Republican Primary.

The Republicans in the primary have no opposing candidates in the State, except candidates for the presidency, who are Leonard Wood and Hiram Johnson. Republican voters will vote for only one of them.

There are no other candidates to be voted for in the primary Saturday than those named above.

Judge B. F. Long, candidate for the nomination for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court to succeed Judge Geo. H. Brown, is a son of Alamance, and his candidacy should appeal to Alamance voters. His learning, ability and experience are qualities which preeminently fit him for a place on the highest court of the State. Many Alamance voters will take pleasure in voting for him Saturday.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the Democrats of Alamance County:

I announce that I am and will be a candidate for the nomination for Senator from this Senatorial District. "My many friends" have not been to me and urged me to become a candidate. I have the desire to succeed myself.

I am deeply grateful for the support I have received in the past. I have represented Alamance county in the Legislature, 1911 and 1913 and in the Senate in 1917. I shall do my best in the future.

Truly yours,
J. ELMER LONG.

State's Motor Car Growth.

North Carolina today has 120,000 licensed motor vehicles and 1,110 dealers. This is an increase of fifty per cent over the corresponding period last year, in the number of cars. Of the 120,000 cars registered, 109,000 are passenger cars and 10,500 are trucks, while there are 1,650 licensed motorcycles.

These figures show that the State during the first nine months of the present fiscal year has registered 40,400 more motor vehicles than were registered during the whole of last year.

The first automobile licensed in North Carolina was on Feb. 1, 1919.

Crude fiber bought as a hog feed makes expensive fertilizer.

WRIT OF SEIZURE OF STORED SUGAR

POSSSION OF 600 BARRELS SUGAR IS DENIED ROSE HILL SPECULATORS.

HAVE VIOLATED LEVER ACT

Writ Charles Individuals and Firms With Hoarding, Holding, Storing and Delivering Contrary to Law.

Raleigh. The largest seizure of sugar in the South since the Lever Act became operative, occurred at Rose Hill, in Duplin county, when Department of Justice agents took charge of 600 barrels of granulated sugar consigned to J. G. Townsend & Co. of Selbyville, Delaware, Assistant United States District Attorney H. P. Whitehurst swore out a libel of information and a writ of seizure against the "Six Hundred Barrels of Sugar, Oscar Fussell, J. G. Townsend & Co. and J. G. Townsend, Jr." and Deputy Marshal Tomlinson proceeded from Raleigh to serve the papers and take possession of the sugar for the government.

The libel of information charges Oscar Fussell, of Rose Hill, J. G. Townsend & Co., and J. G. Townsend, Jr., with willfully hoarding, holding, storing and storing five carloads of sugar in violation of provisions of the Lever Act, and that the sugar was removed from the usual course of trade to inflate the market and increase prices.

The writ of seizure authorized the confiscation and holding of the sugar until further orders from Federal court of the eastern district.

Statements of Candidates. Reports from all seekers after nomination in the Democratic primaries, save Cameron Morrison, gubernatorial candidate, and F. P. Harding, lieutenant gubernatorial candidate, have been filed with the secretary of state. Mr. Morrison telegraphed that his statement had been mailed, but it had not been delivered from the hands of Burlington's employes. Nothing has been heard from Senator Harding about how much money he has spent.

Robert N. Page sent in his expense account, reporting the expenditure of $5,268.50. Mostly Mr. Page bought stamps and mailed letters to the voters, stamps to the number of $1,550. Other items were Office help, $895; advertisements, $98.75; printing and buttons, 1,238.75; office rent, $77.70; traveling expenses of managers, $160.75. State Senator W. B. Cooper, of Wilmington, who is campaigning for the lieutenant governorship, filed an account of $915.

Considerable money is being spent down in the Seventh district by the contestants after the Congressional nomination. W. C. Hammer, of Asheville, admits of having spent the sum of $1,456.93. J. C. M. Vann files an account of $2,398.60.

Many Road Projects
The state highway commissioner's office announces that there are now under construction in North Carolina sixteen projects of the hard surfaced roads aggregating 92.37 miles at a cost of $2,857,967.13; 29 projects of gravel or topsoil roads aggregating 267.7 miles at a cost of $3,277,414.15; one bridge, over the Neuse river between Goldsboro and Mount Oliver at a cost of $49,942.72.

This total of 45 projects, including 92.37 miles, totalling $1,296.27. The commission reports the completion of six projects of hard surfaced roads, including 16.97 miles, costing $507,379.69; seven gravel projects including 60.94 miles, costing $1,171,867.87; and a bridge over the Catawba river between Mecklenburg and Gaston counties, costing $59,224.90.

