

For Weak Women

In use for over 40 years! Thousands of voluntary letters from women, telling of the good Cardui has done them. This is the best proof of the value of Cardui. It proves that Cardui is a good medicine for women.

There are no harmful or habit-forming drugs in Cardui. It is composed of mild, medicinal ingredients, with no bad after-effects.

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

You can rely on Cardui. Surely it will do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women. It should help. "I was taken sick, seemed to be..." writes Mrs. Mary E. Vest, of Madison Heights, Va. "I got down so weak, could hardly walk... just staggered around. I read of Cardui, and after taking one bottle, or before taking quite all, I felt much better. I took 3 or 4 bottles at that time, and was able to do my work. I take it in the spring when run-down. I had no appetite, and I commenced eating. It is the best tonic I ever saw." Try Cardui.

Desperate Fighting Revealed by Official Film Taken by Signal Corps—To Be Shown All Over America.

Here are some of the thrills and "punches" that the spectator will find in "The Price of Peace," the new film history of the great war just issued by the treasury department in connection with the Victory Loan campaign. The picture is to be shown all over the United States.

Embarkment of thousands upon thousands of the two million soldiers sent to France, including the first picture ever released showing the great "Leviathan," formerly the "Vaterland," sailing from the Port of Hoboken for Brest, in all her war camouflage.

Thrilling scenes of how the marines fought at Belleau Wood, with machine guns in action, close up. Just like a box seat at the war.

Rigors of Western Climate Caused Khedive's Gift to Disintegrate. Painting Ancient Obelisk With Special Preparation Stopped Decay—Ruined Portions Restored.

New Yorkers awoke one morning to find in their breakfast headlines the discovery of a zealous park employee had discovered signs of disintegration on the surface of the city's most treasured antique—Cleopatra's Needle. Photographs revealed that the monolith was peeling, large pieces of sandstone having fallen from the tall shaft, carrying with them part of the prized hieroglyphs.

London's twin sister of Cleopatra's Needle was reported as resting comfortably and enduringly on the banks of the Thames, and the rival port wondered whether a preparation would be found to stay the attacks of their harsher climate.

Such a preparation was soon forthcoming. A new paint combination as a preservative for stone was invented

PRICE OF PEACE REVEALS SECRETS

Treasury Presents Film of Events in Great Conflict Showing What Victory Liberty Loan Bonds Pay For.

Secrets of the war recorded by the motion picture camera and only now released by the censors are revealed in "The Price of Peace," an official film issued in behalf of the Victory Liberty Loan, and being shown all over the country.

"The Price of Peace" is the only official picture ever assembled which purports to cover the war from the day it was declared down to date.

The purpose of the picture as announced by the Department of the Treasury through Frank R. Wilson, director of publicity, is to put before the public a graphic accounting and make clear why there is now a Victory Liberty Loan.

The picture opens with a scene in President Wilson's office and a reference to that momentous April 6, when war was declared. It concludes with a remarkable view of the Statue of Liberty, in New York harbor, and the homecoming of our army.

But there is a vast gap between, including the embarkation of troops, their landing in France, final training over there, then the desperate realities of the front line trenches, gas attacks, army railroading under fire, the great attack from Soissons to Chateau Thierry, infantry and artillery under heavy bombardment, a battle between aeroplanes, and the downing of a many airman, the observation balloons under fire, then the battle dead, the prisoners, captured guns, our troops marching over the Rhine into Germany, General Pershing and his men in Prussia, Christmas with the Army of Occupation in Germany, and the homecoming.

Probably the greatest thrill of the picture is in the scenes where the troops are seen going "over the top" and into the wheatfields at 4:35 o'clock on that famous July 18, 1918. There is a dim, misty light, that gives these scenes a peculiar intensity. Other scenes of desperate fighting show an American battery under heavy fire, yet other scenes American soldiers are shown bravely advancing under shrapnel fire across an open glade. Two are shot down near the camera.

The activities of the American navy furnish another important chapter of the picture. A number of impressive scenes show the German fleet steaming to surrender.

MORTE POUR FRANCE

Spring has come again and tender green covers the battle-scarred earth. Nature, the sovereign panacea, has already begun her work of restoration—flowers blossom over the graves of fallen heroes. Soon May will bring the poppies, "between the crosses, row on row," little gray crosses, each with its aluminum identification tag—and those that mark the graves of the men who are buried in French cemeteries inscribed with the words "Morte Pour France."

