

THE GLEANER

ISSUED EVERY THURSDAY. J. D. KERNODLE, Editor. $1.00 A YEAR, IN ADVANCE.

The Democratic National Convention will meet in San Francisco, California, on Monday, June 28th.

Wisconsin Republicans refuse to support Harding. He is not progressive enough to suit the disciples of LaFollette.

Harding's nomination and the platform fail to cause rejoicing in the households of the big and influential Republican papers in the North.

Morrison led Gardner 87 votes in the State according to the official count—nose and nose race that. Now these two, Page having been eliminated, will try it over in a second primary, for which both are now on the stump and warming up.

Harding's Record.

Warren G. Harding has always been a resident of Ohio, which State he has represented as United States senator since 1914.

He was born on a farm, near the village of Blooming Grove, Morrow county, Ohio, November 2, 1865, the eldest of eight children. His father, George T. Harding, was a country doctor whose forebears came from Scotland.

In his youth Warren Harding lived the life of a farmer boy attending the village school until 14 years of age, when he entered Ohio Central College of Iberia, from which he was graduated. As editor of the college paper he first displayed a talent for journalism.

At odd times he worked in the village printing office, in time becoming an expert typesetter and later a linotype operator. He is a practical pressman and a job printer, and is a "make up man" as it is said to have few equals.

On the paper Warren Harding performed every function from devil to managing editor. In all the years the Senator has owned it there has never been a strike or a threatened one.

Senator Harding is closely identified with many other large business enterprises in Marion and other parts of the State. He is director of a bank and several large manufacturing plants and is a trustee of the Trinity Baptist church.

Mr. Harding has twice represented the 13th senatorial district of Ohio in the State legislature and served one term as lieutenant governor.

ANNOUNCEMENT. To the Democrats of Alamance County: I announce that I am and will be a candidate for the nomination for Senator from this Senatorial District.

Candidate Warren G. Harding.

New York World. A more respectable figurehead than Warren G. Harding has never been nominated for President of the United States by either party.

Senator Harding is the perfect flower of Old Guard politics. He is an Ohio country politician with the mind of an Ohio country politician, and he sees the world through the eyes of an Ohio country politician.

The Republican platform adopted at Chicago is perhaps the best index to the Harding mind. Whoever is curious to know the mental processes of the Republican candidate has only to read that platform.

The Senator's friends are fond of comparing him with McKinley, but the resemblance is mainly superficial. Both came out of Ohio, but if Harding is a McKinley he is a McKinley without McKinley's personal charm.

Of all the candidates whose names were presented to the Chicago convention or who were within the range of the convention's choice, Harding, with the exception of Johnson and Poindexter, fell the furthest short of measuring up to the requirements of a President in this critical time.

Senator Harding was nominated because the Old Guard Republicans want a President to whom they can give orders—a President who will take orders.

UNIVERSITY 125th COMMENCEMENT. Many Learned Addresses—150 Graduates, Largest Class—Reunion of Graduates from '60 to Date.

Chapel Hill, N. C., June 16.—Secretary of State Bainbridge Colby's address, closely listened to by a crowd that filled the huge sweep of Memorial Hall, on Wednesday morning, June 16, was the climax of the 125th commencement at the University of North Carolina.

The commencement exercises brought to a formal close what old-timers at Chapel Hill said was the biggest commencement they had ever seen. For four days, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, the seniors, alumni, students, and many visitors had enjoyed a round of last meetings, reunions, festive gatherings, and had listened to addresses on nearly every possible subject.

ANNOUNCEMENT. I announce that I am and will be a candidate for the nomination for Senator from this Senatorial District. "My many friends" have not been to me and urged me to become a candidate. I have the desire to succeed myself.

many old boys, from the Confederate veterans of 1860, coming back for their 60th reunion, to the youngest of last year, only one year out in the world. Walter Murphy, '92, speaker of the lower house of the general assembly, presided at the annual alumni luncheon, and talks were made by Major E. J. Hale, '60; Dr. R. H. Lewis, '70; Thomas H. Battle, '80; ex-Judge S. C. Brajcar, '90; J. O. Carr, '95; W. S. Bernard, '00; W. T. Shores, '05; D. B. Teague, '10; R. G. Eitzgerald, '15; and Luther Hodges, '10.

