleans says that Henry Hawkins, former negro slave owned by the family of General Zachary Taylor, died there last week at the age of 98. In 1846 he accompanied General Taylor as a servant during the war with Mexico and since that time has been cared for by descendants of the former President. He was buried in a tomb by Richard Taylor, a Confederate general and son of Gen. Zachary Taylor.

While a horse owned by Mr. J. E. Collins was drinking from a well in a Raleigh suburb, it took fright at the noise made by an engine on the nearby Southern railway, ran away and broke its neck. Now its owner is asking the railroad for $225.

Commission to Study Taxes.

Gov. Bickett has appointed the tax commission of five who will make a study of taxation and report to the General Assembly their findings as recommendation for changes in the State's system.

The men are Frank A. Linney, Republican opponent of Governor Bickett in the 1916 campaign; Henry A. Page, Aberdeen, member of the General Assembly; W. Vance Brown of Asheville; J. Zeb. Green, editor and lecturer for the Farmers' Union, and James H. Pou of Raleigh, attorney.

Four of the appointees are Democrats, says the Raleigh correspondent of the Greensboro News, and the fifth is the Republican State chairman. Gov. Bickett was not required by the act creating the tax studying commission to appoint a Republican but it was his own idea that the minority party should have representation in sifting the most vexatious question that the State government has to meet periodically.

Bombs Dropped in German Territory.
The allies have been dropping some bombs on German territory. A dispatch from Berlin says in addition to bomb dropping near the front, there were encounters in German territory. Enemy aviators dropped more than 100 incendiary bombs in the Westphalian industrial region and at other points, but no military damage was done, it is added.

A report from Amsterdam says that five persons were killed and several houses were destroyed during the bombardment of the German city of Essen, home of the great Krupp works, Friday night. A correspondent says bombs were dropped on the Krupp works and that reports of damage inflicted are conflicting. Estimates of the number of attackers vary from 15 to 40. The official French statement of Saturday night said one French airplane raided Essen, dropping bombs on the Krupp factory.

Hopeful of Russia.
The Russian people will fulfill their task of establishing a republic, in the opinion of Charles Edward Russell, member of the American mission to Russia. Mr. Russell has issued the following statement on the observations he has made in Petrograd since his arrival some weeks ago.

"I venture to approach my fellow democrats in the United States and Great Britain for a more sympathetic attitude toward the struggling democracy of Russia, appealing to editors not to print, and to newspaper readers not to believe such stories if printed. There is no anarchy here. There is only a limited amount of disorder. The people of Russia under the most trying conditions in history have given an example of dignity and self restraint. It is well to face the facts frankly, but it is also well to look beyond the surface conditions to the basis of Russian development. Every phase of the present situation is a logical and normal outcome of natural causes. The substance is sound and hopeful if only other democracies give help wholeheartedly instead of standing by to prophesy destruction."

There are a good many people who would be very much benefited by taking Chamberlain's Tablets for their catarrh of the bowels. I had a bad spell with my stomach about six months ago, and was troubled for two or three weeks with gas and severe pain in the pit of my stomach. Our druggist advised me to take Chamberlain's Tablets. I took a box and the pain was relieved. I kept on taking them until I was cured. These tablets do not relieve pain, but after the pain has been relieved they prevent its recurrence.

Members of the Socialist party in the United States have approved by an overwhelming majority the statement of the party's opposition to the war with Germany, submitted by the majority of the committee on war and militarism appointed by the St. Louis convention last April. The vote was 21,639 in opposition to war, to 2,752 for war.

Eleven of the 13 suffragettes arrested at the 14th of July demonstration in front of the White House in Washington were tried and given the alternative of a $25 fine or three days in jail. They chose to serve the three days. The police judge offered to take their personal bonds on a promise to stay away from the White House, but they refused and were taken to jail.

Worry is.
Statesville Landmark
Worry is the name of a Burke county postoffice and Col William S. Pearson says it came about in this way. When the office was to be established interested citizens met and selected a name which Uncle Sam turned down because there was another office in the State of the same name. Other names suggested met a similar fate. Then one old citizen, in exasperation at the annoyance and delay said, let's call it "Worry." Worry it was named and the name stands.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson III.—Third Quarter, For July 15, 1917.
THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.
Text of the Lesson, II Chron. xxx, 1-12. Memory Verses, 11, 12—Golden Text, Heb. xi, 6—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

