SATURDAY'S PRIMARY.

In the state-wide primary held last Saturday the tabulated vote shows the following result in Alamance:

For U. S. Senator : Overman 475, Brooks 326.

For Gov.: Gardner 488, Mor rison 137, Page 182.

Lieut.-Gov.: Harding 179, Cooper 564. Auditor: Durham 264, Mc

Donald 100, Boyd 53, Cook 244, Woodley 71. Treas,: Lacy 597, Renfrow

Com'r of Agriculture : Graham 595, Thompson 161. Com'r of Labor and Printing Shipman 525, Dellinger 181. Com'r of Insurance : Wade 495, McClenaghan 47, Underwood 167. Associate Justices of the Su preme Court: Hoke 386, Gulley 39, Guion 34, Rouse 38, Long 632, Adams 89, Stacy 176.

The Republicans voted for two candidates for the presidency: Wood and Johnson, 22 for the Red Cross; Commissioner R. former and 193 for latter.

The results show that Overman is chosen by a large majority. In the race for Governor Page is eliminated. Morrison and Gardner ran side by side and it is not yet determined who is in the lead. Cooper is in the lead for Lieut.-Gov. Lacy, Shipman and Graham are nominated. Hoke is nominated and the race in next primary will be between Stacy and Long as it now appears. There Governor and Auditor.

From the reports the vote was light in most counties throughout the State.

It is a matter of sincere re gret by many people outside the first Congressional district that Congressman John H. Small was defeated for the nomination by Hallett S. Ward in the pri- Professor Koch's direction, a musi mary last Saturday. Mr. Small cal festival under Prof. Weaver's had been in Congress for twenty years and had attained a commanding position of influence, usefulness and service. As the champion of the Inland Waterway he had done much and was destined to do greater things yet. The people often make the mistake of turning down their congressmen who have given long years of faithful and effective service for another who comes with fair other/ who comes with fair date for Representative in the General Assembly, subject to the action a long way off or may never be of the Democratic party in Alamance realized. Opens June 22-Largest Attendan in 33 Years-All Cannot be Accommodated.

Chapel Hill, N. C., June 8.

"Indications point to the largest attendance at the University sum-mer school in its 33 years," said Professor N. W. Walker, director, today. "Every room in the college dormitories has already been taken and most of the available coms in town have been asked for. More than 1,000 applications are already in and as more are being received every day, it is probable that the record of 1,052 students in 1916 will be passed. We shall have to turn away several hundred students who want to attend summer school.'

The school will begin June 22, one week after commencement, and will last six weeks, closing August 5. The special institutes public welfare will continue until September 13. In addition there will be a special institute for commercial secretaries, prob-ably in August, an institute for child welfare, and the second meeting of the State and county

Many applications from outside the State have been received for the new public welfare institutes conducted jointly by the University school of public welfare and the southern division of the Red Cross for social workers. Special leccurers at this institute will include Dr. Samuel McC. indsay of Columbia University; Dr. Bernard Glueck of the Ne ork School of Social Work; Dr. Frank P. Watson, director of the Pennsylvania School for Social Service; Drs. E. L. Morgan, J. F. Steiner, and Joseph C. Logan o

F. Beasley, Dr. W. S. Rankin, Superintendent E. C. Brooks, and In the summer school proper for teachers and college students the University faculty will be supplemented by Professors J. F. Royster of the University of Texas, Harry Clark of the University of Tennessee, W. C. George of the University of Georgia, George W. Hunter of Carleton College, Stuart G. Noble of Millsaps College, E. L. Fox of Randolph-Macon, and by Supervisor L. C. Brogden, Superintendent H. B. Morrow of Smithfield, John J. Blair of Wil-mington, E. D. Pusey of Durham, will also be a second primary to determine the nominations for of Central High School, St. Paul, Helen A. To the Democrats of Alamar County:

IGLOO HOME SUITS ESKIMO

The movements to modernize the Eskimo by providing him with concrete huts in place of his picturesque snow igloos, as suggested by an official of the United States bureau of fisheries, would be the death of the denizens of the ley North, in the opinion of Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the arctic explorer. Not only in the Eskimo devoted to his age-long habitation, as the South sea islanders are to their traditional garb of flower garlands and fresh smiles, but he is far heaithler, fresh smiles, but he is far healthler, warmer and more comfortable in his domed mansion of snow blocks than he could be in any modern house of concrete.

The statement that the natives of the Pribliof islands were about to discard their snow huts for modern concrete huts, finding the gales of the Bering sea too strong for the former, upon which the story of the intended change of Eskimo habits was based, Mr. Stefansson characterized as too silly for discussion. The explorer, talking at his headquarters at the National Geographical society building at New Geographical society building at New York, said that the Pribliof islanders had never lived in snow huts, but in wooden huts, and that farther north, where the natives do live in snow houses, it would be next to impossible to convert them to any other dwell-

"Their igloo serves as a home for two or three weeks," he said. "Then they build a new one. Because it is new it is clean and sanitary. It is as warm and comfortable as your library. A candle gives as much illumination as three electric lights, because of the intense whiteness of the snow. The snowhouse will stand under any conditions. In all, the igloo is as comfortable a home as a man could wish." able a home as a man could wish."

Men Who Discovered the Famous Co stock Lode Profited Little by Their Great Luck.

The famous Comstock lode, greatest of silver deposits, was discovered in 1859 by three prospectors, Pete O'-Riley, Pat McLaughlin, and "Old Pancake" Comstock, while washing grave for gold. They were in hard luck. Needing water for their rockers, they dug a hole four feet deep and came upon a bed of sulphide of silver. Not knowing what it was they tried it for gold, with highly satisfactory results, though cursing the "infernal blue sand" that clogged their primitive ap-

The blue sand was an outcropping of the wonderful lode, one vein of which, 300 feet wide, came afterward to be known as the "Big Bonanza," yielding ore that was nearly half silver. From this source were derived the multimil-lions of Mackay, Flood, O'Brien and Fair—the last-named being a young ining engineer, while the other thre were everyday miners. The discoverers sold out for small sums. "Old Pancake" blew out his brains; O'Riley went inane and McLaughlin died a poor man.

Dancing Craze Affects Scotland.
The dancing craze has reached such proportions, even in sober Scotland, that it came up before the Inverness magistrates. Baille Petrie, who favored restriction before, said he would not now oppose dancing to four o'clock in the morning, because after considering the question, he considerd the evils which he had in view were not the direct outcome of those dances. Baille MacAllen moved that dancing be restricted to two o'clock, but it was agreed that it should be parmitted until four o'clock.
