LEGATEE REFUSED MILLION DOLLARS

GARLAND ADVANCES SOMEWHAT UNUSUAL REASON FOR RE-NOUNCING LEGACY.

CONDEMNS MONETARY SYSTEM

White Hundreds Are Stuffed Condemns Itself."

Buzzards Bay, Mass.—Charles Garland, the young man who renounced his right to a million-dollar legacy left by his father, James A. Garland, was a wealthy club man and yachtsman of Boston, made a formal statement of his reason for rejecting his money. His statement, he said, was due to the fact that the many reof his failure to accept the fegacy had failed properly to present his

"I refuse to accept the money because it is not mine," was young Garland's summary of this action. "A system which starves thousands while tundreds are stuffed condemns itself. WILSON ASKED TO ACT AS MEDIATOR

LITTLE HOPE UNITED STATES WILL RELIEVE EUROPE OF AN EMBARRASSMENT.

FRANCE MAY SAVE SITUATION

Disarmament will be imposed Only With Due Regard for the Security of The Different States.

Geneva.-The attitude among delegates of the assembly of the League of Nations toward the appeal of the ague to President Wilson to act as meditator in the Armenian situation appears to be one of hope without ex-pectation that the United States will relieve Europe and the league of an mbarrassing situation.

Behind the admitted necessity of do ing something for Armenia, there is conflict of European interests involved. Great Britain it is understood, would look with great disfavor on intervention by any power having rival interests. Action by the United States well-known musicians and appeared in Armenia, it is held, would involve no such complications.

In default of action by Presiden Wilson, general opinion here is that France is the country most likely to offer favorable reply to the meditation appeal made by the council of the league to the various powers.
