LOCAL NEWS.

—Scott-Mebane Mfg. Co.'s sewing mill, after the usual summer vacation, started again Monday.

—It began raining early this morning and continued showery till about noon. It was needed.

—Mrs. Walter R. Harden entertained last Friday evening in honor of her guests, Misses Eunice McAdams of Salisbury and Marie Reid of Staunton, Va.

—At a special conference of Graham Christian church last Friday night, Rev. F. C. Lester was given a unanimous call to serve the church for another year.

—Rev. L. U. Weston is at Pinebluff near Walnut Cove assisting in a series of meetings, and on account of his absence his appointment to conduct the union service on Baptist church lawn next Sunday evening will be filled by Rev. F. C. Lester.

—The Philathea Class of Graham Christian church gave a picnic last Saturday evening at Swepsonville. In addition to the Philatheas, a large number of the Sunday school scholars and members of the church were in attendance. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

—This is the first Thursday in August and, according to a custom older than the oldest citizen, it is the day for sowing turnip seed. Only a few more crops can be planted which will fruit before the coming of cold weather. The turnip is one of them and perhaps the most important one. Everyone who can should sow liberally. Turnips are a desirable and wholesome food for both man and beast. And after the winter is past the salad from the turnips which stand the cold weather forth is a much relished diet.

County Commissioners' Proceedings.

The Board met Monday with all members present.

At a joint meeting of the Board of Commissioners and of Education Dr. P. H. Fleming was re-elected Public Welfare Officer for the next year at a salary of $125.00 per month as heretofore.

E. C. Rumbly made return for local school tax election in Highland district, which showed six voting for and twenty-nine against.

Ferguson-Henderson.

Yesterday evening at 8 o'clock at the Presbyterian Manse Miss Nell Ferguson and Mr. I. J. Henderson were united in marriage, Rev. E. N. Caldwell performing the ceremony. The sitting room at the Manse had been prettily decorated for the occasion. A number of the friends of the bride and groom were present. Miss Louise Moore presided at the piano and before the ceremony Mrs. Wm. I. Ward sang "Because." Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left by auto for Greensboro to take the train for Asheville where they will spend their honeymoon. Upon their return they will reside here at the home of the groom. Both have many friends who wish for them years of happiness and prosperity.

Buy Your Coal Now.

I have some good coal on hand now. It is very hard to get and my advice to you is to buy your coal while you can get it. I can make prompt deliveries now. Come to see me or phone me for kind and prices.

Thanking you in advance for your business, I remain,
Yours truly,
T. C. MOON.

Peaches for Canning and Preserving.

We will have nice peaches of good size and quality for canning and preserving through the season. Some ready now. Apply to Melville Farm, Haw River. Phone 2512.

Appreciated.

THE GLEANER is pleased to acknowledge and appreciate the pleasant things said about it in its new and enlarged form. It is now an eight-page paper. Heretofore it has been a four-page paper. In the change the paper was increased almost 50 percent in size, notwithstanding the pages were reduced in both width and length. The change was made in order to give its patrons a better paper, and that effort has brought words of commendation which is very much appreciated.

PERSONAL.

Music Recital and Readings.

On Friday afternoon of last week the First and Second Grade pupils of Mrs. W. A. Rich's music class gave a recital at the home of the teacher. A very enjoyable program was rendered. The prizes for the best work during the summer were awarded to Mabel Moore and Ellie May Guthrie.

Edith Moon, Ruth Forlines and Mildred Trolinger of the Expression class gave a number of readings. About twenty-five pupils took part in the exercises.

After the musical program, Miss Eunice Rich delightfully entertained the little folks with several musical readings.

Town Taxes!

I have been appointed Tax Collector for the town of Graham and the books have been placed in my hands.

I have been directed to collect all delinquent taxes without delay.

See me and save costs.

DESK IS INTERESTING RELIC

On It Was Written Letter Which Negotiated for the Province of Maine.

A desk now owned by Mrs. E. C. Carril of 16 East Chestnut street, Augusta, Me., first saw the light of day on the bay of Campeachy, in Mexico, hundreds of years ago, and was first owned by Daniel Gookin in 1620. On the writing slab of this desk a letter was one day written by this ancestor of this Augusta lady in which Daniel Gookin negotiated with Ferdinand Gorges for purchase of Gorges' claim to the province of Maine. Thus it read: "Though a stranger to you, you may have heard my name, because my father, who bore the same name, was intimately acquainted with your father, Sir Ferdinand Gorges." In 1687 the affair was settled, the Gorges claim purchased for $1,250.

The Gookins originally came from England. Captain Gookin, his family and Reverend Thompson went to Maryland to live, acquiring land near Annapolis. But the captain wanted to live among the Puritans, so, leaving servants to care for his plantation, he sailed for Boston. This was after 1639. Six days after arriving in Boston, Capt. Daniel Gookin, tall, grave, robust, dignified gentleman of thirty-one years, was admitted to the First Church of Boston.

A RELIEF

"What did father say when you asked permission to marry me? Did he readily consent?"
"Consent? I'll say he did. He seemed relieved."

CHILDREN AVERT PANIC.

A Jefferson City paper reports that a panic was averted in the largest motion picture house in the town one night recently by a number of children who occupied front seats. A terrific storm came up and in the midst of the tempest the lights went out. The crowd in the theater took fright, but the children immediately struck up "Over There," which nearly every one knew, the orchestra took up the tune and presently the entire crowd sang until candles could be brought to light the audience out.—Kansas City Times.

Get Goodyear Value In Tires for Small Cars

Don't be misled by very cheaply priced tires, for tire economy is not a matter of what tires cost originally but of what tire service costs in the end.

True Goodyear mileage and economy are built into Goodyear Tires, of the 30 x 3-, 30 x 3½- and 31 x 4-inch sizes, in the world's largest tire factory devoted to these sizes.

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or other car taking one of these sizes, you can equip it with Goodyear Tires at your nearest Service Station.

Go there for the exceptional value in these tires made possible by Goodyear's resources, experience and demonstrated expertness in tire manufacture.

30 x 3½ Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread $23.50
30 x 3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost no more than the price you are asked to pay for tubes of less merit—why risk costly casings when such sure protection is available? $4.50
