

Why Suffer?

Cardui "Did Wonders for Me," Declares This Lady.

"I suffered for a long time with womanly weakness," says Mrs. J. R. Simpson, of 57 Spruce St., Asheville, N. C. "I finally got to the place where it was an effort for me to go. I would have bearing-down pains in my side and back—especially severe across my back, and down in my side there was a great deal of soreness. I was nervous and easily upset.

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I heard of Cardui and decided to use it," continues Mrs. Simpson. "I saw shortly it was benefiting me, so I kept it up and it did wonders for me. And since then I have been glad to praise Cardui. It is the best woman's tonic made." Weak women need a tonic. Thousands and thousands, like Mrs. Simpson, have found Cardui of benefit to them. Try Cardui for your trouble.

ALPINE YODLERS.

When planning attractions for the World's Fair in Chicago the program committee searched the world for organizations of an out-of-the-ordinary character with which to please their guests from other countries.

The late Mrs. Potter Palmer, a member of the committee, while traveling among the Tyrolean Alps, had heard the Fiechtls, a family of wonderful singers and yodlers. At her instigation the Fiechtl singers were summoned from their home in the heart of the mountains and through the entire exposition they delighted unnumbered thousands with the charm, the quaintness and the artistry of their work.

Many Swiss yodlers and singers have appeared in America since the World's Fair but few have ever approached the standard established by the Fiechtl family.

The years have come and gone but the Fiechtl Company still continues to charm the American public with the beauty of the Swiss songs. The personnel of the company has changed but little. Otto Fiechtl, organizer of the company, is dead, but the organization has been maintained throughout the years by the perseverance of Mrs. Fiechtl. Yodlers, the best in the Swiss Tyrols, have left their homes in the mountains to join the Fiechtl group in America. In this manner the standard of the organization has been maintained.

The singers appear in their native costumes, said to be the most picturesque worn by any of the peoples of Europe. Two complete changes of costume are made during the rendition of the program.

The concert of the Fiechtl family is made up of varied folk and yodel songs, native Tyrolean songs, and popular American airs. The entire program can be given in English if desired or the Fiechtls can give a combination of French, English and Tyrolean songs. Variety is afforded by the introduction of numbers rendered delightfully on the guitar, mandolin and zither, instruments always popular in the Tyrol.

TALENT SELECTED FOR EXCELLENT LYCEUM COURSE

Attractions for Season of 1920-21 Announced.

COURSE SURE TO PLEASE

Numbers Will Be Both Inspiring and Enjoyable—Season Ticket Sale Should Be Large.

The attractions which are to appear on the Lyceum course here this season have been announced. The various numbers have been especially well selected and everything points to a large sale of season tickets for the course.

The attractions were secured from the well known Redpath Lyceum Bureau, and this in itself is a guarantee of satisfaction. People are more than eager this year for instructive, inspirational lectures and clean entertainment, and the splendid attractions to be heard here are sure of a hearty reception. The numbers on the course are as follows:

LORANT AND COMPANY. For more than seventeen years the Great Laurant has been a Chautauqua and Lyceum headliner. For more than ten years he has appeared under Redpath management—a fact which speaks for itself.

During the years which he has devoted to the Lyceum platform many offers from vaudeville and theatrical managers have been turned aside by Mr. Laurant because he believed in the Lyceum as a greater field in which to present his work. In fact, as a charter member of the International

EUGENE LAURANT.

Lyceum association, he has had no small part in the development of this organization and the Lyceum movement as a whole.

The high esteem in which he is held by the members of his own profession is evidenced by the fact that he was given a gold medal by the Society of American Magicians. He has also appeared on several occasions before societies of scientific research.

It has always been Mr. Laurant's aim to have the most artistic magic entertainment before the public. He has never been content to let well enough alone or to rest upon his laurels. Each season he has endeavored to make his entertainment better than the last.

The production of the coming season will be equipped in the usual lavish manner that has characterized all his entertainments, the stage settings surpassing in beauty all previous efforts. A capable stage manager will have charge of this mass of equipment, insuring a perfect presentation of the program.

Mr. Laurant will be assisted by a talented pianist, who will delight the audiences with her piano solos. She also will take an active part in the various magic scenes.

HIS OPINION.

"What do you think of it?" eagerly demanded the author who had coaxed the noted critic into reading a play manuscript.

"Oh, I say, it's not fair for you to ask me that," the critic protested.

"Why not fair?" "Why, because you are so much bigger and stronger than I am."—Browning's Magazine.

Tests Disprove Old Theory that Charring Stops Decay.

The old theory that charring the butts of fence posts and telephone poles preserves the wood has been disproved by a series of tests recently conducted by the Forest Products Laboratory of the Forest Service, United States Department of Agriculture, on fences with charred and untreated posts of various species. The charred posts proved in these tests to be even less durable than the untreated ones.

Theoretically an area of charred wood around a post should prevent decay, because charcoal does not decay or encourage the growth of fungi. But the charred area around a post is not usually a solid covering. It is checked through in many places. If posts are seasoned before they are charred, the charring does not reach to the bottom of the season checks which are always present. If green unseasoned posts are charred, checks will open through the charred part as the wood seasons. In either case the uncharred center of the post is exposed to fungus infection and will decay as rapidly as untreated wood.

Charring deep enough to resist decay would undoubtedly weaken a post of ordinary size.

HOW MUCH DO YOU SHOW YOUR AGE?

A new form of Natural Iron enriches the blood—smooths out wrinkles—strengthens the nerves—wards off old age.

When you begin to show and feel your age, it is because your blood is thin and weak—it no longer carries life and strength to different parts of the body.

The man or woman with warm, rich red blood retains the appearance and feelings of youth, in spite of the creeping years. To ward off the feebleness and appearance of old age is simply a matter of keeping the blood pure and rich and filled with life and vigor.

Iron is the greatest and surest blood maker, but heretofore the difficulty has been to procure it in a form which the human system would absorb in sufficient quantities to bring satisfactory results. Pills and tonics said to contain iron have usually brought only disappointment.

But now there need be no longer any doubt or question, for a successful and reliable method of getting iron into the blood is assured by the use of a natural form of soluble iron known as Acid Iron Mineral. There are thousands of cases on record that prove this natural iron is a powerful blood and nerve builder.

For want of iron in the blood, you may be old at thirty, or you are more readily subject to the attack of disease without warning, or you will find yourself growing feebler day by day.

If you want to feel the elasticity of youth in your veins, and avoid all the complications and disappointments of increasing age, you will start taking Acid Iron Mineral at once. It contains no alcohol or injurious drugs, and it will not blacken the teeth like most preparations of iron.

Druggists will refund the purchase price cheerfully, if you fail to receive the improvement you seek.
