AMERICANS SAFE IN PETROGRAD

AMBASSADOR FRANCIS AND CONSUL GENERAL SUMMERS MAKE A REPORT.

CONDITIONS ARE NOW CHAOTIC

Recommended That All Unattached Women and Men Accompanied by Children Leave—About 200 Americans in Petrograd.

Washington—Messages from Ambassador Francis, at Petrograd, and Consul General Summers, at Moscow, received at the state department, said all Americans in the two principal Russian cities were safe. Conditions in both places were represented as quieter, but still chaotic.

Ambassador Francis reported that he had obtained transportation from Petrograd to Harbin over the trans-Siberian railroad for Americans who wished to depart from the capital. He had recommended that all unattached women and children leave. Officials have estimated that there were about 200 Americans in Petrograd.

No suggestion was made of moving the Americans from Moscow, although the fighting in that city appeared to have been more general and sanguinary than that in Petrograd.

Ambassador Francis' dispatch said the Petrograd city duma had not recognized the Lenin-Trotsky faction and that many of the government departments were closed while others were operating under subordinate officials.

OVERWHELMING INDOUBT GIVEN SAMUEL GOMPERS

A. F. of L. Delegates Appear His Support of President. Buffalo, N. Y.—Union labor put its stamp of approval on the attitude of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in working hand in hand with President Wilson and placing the needs of the nation above all other considerations in questions involving the workingmen's part in a vigorous prosecution of the war against Germany.

The vote of confidence came after more than three hours of debate, in which the pacifist element at the convention of the federation was given ample opportunity to express itself. Out of a total of 450 delegates, only 15 were recorded in opposition.

The attack on the resolution was led by Delegate Barnes, of Philadelphia. He was supported, in addition to Miss Shapiro, by Delegate Burke, of the Sulphite workers; Joseph P. Cannon, of the Mine workers; and a few others. The alliance and plan of the new labor well authenticated source. It is stated that Emperor William announced in his reply that he would treat only with the legal successor to the imperial government or with the constituent assembly.

PREDICTIONS MADE BY SPEAKER AT NAVAL ARCHITECTS AND ENGINEERS MEETING.

Speakers Believe That Submarine Itself Will Be Best Defense Against German U-Boats—Other Examples.

New York.—Predictions that enemy submarines will soon make their appearance off American ports, that the submarine will be found to be the best antidote for the submarine, and that the great world powers in the near future will have flotillas of "contra-submarines," especially built for operating against undersea craft, were made by speakers who addressed the annual convention of the Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers here.

Simon Lake, the inventor, pointed to the possible danger to American shores from the submarine menace. He cited the trans-Atlantic trips of the merchant submarine Deutschland and Commander E. S. Land of the United States navy, took issue with Mr. Lake when the latter said he did not believe the submarine could be effectively used against the submarine. "A submarine can fight a submarine as well as a battleship can fight a battleship," said the commander. Though he said foreign tendencies in submarine construction were toward displacements of 2,000, 3,000 and even 5,000 tons, Commander Land declared his belief that craft of the 800-ton type are now being most generally built because of their adaptability for all-year use.

Marely F. Hay predicted the development of a "contra-submarine," or a submarine-fighting undersea boat which would do most of its work while submerged. Estimates that Germany had in commission over 700 submarines last May and that she would have in service a total of 1,200 under sea craft by the end of the year, were discredited by Mr. Hay.

The agricultural extension service of the State College of Agriculture and Engineering is launching a campaign for utilization of waste wood in wood lots throughout the state, especially where located in reach of towns, both as a profitable saving of valuable material otherwise going to waste and as a means of reducing the demand for coal, which is proving to be so scarce and high priced.

North Carolina's death rate for the past year was 13 deaths per thousand population, compared with 12.3 for the year previous. There was very little change in the birth rate. This is the announcement just made by the state board of health after compilation of the health statistics from every quarter of the state. The deaths in the state for the past year were 31,271, of which 18,714 were white people and 12,557 negroes. The negro death rate is six points higher than the death rate of the white people. That is, the death rate of the negroes is 17, and that of the white 12.3.

Five known dead, with a possibility that the number will be increased to eight, is the toll claimed by flames which destroyed the Catholic Hill school for colored children, at Asheville, 20 minutes after the children had been put through fire drill. Three of the bodies have been identified, and two more at the morgue cannot be identified as yet, but five more children are missing and it is practically certain that the bodies are those of two of the missing children. The dead and injured are as follows: Identified dead: Henry Thompson, Elsie Thompson, Mary Jamison. Missing and believed dead: Addie Logan, Daisy Dobbins, Hazel Harris, Ines Davis, Hannah Smolton.

The situation with regard to the retailer in the plan and policy of the food administration and the attitude of the administration toward the retailer were explained and discussed and clarified in the conference of retailers with State Food Administrator Henry A. Page. Mr. Page stated in the beginning and made every man present feel that the attitude of the food administration was one of friendliness and co-operation, and that on the persistent profiteer who disregards his duty to his country and his people, and the law and the policy of the food administration has anything to fear. Mr. Page stated that the impression that some retailers had that the government was planning to impose hardships upon them was absolutely unfounded; and that the idea of others that because the average retailer is not subject to license he is at liberty to prosecute his business without regard to equitable practices is equally incorrect.

ITALIANS ARE NOW HOLDING INVADERS IN CHECK

Italian Northern Line Has Evidently Been Strengthened. With the Russian situation still obscure by reason of the fact that no direct advice are being received from Petrograd or Moscow, the Italian situation remains of transcendent interest in the news of the world war.

Everywhere along the battle front from Lake Garda eastward, and thence southward along the Piave river to the Adriatic sea, the Italians are holding the enemy in check, except in the hilly region in the vicinity of the Asiago plateau, where additional gains have been made by the invaders. The new advances by the Teutonic allies, as observed on the war maps, do not indicate that points of extremely great strategic value have been won, but rather that the Italians on various sectors have given ground before superior numbers and at the same time have strengthened out and lessened the length of their front.

In the hills north of the Venetian plain, General Diaz, the new commander-in-chief of the Italians has withdrawn his advanced posts south of Monte Tomatico.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS KILLED

REPORTED KILLED OR WOUNDED IN RECENT SHELLING OF TRENCHES.

American Artillery's Fire Believed to Have Been Effective—Tar Heel is Included in List of Those Wounded in Trenches.

With the American Army in France.—A number of American soldiers have been killed or wounded in the recent shelling of the American trenches by the Germans. One shell which dropped in a trench caused several casualties.

A group of Americans were in a shack in the reserve when the Germans began shelling heavily. The officers ordered the men to a dugout but before they could get there a large shell dropped on the position and exploded. The American artillerymen concentrated their fire on the communication trenches of the enemy and it is believed that their shells caused considerable casualties and damage.

The war department had received no report of the wounding or killing of American soldiers as the result of German shell fire. The department did receive, however, a corrected casualty list of the trench raid of November 2. The new list does not change the number or names of the dead, but shows the wounded and missing to have been 11 each. The original list gave three dead, five wounded and twelve missing. The report adds First Lieutenant William M. McLaughlin to the list of wounded. Among the prizes added to the wounded list is Lester C. Smith, of Concord, N. C. Private William P. Grigg, of Louisville, Ky., previously reported as captured by the Germans also is added to those wounded.
