Bill to Regulate Carnivals and Other Shows in Alamance County.

The following bill was passed by the Legislature at its special session:

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. The board of commissioners of any county in North Carolina are hereby authorized and empowered to direct the sheriff of each county to refuse to issue any license to any carnival company and shows of like character, moving picture and vendable shows, museums and menageries, merry-go-rounds and ferris wheels, circuses, and other like amusement enterprises conducted for profit, whether under canvas or not, whenever in the opinion of said board the public welfare will be endangered by the licensing of such shows or exhibitions.

Sec. 2. That this act shall apply only to the county of Alamance.

Sec. 3. That this act shall be in force and effect from and after its ratification.

GO NO FARTHER

The Evidence Is at Your Door.

Graham proof is what you want and the statement of this highly respected resident will banish all doubt.

A. T. Webster, Poplar St., Graham gave the following statement in December, 1917: "I suffered severely from pains across the small of my back and there was a soreness through my kidneys. The kidney secretions were unnatural, too. Finally I used Doan's Kidney Pills and soon was much better in every way. I have had but little pain in my back since and the kidney secretions have cleared up."

On July 12, 1918, Mr. Webster added, "I would not be without Doan's Kidney Pills for anything as I think they are the best kidney medicine on the market. They put me on my feet when I had kidney complaint and I advise anyone who has this trouble to take them."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Webster had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

In Justice to Mr. Morrison.

Raleigh News and Observer.

In a report of Hon. Cameron Morrison's speech at Graham appearing in the News and Observer last Sunday this language was used:

"Butler had searched the State from end to end to find decent men to nominate, but they were not to be had."

Mr. Morrison was not directly represented as using these words but the inference was that he did use them and in justice to him we are printing this statement by him:

"In my speech at Graham I used no language which in any manner reflected on Mr. Parker or other candidates of the Republican party. I was explaining the great difficulty the leaders of the party had in getting good men to run on account of the certainty of their defeat. I explained why Mr. Whitener refused to put up his primary fee of $50 for the nomination for the United States Senate. Every reference of mine to Mr. Parker of a personal character was of a pleasant tenor."

The article was written in great haste to catch an early edition and the correspondent, a member of the editorial staff, in rapidly sketching the various steps in Mr. Morrison's argument, gave a cast to one point that Mr. Morrison's language did not justify. This was done, of course, entirely without malice and in view of Mr. Morrison's statement in the News and Observer without hesitation acknowledges the error in reporting him and expresses its regrets for the incident, an expression in which the correspondent cordially joins.

Crimson Clover Doubles Crops.

W. E. Bowers, in The Progressive Farmer.

Enriching his land to the extent of doubling crop yields in 12 years by growing crimson clover is the significant success of H. H. Arrington, proprietor of the Beechwood Seed Farm, near Rome, Ga. "I attribute the increased production to crimson clover and to crimson clover alone," recently declared Mr. Arrington, "and the good results I have obtained every year from growing the crop on about 250 acres of my cultivated land for hay and for green manure, shows for itself to anyone who visits my farm."

Mr. Arrington is a firm believer in crimson clover. As a cover crop it has given him better results than bur clover or vetch. He says that most good can be had from the crop by growing it on about one-third of the cultivated land of the farm, rotating it over the farm every three years.

This long experienced grower has found crimson clover an excellent cover crop. He says that he has observed that the clover in his fields withstands high water for many days at a time when his vetch and other crops are killed. "One of the greatest assets of crimson clover," says Mr. Arrington, "is the fact that the crop may be cut or plowed under for green manure in time for planting corn. On this large Floyd County farm the practice is followed of cutting the clover for hay off only the best land and only to the extent of getting enough hay for the immediate use of the farm. On the best land where the clover grows very tall, sufficient stubble is left when hay is cut to supply green manure. All the remaining clover is plowed under."

Mr. Arrington was asked whether or not he had any objections to crimson clover hay. His reply was, "Cut it at the proper time and you will get a good hay. I have had no trouble with it during all the time I have been growing and feeding it. I merely cut it at the right stage."

It was not to be expected that Senator Harding would make a very original and surprising speech. It is not in him. He does not belong to the class of national leaders and teachers of humanity. He is an ordinary Republican party man, a soldier who obeys commands and carries out the orders given him.

AMERICAN LEGION OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Second Annual Meeting, Wilmington, September 3-4.

The American Legion, Department of North Carolina, consisting of 112 posts and 6,000 ex-service men, will hold its second annual State Convention in Wilmington, September 3 and 4.

The first session of meeting, presided over by Department Commander John Beasley of Monroe, will be held at one o'clock p. m., Friday, when the various committees will be appointed and delegates registered. The addresses first day by E. G. Cholmely-Jones, Director of Bureau of War Risk Insurance, Washington, D. C., and C. G. Schultz, Director of Vocational Training, Atlanta, Ga.

