The appointment of Mr. Slemp necessarily carries with it an en dersement of office pjobbeny in politics through official recognition of the most conspicuous Republican leader of the South whose connection therewith has been made a matter of public record on the floor of Congress.

Even some close friends of the Coolidge administration feel that the President has made a great mistake by this appointment The office of Secretary to the thought: A MANAIAS President is regarded by many as more important and more influential than that of a Cabinet officer. Until this appointment was made there was a general inclination in all quarters to withhold criticism of the Coolidge administration, The Democratic National Com-mittee had announced that it would only judge President Coolidge in the light of events as they happen, but it construes this ap pointment as a challenge to craticism not only from Democrate, surplus as North Carolina.