Indian Bill Introduced
Washington. — (Special) — Representative Weaver introduced a bill providing for allotting Indian lands in western North Carolina to the Cherokee Indians. The measure was referred to committee.

Examination for Carriers
The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for the county of Wake to be held at Raleigh June 26 to fill the position of rural carrier at Cary, Wilson Springs, Zebulon, and any vacancies that may arise in rural routes from other post offices in Wake county. The examination will be open only to citizens that are actually domiciled in the territory of a post office in the county and who meet the other requirements set forth in Form No. 1877. Both men and women may enter.

Governor Admits Defeat
There are some few things that cannot do a governor of North Carolina even do. The present chief executive of the commonwealth can make about the best speech of anybody in the state and when it comes to convincing opponents of his re-election scheme, there is nobody who can be more confounding. He seldom meets defeat, infrequently admits that he is licked, but he met an antagonist up in the mountains last week that put him to rout. It was no mere man but a mountain cayuse, or horse.

Cataract Cannot Be Cured
With Local Applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease, cataract is a condition which can only be cured by surgical means. In order to cure it you must take an internal remedy. Hall's Cataract Medicine is taken internally and acts through the blood on the internal surface of the eye. It is the best medicine known, and is prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country. It is a compound of some of the best medicines known, combined with some of the best food purifiers. The perfect combination of the ingredients in Hall's Cataract Medicine is what produces such wonderful results in cataract conditions. Send for testimonials free.

Leonard Wood the Man

"He (Wood) has shown himself one of the most useful and patriotic of American public servants, and has made all good Americans his debtor by what he has done."—Roosevelt in Everybody's Magazine.

HIS QUALIFICATIONS

No president of the United States ever went into the White House with the governmental experience Leonard Wood has known. From one end of the world to the other he has studied peoples, their customs, their laws—and has administered these laws.

HE STANDS FOR PEACE

"I stand for universal training because I stand for peace. There will be no conscription for service in universal training."—Leonard Wood.

WOOD STANDS FOR—

"A square deal to labor and a square deal to capital; a wage which, with thrift and industry, will enable a man to live and save.

Co-operation with the farmer and understanding and solution of his problems, the decline of agriculture being one of the greatest troubles of the age.

"Our first word should be 'Steady'; and our next 'Law and Order'."

AUTHORITY ON INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

Leonard Wood knows every section of our country. More, he knows every corner of the world, every people, their customs and beliefs. He is prepared to put our international diplomacy on as firm and efficient basis as any other administrative department.

THE HUMAN SIDE

Wood knows how to appeal to young men. Civilian soldiers of the 89th and 10th divisions, which he trained, all swear by him. One youngster of the 89th declared that every man in the division—and there were 30,000 men in it—had a feeling that Leonard Wood was looking after his interests personally. And so he was, but of course, with thousands of soldiers under his charge the great triumph was that without making any attempt to do so, Wood was able to impress the individual soldier with the feeling that he had his welfare at heart and would see to it that everything possible and proper would be done for him.

NO BITTERNESS OR RANCOR

Leonard Wood, the man who did more than anyone else to prepare America for the war, naturally hoped for a part in the direction of the active forces. He didn't get it, as all America knows. When his commanders told him to stay in America and train recruits, he answered: "I will!"

WOOD'S WORDS

"Keep your feet on the ground and your eyes on God, American people."

"America wants no autocracy of capital and no autocracy of labor. We are one people."

"Our teachers, builders of the ship of state, must be paid adequately."

"The Red Flag never flies over a farm house. We must encourage agriculture."

"Verbal message cannot long rule an unruly world."

"America first—and a long way first!"

State Primary Saturday, June 5th, 1920.

SOUTH IS TURNING AGAINST GLOMEL

Mr. Dodson, the "Liver Toner" Man, Responsible for Change For the Better.

Every druggist in town has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. "Dodson's Liver Toner is taking its place."

Forty per cent of the PEOPLE OF THE SOUTH HALF SICK, HE STATES

John Pomeroy, Noted New Zealand Scientist, Says American People Treat Their Stomachs With Too Little Respect.

Forty per cent of the people of the South are half-sick and fully ninety per cent of these can attribute their sufferings to stomach troubles.

Such are the main points in Pomeroy's new theory which has stirred Memphis, Greensboro, Atlanta and other Southern cities where he has visited during the past few weeks. "This is due to modern conditions," he explained in Greensboro recently.

"These people," he went on, "have run-down, overworked digestive organs, owing to too little exercise in the fresh air and too much hastily eaten food. It isn't kidney trouble, or nervousness, or liver complaint, or dozens of other diseases invented by their imaginations."