Saturday's session begins at 9:30 a. m. At this meeting election of officers for coming year and delegates to National Convention at Cleveland, Ohio, will be held; also a place will be voted on for the third annual convention.

The Department desires every post of the Legion in North Carolina represented by delegates as questions of importance will be decided upon. Among them the matter of electing a whole-time Department Adjutant and Finance Officer at a salary that will justify a man to devote his entire time to the work of the American Legion of this State, the publishing of a semi-monthly magazine by the North Carolina Department, the Fordney extra compensation bill, which is expected to come up in the next session of Congress, universal military training, education and good roads.

Dr. E. C. Brooks, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, has accepted an invitation to address the Convention on Saturday. National Commander Franklin D'Olier of Philadelphia, and Hon. James H. Pott of Raleigh have also been invited to speak.

The present officers of the North Carolina Department of the American Legion are: John Beasley, Commander, Monroe, N. C.; Walter Clark, Jr., Vice-Commander, Charlotte, N. C.; Cale K. Burgess, Acting Adjutant and Finance Officer, Raleigh, N. C.; Daniel W. Terry, Publicity Officer, Raleigh, N. C.; and F. O. Clarkson, Historian, Charlotte, N. C.

Mr. Harding says he intends to make "America First" and keep her there. This is to laugh. Mr. Wilson has beat you to it too long ago to talk about it. "America first." Ha! Ha! Our American dollar is worth 25 per cent more than the relative amount of British money, the next strongest financial power in the world, after us, 100 per cent more than the French money, 300 per cent more than Italian money and 700 per cent more than German money. Ah, Mr. Harding, your ridiculous talk makes us stalwart Americans tired.

Every once in a while it becomes clearer that Germany accepted the peace treaty "with reservations."

We see a bank advertise itself as "progressive and conservative." It might confide its formula to Harding.

Grover Shoffner met with a serious accident while remodeling his house. The scaffold gave way, throwing him to the ground; his ankle was fractured besides some slight bruises.

People are all in a rush cutting and curing tobacco. So much rain kept tobacco green and now the sun is hurrying it up.

Oppie Spoon is spending a few days at home.

Alfred Alexander has treated himself to a new Ford.

Quite a number from our community attended the camp meeting at old Bethlehem.

Dr. Bob Burgess is suffering from another stroke of paralysis.

Under the existing income tax law as framed by the Democrats, such men as John D. Rockefeller, Pierpont Morgan and other multimillionaires pay Uncle Sam 2% out of every $3 they get. The Republicans believe in "taking the poor" and allowing the downtrodden right to go free, so long as they furnish the dough for buying the election for Harding.

Well, Mr. Patriot, do you like their program—well then, the only thing to do is to elect that great Progressive "Jimmy" Cox.

Mortgagee's Notice of Sale of Timber.

Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed executed by W. N. Richardson and wife, R. J. Richardson, which said mortgage deed bears date of December 7, 1918, and was duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Alamance county, in Book of Mortgage Deeds No. 75, at page 500, reference to which is hereby made, default having been made in the payment of the debt secured by said mortgage deed, the undersigned mortgagee will sell at public auction at the court house door in Graham, to the highest bidder for cash, on

LIFT CORNS OR CALLUSES OFF

Doesn't hurt! Lift any corn or callus off with fingers

Don't suffer! A tiny bottle of Freezon costs but a few cents at any drug store. Apply a few drops on the corns, calluses and "hard skin" on bottom of feet and then lift them off.

When Freezon removes sores from the toes or calluses from the bottom of the feet the skin beneath is left pink and healthy and never sore, tender or irritated.

Freezon is sold by all drug stores.

VALUABLE HORSE SAVED

Expected Horse Would Die—Now Sleek and Healthy.

In reporting his experience, Mr. J. C. Husted, of Rock Bridge Baths, Va., states: "My horse is the best advertisement you would want for Dr. LeGear's Stock Powders. He was in a run down fix and poor and I thought he would die soon. I got some of Dr. LeGear's Stock Powders—and today he is as fine a looking horse as you can see in this section. I only used a few boxes of Dr. LeGear's Stock Powders."

Mr. Husted benefited by the advice of Dr. LeGear, Graduate Veterinary Surgeon of 27 years' experience. By following the Doctor's treatment, you can keep your stock sleek and healthy. Here's his offer to you. Get a package of Dr. LeGear's Stock Powders from your dealer; feed it to your horses, milk cows, steers, hogs, and sheep as per directions. If after a thorough trial, the results are not satisfactory, just return the empty carton and your money will be cheerfully refunded.
