The campaign is now on for the second sale of Liberty Bonds to meet the extraordinary expenses of prosecuting the war. The first sale of $2,000,000,000 Liberty Loan bonds was a great success and many millions over-subscribed.

War news has been scarce, so far as operations at the front are concerned, for almost a week. The Allies as well as the Germans gave out only meagre reports, and the reading world was getting anxious.

Demands for the expulsion of La Follette from the United States Senate seem to be pouring into Washington. There are others that sided in hindering the working out of the war policy and preparations of the administration, but the conduct of LaFollette in his public utterances has intensified the demand for his removal.

The British steamship Tanaqua formerly the Don of Glamis, was torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine off the coast of Ireland a few days ago. Crew believed it to have been a dud. Property loss about $1,000,000.

The strikers at the Norfolk navy yard, about 4,000, have all returned to work. The men said they returned to work upon assurance from Secretary Daniels and Assistant Secretary Roosevelt that the present wage scale would be considered at a conference to be held in Washington this week.

Private John Rogers, negro, arrested at El Paso, Texas, a deserter from the army, made a written statement to army officers saying he had deserted from his company at Douglas, Ariz. because some of the negroes said they were going to 'shoot up the town' and had obtained ammunition secretly for that purpose. His statements are being investigated.

UNIVERSITY ENROLLED 1,030.

About 500 Taking Military Training - No Football This Year.

Cor. of The Gleaner. Chapel Hill, N. C., Oct. 3.—At the end of the second week of the fall term, the University of North Carolina has settled down to its normal activities, with an added zest and discipline given to the work by the new courses in military science.

Nearly 500 students have volunteered for the new course in military training. From nine to ten hours a week is now being devoted to drill, and three hours a week to military lectures.

So far the regular class order drill has been followed, but extended order maneuvers will be begun this week and very soon regular trenches will be constructed by the students in training.

The effect of the new military life has been manifest in all the activities of the University. There is a greater alertness and promptness in classes, early rising has become a habit, and there has been a corresponding improvement in bearing and deportment.

American soldiers and sailors in every part of the world are to have Thanksgiving and Christmas turkey, and of the very best quality. The War Department is now making arrangements for turkey.

BRITAIN IMPROVING LOT OF THE BLIND

Many Reforms Under Way Through Creation of Special Commission.

London.—A great improvement is being made by Great Britain in her methods of caring for the blind. This not only applies to the care of the blind but to all classes of sightless persons throughout England and Wales, Scotland and Ireland.

The crux of Britain's problem is the inadequacy of workshops, which the blind and recommended should be doubled, first by extension of the present efforts and second by the construction of new and modern establishments. Even the sale of the handicraft work of blind persons has been neglected, and a plan of co-operative selling is being formed, suggested by a co-operative plan of buying and distributing raw material.

COOL HEADS SAVED LIVES OF MANY PERSONS

Cool heads and a little common sense probably saved the lives and limbs of several hundred persons, as usual mostly women and children, in Raleigh recently when burning insulation on electric wires filled a motion picture theatre with smoke.

The theatre has a seating capacity of about 800 and it was crowded. When there were indications of fire nobody got excited and the theatre was emptied without incident.

"An unpleasant incident which marred the first exhibition of the Red Cross films, the tanks in action, Monday afternoon at the theatre, served to display a quality in Raleigh people that is deserving of the highest praise.

"The Strand Theatre was crowded, practically every seat on floor and in gallery, when a pungent smell was succeeded by wisps of vapor creeping along the ceiling. Some few rose from their seats and made for the door. The audience as a whole, very largely composed of women and children, remained in their seats.

CLEAN UP ALL THE SCHOOL HOUSES

Schools will open shortly, but now that they are idle an excellent opportunity is afforded to have them thoroughly inspected and piles of old papers, rubbish and other litter cleared out and all fire hazards removed or properly safeguarded.

SOUR STOMACH.

Eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, abstain from meat for a few days and in most cases the sour stomach will disappear. If it does not, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper.

M'GRAW STILL HOPES JIM THORPE MAY LEARN TO HIT

Glant Leader Seems Obsessed With Idea That Big Indian May Yet Become Great Ball Player.

There is something about Jim Thorpe that John McGraw can't resist.

The Glant leader has sent Thorpe on his way several times since he signed him in 1913, but has always brought him back to the Glant fold for another trial.

When Thorpe was sent to the Reds early in the season everyone thought it was a final farewell insofar as the Glants were concerned. But when Mathewson finally turned him back to the New York club, in August, McGraw decided to keep him on the payroll, and as a result Jim became one of the eligibles for the world's series.

Lucky for Thorpe? Well, rather. Any other manager in the two big leagues would have turned Jim over to some minor league club without a moment's hesitation, and he would have watched the world's series from the outside.