"One man called on me last week and started our conversation by saying: 'My stomach is on the bum.' I could think of a more elegant way to describe the condition of modern Americans, but none more accurate or expressive. These half-sick people today have digestive organs that are 'on the bum.' "Sometimes when I see on the street a tired looking man or woman, with dull eyes and sallow complexion, I feel like saying: 'Say, I know what's the matter with you. I can help you if you will do as I tell you.' "A sound digestive apparatus that is doing its full duty in getting every particle of vitality out of the food is what makes good health. Only keep the stomach in condition and there is likely to be but little sickness."

"It is the American tendency to treat the stomach with too little respect. Most people stuff themselves with too much food, and then when the digestive organs get out of order, are half-sick all the time, and don't know what is the matter with them. My medicine, Puratone, restores misused or 'out of whack' stomachs to normal condition and destroys chronic constipation. Thousands of people say that this is the reason for my big success and explains why I am now attracting such an unusual amount of attention all over the South."

Puratone is sold in Graham exclusively by Farrell-Hayes Drug Co. and one leading druggist in every town.

Success With Sweet Potatoes.

Agricultural Extension Service, Raleigh.

IV. Transplanting. Successful commercial growers of sweet potatoes claim that careful transplanting of well-grown plants is one of the secrets of success with this crop.

Careless setting often damages the crop very materially by the loss of a stand and the slow weak growth that follows. The secret of good transplanting depends upon putting the plants deep into the soil with the roots of the plant in close contact with moist earth and then firmly pressing the soil to the plant.

Several hours before the plants are drawn the bed should be thoroughly watered. In pulling plants, hold the seed potato down with one hand while the slips are being removed. Only good stocky sprouts six or more inches in length should be taken, the smaller slips being left for a later drawing.

"Pudding" the roots by dipping them in a batter made of clay and water will help to save the vitality of the plants. Pack the plants in baskets with the roots in one direction and the basket covered to prevent wilting.

After the plants have been pulled, water the bed to settle the soil. When slips are not set after a rain, many growers believe that the plants will get a quicker start if they are watered. Transplanting machines that automatically water each plant as it is set can be used to advantage in setting large areas.

Plants are generally set 18 inches apart in rows 3 feet apart with 9,650 plants to an acre. For the early crop, plants may be set after all danger of frost has passed, but for the storage crop settings made from the 25 of May until the middle of June generally give the best results.

MAKE WORK EASIER

Graham People Are Pleased to Learn How It Has Been Done. It's pretty hard to attend to duties with a constantly aching back; with annoying urinary disorders. Doan's Kidney Pills make work easier for many a sufferer. They're for bad backs. For weak kidneys. Here is convincing proof of merit. W. T. Jeffreys, Burlington, N. C., R. No. 9, says: "My work is pretty hard on the back and kidneys and sometimes I was so miserable I could not bend over. The pains in my back were so severe that I had to stop work. I heard a lot about Doan's Kidney Pills, so I got a box and took them according to directions. They relieved the misery and it pleases me to give this recommendation." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Jeffreys had. Foster-McBarn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

More food for more population means increased acre yields and that means more improved methods unless costs of products are to steadily increase.

Noah Webster's Story Revised.

It all depends on whose ox is gored, as Mr. Noah Webster once said in a charming little story.

Farmer Johnson Smithfield—call him that for short—had 35 chickens—that he wanted to sell. He hauled them to town, was offered 19 cents a pound for them, refused to take it, and was hauling them back home when he met the county agent, who advised him to ship them to a near-by city, where, he believed, they would bring 22 cents a pound or more. Smithfield said he never had shipped any chickens, that he didn't believe in new-fangled ways, and that he would take the chickens back home. The county agent was so sure of his ground that he offered to guarantee Smithfield 22 cents, and on his personal responsibility paid the farmer the money in advance—$92.62.

About a week later the county agent met Smithfield and suggested that they settle up the chicken deal. "Well, how did it come out?" inquired Farmer Smithfield. "I lost $5," said the county agent, "and, of course, you are going to share it with me." "No, sir," said Smithfield, "it turned out exactly as I thought it would, and I am under no obligations to bear any of the loss." "Well," said the county agent, "I just wanted to see how you felt about it. Here is the check, $42.21, which is $9.59 more than I paid you. I got 28 cents a pound for those chickens instead of 22 cents."

Now, to follow the sequence of Mr. Webster's story, we would have to make Farmer Johnson Smithfield demand the turning over of that $9.59 to him; but it didn't come out that way. The county agent offered to do exactly that thing, but Farmer Smithfield said, "I won't have it that way; you keep half the profit and I'll take half. You have taught me a lesson that will be worth a great deal more than that to me and my neighbors whenever the local dealers refuse to pay us what our produce is worth."