Sixty thousand Americans lie asleep in France, "Morte Pour France"—surely no other sentence could tell the story half so well. "Dead for France." Probably the best known poem of the war is one quoted below, "In Flanders Fields," breathing the fine spirit of sacrifice for an ideal. "America's Answer" stilled all fear that the sacrifice was in vain, and now when victory in battle is won comes "America's Consecration," pledging a victory of right.

"Be it our task to save, "In memory of the life you gave, "Those rights for which your blood was shed "In Flanders Fields!"

This is our task, in memory of those sixty thousand dead, to insure the victory they won, else they have died for naught.

To every citizen of the United States belongs this opportunity, the last opportunity to measure up to the standard set by the boys. The greatest victory of all must be won now, and the shots that will bring it about will be made of dollars. Lend yours to end the war. Buy Victory Liberty Loan bonds.

NORTH CAROLINA—ALAMANCE COUNTY. In the Superior Court, November Term, 1919.

Ella Leonard, Plaintiff, vs. John R. Leonard, Defendant.

The defendant, John R. Leonard, above named, will take notice that an action entitled as above has been commenced in the Superior Court of Alamance county, North Carolina, for an absolute divorce for statutory grounds; and the said defendant will further take notice that he is required to appear at a term of the Superior Court to be held in Graham, N. C., on the fourth Monday in November, 1919, and answer or demur to the complaint.

This Aug. 23d, 1919.

D. J. WALKER, 28aug4t Clerk Superior Court.

The fact that several thousand soldiers were unable to understand the orders given them from their superiors and that many thousands could not sign their own names to their questionnaires brought to light a condition so serious that two Southern Representatives at Washington are now introducing bills to promote the education of illiterates throughout the length and breadth of America. Senator Hoke Smith, of Georgia, has introduced a bill in the Senate "to promote the education of illiterates, of persons unable to understand and use the English language, and other resident persons of foreign birth," and the same measure has been introduced in the House by Hon. William B. Bankhead, of Alabama.

The introduction of this important bill means a great deal to the South, which, because of its negroes and mountain whites, has long borne a reputation for illiteracy out of proportion to that of the rest of the country. Just what steps will be immediately taken as the result of the passage of the education of illiterates bill at Washington cannot be stated at this time, but, certainly, practical measures will be put into operation for the establishment of schools in both rural districts and cities.

Other organizations besides that of the government are at work on the same problem—the establishment of schools in the heart of tenement districts and rural communities being a matter of first importance with all of them. One of the most significant movements of the times in this connection is that of the Centenary of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, because that denomination will expend within the next five years over $3,000,000 among the uneducated classes in the Southern and Western States. The church is to raise a fund of $35,000,000 in an eight-day drive in April, the financial campaign being a part of the Centenary Celebration of the denomination. The money is being raised with a view to putting the work of the church on a business basis, the church considering its duty among the matters of first importance which it should undertake. A survey has been made and the result of the campaign will be the apportionment of $3,000,000 among the various illiterate populations as follows: Mountain population, $750,000; Immigrant, $900,000; negroes, $600,000; Indians, $150,000; cotton mill population, $150,000; Christian literature for all of them, $100,000. With the definite step undertaken at Washington, with one denomination already completing its plans for furthering the work among them, and with other churches and organizations getting ready to join hands in their behalf, it is more than possible that the illiterates of the South are in a fair way to soon become educated citizens of the United States.

The "Green Flag" Smile

Is the Smile Worth While? The Smile that "Won't come off!"

There was a time when he didn't smile, When he drove his motor car; For the engine knocked and thumped and bucked, And gave him a terrible "jar!"

It's different now, when he takes the wheel, And starts for his daily spin; He uses "GREEN FLAG" to lubricate, And his car runs as smooth as a pin.

There are two great essentials in lubrication. First, the quality of the OIL, and second, the correct grade or "body" for your particular car.

The "GREEN FLAG" MOTOR OIL supplies these two great essentials. It is the highest quality Motor Oil, and is made in varying grades of consistency to meet the requirements of your particular motor. Your dealer has a chart that guides you to selection.

The quality of "GREEN FLAG" is all the guide you need as to a CHOICE of motor oil. Keep it in your mind, always, that you can not exercise too much care in the selection of a motor oil; the correct grade; and never try to run your car without a full supply in the lubrication box. Then you'll keep smiling like the man in the picture.

The following well-known and reliable dealers are exclusive agents for "GREEN FLAG" MOTOR OIL in this country. They guarantee "GREEN FLAG" MOTOR OIL. It will pay you to go out of your way to buy "GREEN FLAG" MOTOR OIL.