The story of Hezekiah, son of Ahas, who reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem and who did right in the sight of the Lord, working good and right and truth before the Lord his God and doing it with all his heart, so that there was none like him among all the kings of Judah either before him or after him in the matter of trusting in the Lord God of Israel (II Chron. xxx, 2, 3; II Kings xviii, 5), occupies eleven chapters of Scripture (II Kings xviii-xix; II Chron. xxx-xxxii); Isa. xxxvi-xxxviii). When we consider that these kings were spoken of as sitting on the throne of the Lord, to be kings for the Lord their God (II Chron. xxx, 2; II Chron. 15, 9), we see more clearly the monstrous sin of Ahas and the great contrast in his son, whose name signifies the strength of Jehovah and which he so well illustrated during the greater part of his life. Our lesson chapter tells of the king's prayer to the Lord for all Israel from Dan to Beersheba, and this feast always points us in three directions—to the night of the nation's birth, to Christ our savior crucified for us and to the rebirth of the nation in the future when they shall be gathered from all nations and the passover shall be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

Let us look a little at the rest of his story before we take up the day's lesson. He began his good reign by opening the doors of the house of the Lord, which his father had closed up, and by cleansing the temple of its filthiness, which occupied them sixteen days (xxix, 3-5, 17). He set the priests and Levites to work with the inspiring and encouraging words of xxix, 31, and, having restored the vessels which his father had cast away, he made atonement for all Israel and had the true worship restored with praises and gladness and rejoicing (xxix, 24, 30, 36). Then they kept the great passover, sending invitations throughout all Israel and Judah, and a great multitude came to Jerusalem and the passover was fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

Although some laughed the invitation to scorn and mocked, there were those of Asher and Manasseh and Zebulun and Issachar and Benjamin and came to Jerusalem to keep the feast (xxx, 10-12). They found such joy in keeping the feast of unleavened bread spake to the heart of all the Levites and the priests praising the Lord day by day and teaching the good knowledge of the Lord their God, and spake to the heart of all the Levites, that the whole assembly took counsel to keep the feast seven days more, which they did with gladness, and there was not so great joy in Jerusalem since the time of Solomon. The praise and joy were heard in heaven, the habitation of His holiness (xxx, 21-27). The contrast between this and the sin and unbelief and rebellion of Ahas's reign helps us to understand just a little better the contrast between Israel's present unbelief and prayer to the Lord, drawing ever nearer, when they shall obtain joy and gladness and sorrow and sighing shall flee away (Isa. xxxv, 10; II, 11).

After this great passover and time of rejoicing he followed a cleansing of the land as far as possible from idolatry and idols, and the brazen serpent which Moses had made in the wilderness and which Israel was now worshipping as an idol was destroyed (xxx, 1; II Kings xviii, 4). Such a turning to the Lord, to serve the Living and True God (I Thes. 1:9), was too much for the devil to take quietly, and so he stirred up Sennacherib and his hosts to go up against Jerusalem and with great blasphemy defy the Living God, the God of Israel (Isa. xxxvii, 36; II Kings xix, 14-19).

Note the same great desire on the part of Joshua and David (Josh. iv, 24; I Sam. xvii, 46, 47). That God may be glorified should be the one and constant aim of every believer (Phil. i, 20; I Pet. iv, 11). That night the prayer of the king and the prophet was answered by the angel of the Lord passing over the Assyrian host and taking of the earth 185,000 men. Sennacherib returned to Nineveh and was slain by his own sons (II Kings xix, 36-37). The rest of Hezekiah's life was a trial. Short time lived he because sick unto death and was struck by Isaiah that his time had come to die. But he prayed to the Lord with sore weeping, and the Lord added to his life fifteen years and gave him a wonderful sign upon the sundial (Isa. xxxviii, 1-8). Some of his words on this occasion are very memorable.

Flagwomen For Railroads.

Newfield, N. J., Dispatch.
Thousands of excursionists on the lecture line of the New Jersey and Seashore railroad, between Camden and the seashore, stared in wonder at a girl who stood guard over the main grade crossing in the town.

This "flagwoman" is Miss Daise Ward, the first of her sex to take up a really truly job of flagging trains of the Pennsylvania in this part of the country. The railroad officials have sent out notices to their station agents and foremen to employ women for these positions wherever possible in order to have the flagmen available for jobs in section gangs in which the railroad is short handed.

Plan to Destroy Crops.
A dispatch from Sioux Falls, S. D., says regular army officers in South Dakota claim to have reliable information that the Industrial Workers of the World leaders in that State have maps of the agricultural districts and have men stationed throughout the State who will make simultaneous attempts to burn this season's crops.

Federal officers have been apprised of the plot and every effort will be made to apprehend those connected with it, it was said. The revelations were made public by the State to guard against the activities of the plotters. This is hard to believe, but as the Industrial Workers of the World are not industrial workers but agitators and disturbers of the peace it may be true.

German Agent Arrested.
With the arrest at Scranton, Pa., of Joseph Graber, organizer of the Industrial Workers of the World, charged with being a spy in the employ of the German government, Federal authorities declared their investigation had satisfied them that recent strikes and agitations of the I. W. W. in the anthracite coal regions had been stirred up by German agents with the hope of lessening the power of the United States in the war by decreasing coal production. Graber was held without bail under the alien enemy act.