That is not an imaginary story. The United States Department of Agriculture vouches for it and backs it up with the records of the Office of Extension Work in the South.

The sweet potato is on a "personally conducted tour" of the State in a special car—the conductors say the sweet potato is going to help lick the boll weevil.

Hog feed, hauled, toted, freighted, wholesaled and retailed may still be cheaper than you can raise it, if so the chap who produced it must be a pretty good farmer.

MEET THE DE VEYRA FAMILY!
They Are Putting the Philippines on the Map in Washington

Mrs. Jaime C. de Veyra, Who Has Just Been Re-elected as Philippine Commissioner to the U. S. Important Work for Her People in America.

THE CHILDREN OF THE PHILIPPINE COMMISSIONER. The Baby of This Group Speaks Three Languages—Visayan, Spanish and English.

Permit us to present the De Veyra family. The Hon. Jaime C. de Veyra is the Resident Commissioner from the Philippine Islands to the United States and has just been elected to a second term of three years. As Resident Commissioner he has a seat on the floor of the American Congress, the privilege of taking part in debates, although no vote.

Commissioner de Veyra has an interesting wife and four bright Filipino kiddies. The De Veyra family, individually and collectively, constitute the best argument as to the tact and capabilities of Filipinos that the Philippine Islands have in Washington.

The commissioner is a 100 per cent Filipino, a Visayan, and is one of the foremost leaders of the party in power in the islands. During American occupation he has been successively governor of his province, member of the Philippine legislature, cabinet member and executive secretary of the islands.

Like many statesmen of the Philippines, he was originally a newspaper man. He was one of the founders of El Nuevo Dia, of Cebu, the first Filipino paper published advocating Philippine independence. The paper came under the censorship of General McArthur, and on the appearance of the first number the editors were left in the singular position of seeing every article he had previously written published in the Philippine Islands.

Mrs. de Veyra, like her husband, is a "live wire" in the Philippines cause. She is the best known Filipina in America. She is an interesting public speaker and is constantly giving illustrated lectures at women's clubs and other gatherings. Mrs. de Veyra is a publicity bureau all in herself and has put the Philippines on the map, so far as the women folk of Washington congressional circles are concerned.

"I find that the Filipino people have been much misrepresented in the United States," says Mrs. de Veyra. "I do not mean to infer we are perfect, for we are not. My people have most of the defects, I suppose, that other humans have, but at the same time we are far from the people that many Americans have been made to believe. Not only are we a Christian people, but our race has a history that we are not ashamed of. Throughout the Philippine Islands the people are now working earnestly to improve themselves and their conditions so they will be prepared to take over their own affairs. We all love America for giving us a chance to help ourselves and for having promised us our independence, which is one of the dearest desires of the entire citizenship of the islands."

To American women whose ideas of Filipinos have been founded on Sunday supplement descriptions of wild tribes, Mrs. de Veyra's gentle manner and evident culture have been a revelation. She is sought by women's clubs because of her charming manner as an impromptu speaker on the subject nearest her heart—the women of her country.

At a recent Washington gathering she gave a perfect English translation of the work of a woman's club in Manila which supplies milk to the babies of the poor and trains mothers to care for their young children. She told of another woman's club which has branches all over the Philippine Islands and which maintains day schools for the children of the revolution. She is charming by women's clubs because of her thoughtful manner as an impromptu speaker on the subject nearest her heart—the women of her country.

The four little De Veyras, shown in the picture, having attended the public schools in Manila, slipped right into the same grades in the schools of Washington. Even little Mary, the baby of the family, speaks three languages—her native tongue, Spanish and English.

Worn Down, Out of Heart

Georgia Lady, Worn-out and Tired, Tells How She Was Helped by Ziron Iron Tonic.

THE personal experience of Mrs. Nannie Phillips, of Powder Springs, Ga., is printed below in her own words: "I was in a worn-out condition. My stomach was out of order. I didn't sleep well. I was tired all the time. I couldn't eat, and didn't rest well at night. "I would get out of heart and blue. I would feel like I was going to be down in bed. Yet I kept dragging around."

"We heard of Ziron, and from what I read, I was sure it wouldn't hurt me. It didn't help me. But after taking it, I found it really helped me, and I sent back for more. I ate better, felt much stronger. I am sure Ziron is a splendid tonic."

Many people, who are worn down and disheartened, due to stomach disorders and nervous ill, find relief by toning up their blood with Ziron Iron Tonic. Tell your druggist you want to try Ziron on our money-back guarantee.