R. D. W. Connor, president of the alumni association, presided at the business meeting, at which President Chase made the principal address. Great interest centered around the presence of six alumni from the class of 1860, Major W. A. Graham of Raleigh, Major Hale and Charles Haigh of Fayetteville, Captain John R. Thorpe of Rocky Mount, Thomas W. Davis of Raleigh, and R. A. Bullock of Henderson.

Mrs. Daniels at International Woman Suffrage Congress. In her speech before the International Woman Suffrage Congress at Geneva, Switzerland, Mrs. Josephus Daniels, official delegate from the United States Government, said:

"It is my glad privilege to bring to this gathering the greetings of the women of America (and of the men of my country, too) and to rejoice that the good day of woman's equal participation in governmental house-keeping has come in our generation. Appointed by President Wilson, under whose forward-looking leadership the cause of woman suffrage in the United States has come to fruition, I am bringing to you his greeting and felicitations and his confident belief that enfranchised woman will bring fresh and spiritual ideas to aid in the solution of pressing world problems.

"The women in America were as truly mobilized in the world war as were the men. We organized no Battalions of Death and we were not enrolled in the fighting forces. But we organized many battalions of life and service, happy to be comrades in spirit and sacrifice of our brothers whose valor on sea and land helped us to win victory for all we held dear.

Summons by Publication

NORTH CAROLINA, Alamance County. In the Superior Court. W. C. Thurston, Plaintiff, vs. S. R. Thompson, Defendant.

The defendant above named will take notice that the plaintiff above named has caused summons to be issued against him, and has filed a complaint against said defendant, and in said complaint has asked the Court for a judgment in favor of plaintiff and against defendant, in the sum of $5,442.52. That said claim is based upon the alleged failure of the defendant to ship and deliver to plaintiff certain cotton of the kind and quality alleged to have been purchased by the plaintiff from the defendant, and a consequent loss to the plaintiff of the amount above sued for.

At the time of the issuing of said summons, the plaintiff sued out, and there was issued by the Court a warrant of attachment directed to the Sheriff of Guilford county, North Carolina, which warrant of attachment was duly levied by said Sheriff of Guilford county upon 103 bales of cotton held by the Greensboro Warehouse & Storage Company of Guilford county, North Carolina, being to defendant and stored in said Warehouse & Storage Company in the name of defendant.

Said summons and warrant of attachment, by order of this Court continuing the original return day, have been made returnable Monday, July 19, 1920, and the defendant is required to appear and answer or demur to the complaint on said return day, or the relief demanded will be granted. Done at office in Graham, this 11th day of June, 1920. D. J. WALKER, Clerk Superior Court. Parker & Long Atty's. 17June4t

Gained Ten Pounds. Before Taking ZIRON, Alabama Man Was Weak, Nervous, Had No Appetite, But is Now Strong. EVERY man and woman, who is in a run-down, weak condition, with bad complexion and poor appetite, due to lack of iron in their blood, should find Ziron helpful and strengthening. It is a scientific, reconstructive tonic, composed of ingredients recommended by leading medical authorities. Describing his experience with Ziron, Mr. George W. S. Lanier writes from Jones, Ala.: "Sometimes back, I was in a terrible condition. I was weak and nervous, and had a tired feeling all the time. My skin was muddy. I had no appetite, and at morning I didn't feel like getting up. I was running of Ziron and decided I would try it. "Will say that Ziron is a good medicine. I have gained ten pounds in four months. Am strong and have a good appetite." Ziron is a mild iron tonic, good for young and old. It helps to restore the system, when run-down by overwork, under-nourishment, caused by stomach or bowel disorders, or as a result of some weakening illness. Get Ziron from your druggist.
